C A P. III.

EXP.

An Act to prohibit the Exportation of any Corn, Malt, Meal, Flour, Bread, Biscuit or Starch for one Year, from the Tenth Day of February one thousand six hundred ninety eight.

Anno Regni GULIELMI III. decimo & undecimo.

C A P. IV.

An Act to prohibit the excessive distilling of Spirits and Low Wines from Corn, and against the exporting of Beer and Ale, and to prevent Frauds in Distillers.

WHEREAS it is found by Experience, that the drawing, distilling and making of Brandies or Spirits from Malt is one Cause of the present Dearth of Corn, especially of Barley, in this Realm, and by Reason of the great Scarcity of Corn in Foreign Parts, and the Restraints which are or may be made there of distilling Spirits from Corn, great Demands are and may be made of Spirits drawn from malted Corn in this Kingdom, to supply the Occasions of those Foreign Parts, which must needs tend to a further enhancing of the Price of Corn here, and prove a great Grievance to many of his Majesty's good Subjects, if a speedy Remedy be not provided: Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Person or Persons whatsoever, from and after the last Day of January in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety-eight, and before the First Day of February which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, shall directly or indirectly draw, distill or make, or cause or procure to be drawn, distilled or made within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, any Brandy, Aqua Vitæ, Spirits, or Low Wines whatsoever, other than such Quantities as are allowed by this Act, and under such Restrictions, and in such Manner and Form as are herein prescribed, from any Malt, Corn or Grain, or from any Wash or Liquors, produced or to be produced from any Malt, Corn or Grain whatsoever, under the Penalties and Forfeitures herein after mentioned (that is to say) that all the Brandy, Aqua Vitæ, Spirits and Low Wines, so made or drawn, shall be forfeited, and that every Offender and Offenders therein shall forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Shillings for every Gallon of Brandy, Aqua Vitæ, Spirits, or Low Wines, which shall be drawn, distilled, or made, contrary to this Act, and moreover, that all the Stills, Backs, Casks, and other Utensils and Vessels employed in the distilling, drawing, making or keeping the same, or any Part thereof, shall be forfeited; the Moiety of all which Penalties and Forfeitures shall be to the King's Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that shall discover, inform or sue for the same; and the said Penalties and Forfeitures shall and may be recovered in the same Manner, and by the same Means, as any Penalties and Forfeitures by any of the Laws and Statutes for the Excise now in Force, for any Offence or Offences against the same, are or may be recovered: And that all Servants and others, who shall be wittingly or willingly aiding or assisting in the making of the said Spirits or Low Wines contrary to this Act, and being thereof duly convicted in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or at the General Quarter-Sessions of the County, City, Riding, or Place, where such Offence shall be committed, or where such Person or Persons shall be apprehended or arrested for such Offence, shall suffer Imprisonment by the Space of six Months without Bail or Mainprize.

Penalty on distilling greater Quantities of Brandy, &c. than are allowed by this Act

II. Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons drawing Spirits, Brandy, or Low Wines from any Foreign Materials, or any English Materials, other than such as are prohibited by this Act, to make use of a reasonable Quantity of Yeast for the Fermentation of their Wash, in order to the distilling of the same; any Thing in this or any other Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Yeast may be used for Fermentation of Wash.

III. And whereas it is found by Experience, That his Majesty hath been very much defrauded of his Duties upon Low Wines and Spirits by many Distillers and other Persons, who keep or set up private and concealed Warehouses, Storehouses, Cellars or other Places, or private or concealed Stills, Backs or other Vessels for the making, preparing or keeping Wash, Low Wines, Spirits or other Materials fit for Distillation, and by private Pipes and Stop-cocks, and other private Conveyances, have Communication between their private and publick Backs and other Vessels, by which they do privately convey their Wash or other Liquors fit for Distillation from one Back or other Vessel to another, by Means whereof the Officers cannot take and keep a true and distinct Account of such Wash and other Liquors fit for Distillation, nor of the Low Wines and Spirits made or drawn from the same: And whereas the Gaugers and Officers of Excise are not sufficiently impowered by Law, upon Suspicion or Knowledge of such Frauds, to enter the Houses or Places where the same are practised without Consent of the Possessors thereof, or upon Entry and Discovery of such Frauds, cannot find out or discover the Person or Persons concerned therein, by Reason that the true Owner or Owners, of such Warehouses, Storehouses, Cellars or other Places, Stills, Backs or other Vessels, Spirits, Low Wines, Wash or other Materials fit for Distillation, will not appear or claim any Interest therein, but frequently disown the same; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Distiller having and keeping any private Pipe or Stop-cock, or other private Conveyance, by which any Wash or other Liquors fit for Distillation may be conveyed from one Back or Vessel to another, or from any such Back or other Vessel to their Still or Stills, or into any other Place, shall, before the Eight and twentieth Day of February one thousand six hundred ninety-eight, take up or demolish every such Pipe, Stop-cock, or other private Conveyance, and shall also stop up every Hole in every such Back or Washbatch, by which any Wash or other Liquors fit for Distillation may be conveyed into or out of such Back or Washbatch, or any of them, and that no Distiller, from and after the said Eight and twentieth Day of February, shall have or

An Act to prevent the Exportation of Wooll out of the Kingdoms of Ireland and England into foreign Parts; and for the Encouragement of the Woollen Manufactures in the Kingdom of England.

FORASMUCH as Wooll and the Woollen Manufactures of Cloth, Serge, Bays, Kerseys, and other Stuffs made or mixed with Wooll, are the greatest and most profitable Commodities of this Kingdom, on which the Value of Lands, and the Trade of the Nation do chiefly depend: And where-as great Quantities of the like Manufactures have of late been made, and are daily increasing in the Kingdom of Ireland, and in the English Plantations in America, and are exported from thence to foreign Markets, heretofore supplied from England, which will inevitably sink the Value of Lands, and tend to the Ruine of the Trade, and the Woollen Manufactures of this Realm: For the Prevention whereof, and for the Encouragement of the woollen Manufactures within this Kingdom, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Person or Persons whatsoever, from and after the Four and twentieth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, shall directly or indirectly export, transport, ship off, carry or convey, or cause or procure to be exported, transported, shipped off, carried, or conveyed out of, or from the said Kingdom of Ireland, into any foreign Realm, States, or Dominions, or into any Parts or Places whatsoever, other than the Parts within the Kingdom of England, or the Dominion of Wales, any the Wooll, Woollfells, Shortlings, Mortlings, Woollflocks, Worsted, Bay, or Woollen Yarn, Cloth, Serge, Bays, Kerseys, Says, Frizes, Druggets, Cloth-Serges, Shalloons, or any other Drapery Stuffs or Woollen Manufactures whatsoever, made up or mixed with Wooll or Woollflocks, or shall directly or indirectly load, or cause to be laden upon any Horse, Cart, or other Carriage, or load or lay on board, or cause to be laden or laid on board in any Ship or Vessel, in any Place or Parts within or belonging to the said Kingdom of Ireland, any such Wooll, Woollfells, Shortlings, Mortlings, Woollflocks, Worsted, Bay, or Woollen Yarn, Cloth, Bays, Kerseys, Serges, Says, Frizes, Druggets, Cloth-Serges, Shalloons, or any other Drapery or Woollen Manufactures, to the Intent or Purpose to export, transport, ship off, carry or convey the same, or cause the same to be exported, transported, shipped off, carried or conveyed out of the said Kingdom of Ireland, or out of any Port or Place belonging to the same, or with Intent or Purpose, that any Person or Persons whatsoever should so export, transport, ship off, carry or convey the same out of the said Kingdom of Ireland, into any Ports or Places, except as aforesaid.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every of the Offender and Offenders, Offence and Offences aforesaid, shall be subject and liable to the respective Pains, and Penalties, and Forfeitures hereafter following (that is to say) The said Wooll, Woollfells, Shortlings, Mortlings, Woollflocks, Worsted, Bay, or Woollen Yarn, Cloth, Serge, Bays, Kerseys, Says, Frizes, Druggets, Cloth-Serges, Shalloons, or any other Draperies, Stuffs, or any other Manufactures, made of or mixed with Wooll or Woollflocks, so exported, transported, shipped off, or carried, conveyed, or laden, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall be forfeited; and that every of the Offender and Offenders therein shall likewise forfeit the Sum of Five hundred Pounds for every such Offence; and all and every Ship, Vessel, Barge, Boat, or other Bottom whatsoever, wherein any of the said Commodities are or shall be shipped or laid on board, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall be forfeited, with all her Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture to them and every of them belonging; and the Masters and Mariners thereof, or any Porters, Carriers, Waggoners, Boatmen, or other Persons whatsoever, knowing such Offence, and wittingly aiding and assisting therein, shall forfeit forty Pounds; of which one Moiety shall be to him or them that shall sue for the same by Bill, Plaint, or Information in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record in England, or Ireland, and the other Moiety thereof to the Encouragement of setting up the Linen Manufactures in Ireland, to be disposed of by the Court of Exchequer there for that Use only; in which Suit no Effoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance shall be allowed.

III. And to prevent evading the Penalties of this Act, by Pretention of Prosecution or Acquittals in Ireland; be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Acquittal, nor any Indictment, Information, or Suit (unless the Offender be thereupon convicted) in Ireland, for any Offence provided against in this Act, shall be pleaded or allowed in Bar or Delay of any Indictment, Information, Suit, or Prosecution within the Kingdom of England.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons to seize, take, secure, and convey to his Majesty's next Warehouse, all such Wooll, Woollfells, Shortlings, Mortlings, Woollflocks, Worsted, Bay, or Woollen Yarn, Cloth, Serges, Bays, Kerseys, Says, Frizes, Druggets, Cloth-Serges, Shalloons, Stuffs, and other Draperies and Woollen Manufactures or mixed with Wooll or Woollflocks, as he or they shall happen to see, find, know, or discover to be laid on board in any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, or to be brought, carried, or laid on shore, at or near the Sea, or any navigable River or Water, to the Intent or Purpose to be exported or conveyed out of the said Kingdom of Ireland, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, or to be laden upon any Horse, Cart, or other Carriage, to the Intent or Purpose to be exported, conveyed, or carried into any foreign Parts or Places, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof; and also that it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person and Persons to seize and secure all and every such Ship, Hulk, Vessel, Barge,

An Act for suppressing of Lotteries.

WHEREAS several evil-disposed Persons, for divers Years last past, have set up many mischievous and unlawful Games, called Lotteries, not only in the Cities of London and Westminster, and in the Suburbs thereof, and Places adjoining, but in most of the eminent Towns and Places in England, and in the Dominion of Wales, and have thereby most unjustly and fraudulently got to themselves great Sums of Money from the Children and Servants of several Gentlemen, Traders and Merchants, and from other unwary Persons, to the utter Ruin and Impoverishment of many Families, and to the Reproach of the English Laws and Government, by Colour of several Patents or Grants under the Great Seal of England for the said Lotteries, or some of them; which said Grants or Patents are against the common Good, Trade, Welfare and Peace of his Majesty's Kingdoms: For Remedy whereof be it enacted, adjudged and declared, and it is hereby enacted, adjudged and declared by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all such Lotteries, and all other Lotteries, are common and publick Nuisances, and that all Grants, Patents and Licences for such Lotteries, or any other Lotteries, are void and against Law.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England, in Parliament assembled, as a further Supply for your Majesty's necessary Occasions, have given and granted unto your Majesty the Rates and Duties herein after mentioned, and do humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, to and for the Use of your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Sweets made or to be made within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, for Sale (over and above all former Duties already granted upon Sweets, and which are to continue during the respective Terms granted in the same) the Rates and Duties following; that is to say,

II. For every Barrel of Sweets made for Sale, after the tenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, and before the twentieth Day of July one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, the Sum of twelve Shillings. Sweets made before 20 July 1699. 12 s. per Barrel.

III. For every Barrel of Sweets made for Sale, after the nineteenth Day of July one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, and before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and one, the Sum of twenty-four Shillings. And before 25 March 1701. 24 s. per Barrel.

IV. And for every Barrel of Sweets made for Sale, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of March one thousand seven hundred, and before the five and twentieth Day of March which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and six, the Sum of six and thirty Shillings: The said Duties to be paid by the Maker and Makers of the said Sweets, and so in Proportion for greater or lesser Quantities. Before 25 March 1706. 36 s. per Barrel by the Maker.

V. And it is hereby declared, That all Liquors made by Infusion, Fermentation, or otherwise, from foreign Fruit or Sugar, or from Fruit or Sugar mixt with other Materials, and commonly made use of for recovering, increasing, or making of any Kinds of Wine or Cyder, or of any Liquor called Wine, shall be deemed to be Sweets within the Meaning of this and all former Acts for laying Duties on Sweets; and that the respective Duties imposed on Sweets by every of the said former Acts are chargeable by the Barrel, and so in Proportion for any greater or lesser Quantity; and that any Person who is a Retailer of, or shall at any Time sell or make use of, any the Liquors aforesaid, for any the Purposes before mentioned, and in whose Custody any Quantity of such Sweets, exceeding two Gallons, shall be found, shall be deemed and taken to be a Maker of Sweets for Sale within the Meaning of this and the said former Acts. Liquors deemed to be Sweets. 10 Geo. 2. c. 17. Duties chargeable by the Barrel. Maker of Sweets.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Refiners of Sugar, who shall before the first Day of June one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, enter into a Bond or Bonds to his Majesty, of the penal Sum of five hundred Pounds, upon Condition that he or they shall not sell, deliver out, or dispose of any Sweets or Liquors, commonly called Syrups, made from Sugar (except Mellassuses) or make use of the same, in making or increasing, or improving any Wine, Cyder, or Perry, or any Liquor called Wine, shall not be chargeable with the Duties of Sweets or Syrups hereby imposed, which he or they shall make from Sugar, until he or they shall so sell, dispose, or make use of such Sweets or Liquors made from Sugar. Proviso. Refiners of Sugar.

VII. And it is enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Duties on Sweets hereby granted shall be applied, and are hereby appropriated, for the same Uses and Purposes, to which Part of the present Duties on Sweets, with all the Duties on Malt, are appropriated, by an Act of Parliament made in the eighth Year of his Majesty's Reign. Duties how appropriated. 8 W. 3. c. 22.

VIII. And whereas by Virtue of several Acts of Parliament now in Force, there are several different Rates and Duties imposed on Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, or Liquors prepared for Vinegar, made within this Kingdom for Sale, by which Means the same Liquor is twice charged in different Operations; and it is found by Experience, that Vinegar made by passing through Rape is much better for any Use at home, and fitter for Exportation, than any other Sort of English Vinegar; and that the high Duties chargeable on Rape Vinegar by the former Acts are so great a Discouragement to the Makers thereof, that little or none is made, whereby his Majesty is defeated of the said high Duties, and the Nation deprived of a good and found Commodity; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the tenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, all the Duties on Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, and Liquor preparing for Vinegar, which might be chargeable after the said tenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, by Virtue of the said former Acts, or any of them, shall cease and determine. IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, that from and after the said tenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, there sh^{ll} be raised, levied, collected and paid, for and upon every Barrel of Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, or Liquors preparing for Vinegar, which shall be brewed or made of any English or foreign Materials, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, for Sale, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, the Sum of eight Shillings, to be paid by the Maker thereof, in the Manner hereafter in this Act expressed.

X. And it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Duties on Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, and Liquors preparing for Vinegar hereby granted, shall be raised and paid during the respective Terms hereafter mentioned, and no longer: And the Monies thereby arising shall be paid, applied and disposed of to and for the respective Uses and Purposes following, that is to say six Pence, Part of the said Duty of eight Shillings for every Barrel of Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, or Liquor preparing for Vinegar, shall be raised, collected and paid to his Majesty during his Life, in lieu of the like Duty of six Pence charged on every Barrel of Vinegar Beer, by an Act made in the second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty and the late Queen, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties for their Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of them, certain Impositions upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, and shall be paid, applied and disposed of, to and for the same Uses and Purposes, as the Duties granted by the same Act are directed to be applied and disposed of; six Pence more, Part of the said eight Shillings, to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in lieu of the like Duty of six Pence charged on every Barrel of Vinegar Beer, by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of the late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, and for settling of a Revenue upon his Majesty in lieu thereof, and shall be applied and disposed of to and for the same Uses and Purposes as the Duties granted by the same Act are directed to be applied and disposed of; two Shillings and four Pence, Part of the said eight Shillings, to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, during the Remainder of a Term of ninety-nine Years, commencing from the twenty-eighth Day of January one thousand six hundred ninety-two, in lieu of certain Duties imposed on Vinegar, and Vinegar Beer, and Liquors prepared for Vinegar, by an Act made in the fourth Year of his present Majesty and the said late Queen, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain Rates and Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for securing certain Recompences and Advantages in the said Act mentioned, to such Persons as shall voluntarily advance the Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds, towards carrying on the War against France, and shall be applied and disposed of to and for the same Uses and Purposes, as the Duties granted by the same Act are directed to be applied and disposed of; two Shillings and four Pence, Part of the said eight Shillings, to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, during the Remainder of a Term of sixteen Years, commencing from the seventeenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-seven, in lieu of certain Duties imposed on Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, and Liquors prepared for Vinegar by an Act made in the fifth and sixth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty and the said late Queen, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain Rates and Duties upon Salt, and upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for securing certain Recompences and Advantages in the said Act mentioned, to such Persons as shall voluntarily advance the Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds, towards carrying on the War against France, and shall be applied and disposed of to and for the same Uses and Purposes, as the Duties granted by the same Act are directed to be applied and disposed of; two Shillings and four Pence, Residue of the said eight Shillings, to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in lieu of certain Duties imposed on Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, and Liquors prepared for Vinegar, by another Act made in the same Years, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain Rates and Duties upon Tonnage of Ships and Vessels, and upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for securing certain Recompences and Advantages in the said Act mentioned, to such Persons as shall voluntarily advance the Sum of fifteen hundred thousand Pounds, towards carrying on the War against France, and shall be applied and disposed of to and for the same Uses and Purposes, as the Duties granted by the same Act are directed to be applied and disposed of.

XI. And for avoiding Disputes and Controversies which may arise touching Liquors preparing for Vinegar, be it enacted and declared, That all stale Beer, Returns of Beer or Ale, Cyder, Verjuice or any other Liquors proper to be made into Vinegar, which at any Time after the said tenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, shall be found in the Custody or Possession of any common Vinegar Maker (except such Beer, Ale, and other Liquors as are to be drank in his Family, and which shall be kept separate and apart for that Purpose) shall be deemed and taken to be Vinegar or Liquors preparing for Vinegar within the Meaning of this Act.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said tenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, every Vinegar Maker, receiving into his Custody, any of the Liquors aforesaid, shall shew the same to the Gager of the Division where such Maker shall live,

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Vinegar Maker shall at any Time after the said tenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety and nine, without first giving Notice thereof, at the next Office of Excise, make use of any Storehouse, Warehouse, Cellar or other Place for the making, laying or keeping any Vinegar, Vinegar Beer or Liquors preparing for Vinegar, every such Vinegar Maker shall forfeit and lose for every such private Storehouse, Warehouse, Cellar, and other Place so made use of without such Notice as aforesaid, the Sum of fifty Pounds.

34 Gallons shall be accounted a Barrel of Vinegar, &c.

XVI. And whereas several Makers of Vinegar may have in their Custody several Quantities of Vinegar Beer, or Liquors preparing for Vinegar, on the said tenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, for which they may then stand charged with, or have answered to his Majesty, some of the Duties imposed by the former Acts; Be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That every such Vinegar Maker shall, by Virtue of this Act, be chargeable for such Vinegar Beer, or Liquors preparing for Vinegar, with so much only as shall make the Duties charged thereon by Virtue of the former Acts, eight Shillings for every Barrel thereof, and no more; any Thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Stock how chargeable.

XVII. And whereas it is found by Experience, that the Art of distilling Spirits or Brandy in this Kingdom is of late Years very much improved, and that Spirits or Brandy made here from Melasses and Sugar, which are the Produce of the English Plantations, is near as good as Brandy imported from foreign Parts: And whereas by an Act made in the seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for laying several Duties upon Low Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction, and for preventing the Frauds and Abuses of Brewers, Distillers, and other Persons chargeable with the Duties of Excise, there is a Duty of eight Pence imposed upon every Gallon of Low Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction, made or drawn from any foreign or imported Materials, or any Mixture with foreign Materials, and a Duty of three Pence upon every Gallon of Low Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction made or drawn from any English Materials, other than Drink made or brewed from malted Corn, or from Brewers Wash or Tilts, which said High Duties are a great Discouragement to the making of the said Commodities, and do occasion undue Practices in the same; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the tenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, four Pence per Gallon, Part of the said Duty of eight Pence imposed upon every Gallon of Low Wines and Spirits of the first Extraction, made or drawn from any foreign or imported Materials, or any Mixture with foreign Materials, and one Moiety or half Part of the said Duty of three Pence upon every Gallon of Low Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction, made or drawn from any English Materials (other than Drink made or brewed from malted Corn, or from Brewers Wash or Tilts) granted by the said former Act, shall cease and determine, and be no longer payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, in any Manner of wife; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

7 W. 3. c. 30.

From 10 May 1699. One Moiety of the Duties on Low Wines, &c. to cease.

XVIII. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, shall not extend to take away, lessen or make void the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money accruing or becoming due to his Majesty, for any Low Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction, actually made or drawn from any the Materials before mentioned, before the said tenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, and which shall be then due and owing to his Majesty; and that all and every the Clauses, Matters and Things in the last mentioned Act contained, for charging, securing, raising, levying or paying the whole Duties on the said Low Wines and Spirits of the first Extraction, which were thereby granted, and for disposing, applying and appropriating the same to the Uses and Purposes therein mentioned, shall be applied, practised and put in Execution for the charging, securing, levying, raising and paying the said remaining Parts of the said Duties upon Low Wines or Spirits (not hereby taken away) and for disposing, applying and appropriating thereof to the same Uses and Purposes, as fully and effectually as if the said Clauses, Matters and Things were for that Purpose again repeated and particularly re-enacted by this present Act.

Act not to void the Payment of Duties already due.

Former Act 7 W. 3. c. 30. continued.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the Powers, Authorities, Directions, Rules, Methods, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters and Things, which in and by an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of the late King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, and for settling a Revenue upon his Majesty in lieu thereof, or by any other Law now in Force relating to his Majesty's Revenue of Excise upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, are provided, settled or established for raising, levying, collecting, recovering, adjudging or ascertaining the Duties thereby granted, or any of them (other than in such Cases for which other Penalties or Provisions are made and prescribed by this Act) shall be exercised, practised, applied, used, levied, recovered and put in Execution for the raising, levying, collecting, recovering, and paying, as well the said Duties upon Sweets, as the said Duties upon Vinegar, Vinegar Beer, or Liquors preparing for Vinegar, and the several Duties upon Low Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction, during the Continuance of the same, or any of them, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the said Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Methods, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things were particularly repeated and again enacted in the Body of this present Act.

Fines, Penalties,

vered,

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, by this Act imposed, shall be sued for, levied, and recovered by such Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Fine, Forfeiture, and Penalty, is or may be recovered by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster; and that one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that shall discover, inform or sue for the same.

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time be sued or prosecuted for any thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, or any other Act relating to his Majesty's Revenue of Excise, he or they shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the said respective Acts in Evidence for his or their Defence, and if upon the Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs be nonsuited, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have treble Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

XXII. And whereas it is found by Experience, that any Quantity of Wash made of Melasses, will, upon Distillation, produce one fourth Part of the same Quantity into Low Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction; and that such Low Wines or Spirits upon the second Distillation will produce two third Parts of the Quantity of the same Low Wines or Spirits into Proof Spirits, or Spirits of the second Extraction: And whereas many Distillers do hide and conceal great Quantities of such Low Wines and Spirits from the Sight and View of the Gager, before he can come to charge the same, by Means whereof of his Majesty is very much defrauded in his Duties on such Low Wines and Proof Spirits: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said tenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Gagers and Officers of Excise to keep an Account of all such Wash, which shall from Time to Time be found by him or them in the Hands of any Distiller, and upon any Decrease thereof, to charge such Distiller with so much Low Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction, as one fourth Part of the Wash so decreased shall amount unto; and also with so much Proof Spirits, or Spirits of the second Extraction, as two third Parts of the Low Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction, so charged as aforesaid, shall amount unto; and such Distiller shall pay the respective Duties of the Low Wines and Spirits so charged, as by the former Act is directed and appointed; any thing in the said Act, or any other Statute, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XXIII. And whereas by an Act next herein after recited, it is enacted, That upon the Discovery of any private Still, Back, or other Vessel, according to the Directions of the said Act, every such Still, Back, and other Vessel, shall be seized, and that the Owner or Owners of every such Still, Back, and other Vessel, who shall claim the same within twenty Days after such Seizure, shall forfeit and lose for every such Still, Back, and other Vessel, the Sum of two hundred Pounds: And whereas upon the Discovery of several private Stills and Backs since the Commencement of the said Act, some Doubt hath been made whether the Owners of such Stills and Backs, by refusing to claim the same within the Time limited by the said Act, may not avoid the Penalties thereby imposed; be it enacted, That from and after the tenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, the Proprietor of any such private Still, Back, or other Vessel, which shall be discovered according to the Directions of the said Act, or the Person in whose Custody the same shall be found, shall forfeit and lose for every such Still, Back, and other Vessel, the said Penalty of two hundred Pounds; any thing in the said Act, or any other Law or Statute, to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XXIV. And whereas by an Act made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to prohibit the excessive distilling of Spirits and Low Wines from Corn, and against the exporting of Beer and Ale, and to prevent Frauds in Distillers, it is enacted, That no Person whatsoever, from and after the last Day of January in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety-eight, and before the first Day of February which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, shall draw, distill, or make any Brandy, Aqua Vitæ, Spirits, or Low Wines whatsoever, other than such Quantities as are allowed by the said Act, from any Malt, Corn, or Grain whatsoever, under the Penalties and Forfeitures therein mentioned: And whereas several Distillers of this Kingdom, their Servants and Agents, had incurred the Penalties of the said Law, without any Knowledge thereof, by distilling in the two Months betwixt the last of January one thousand six hundred ninety-eight, and the first of April one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, greater Quantities of Spirits or Low Wines from Corn than the said Act doth allow; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every such Distiller, his Servant, or Agent, who in the next succeeding Month or Months after the one and thirtieth Day of March one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, shall abate of the Quantities of such Low Wines and Spirits, which he might lawfully draw in the same, so much as he exceeded the Quantities allowed in the said two Months, shall not be prosecuted, or have any Penalty inflicted upon him, for or on Account of such Breach of the said Act in the said two Months; any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXV. And whereas the pecuniary Penalties inflicted by an Act made in the eighth Year of his Majesty's Reign, for laying several Duties upon Leather, for the Term of three Years, are directed to be sued for by Action of Debt, or on the Case, or by Bill, Suit, or Information, in some Court of Record, whereby ‘whereby the Recovery of those Penalties are not only tedious and chargeable, but troublesome and vexatious, by Multitudes of popular Actions and Informations brought by common Informers:’ For the preventing whereof, and more easy and speedy recovering the pecuniary Penalties inflicted by the said Act, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the tenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, it shall and may be lawful to and for any two or more of the Justices of the Peace, residing near to the Place where any such Forfeiture shall be made, or Offence committed, to hear and determine the same, who are hereby authorized and required, upon any Information exhibited or brought for any of the pecuniary Penalties by the said Act inflicted, to summon the Party accused, and also the Witnesses on either Side, and upon the Appearance, or Contempt of the Party accused in not appearing (upon Proof of Notice given) to proceed to the Examination of the Witnesses upon Oath (which Oath they are hereby empowered to administer) and to give Judgment or Sentence accordingly; and where the Party accused shall be convicted of the Offence alledged against him, to award and issue Warrants under their Hands for the levying of such Penalty or Penalties on the Goods of the Offender, and to cause Sale to be made thereof, in case they shall not be redeemed within six Days, rendering to the Party the Overplus, if any be; and if either Party shall find himself aggrieved by the Judgment of the said Justices, then he or they may appeal to his Majesty’s Justices of the Peace, at the next Quarter-Sessions, in like Manner as by the said recited Act is mentioned in case of Appeal. EXP.

Penalties in the Leather Act may be determined by two Justices of Peace, &c. Who may summon the Party, examine Witnesses on Oath, and give Judgment. Penalty to be levied on Offender’s Goods. Party aggrieved may appeal.

XXVI. Provided nevertheless, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said respective Justices, where they shall see Cause, to mitigate or lessen such Penalty, in such Manner as they in their Discretion shall think fit, the reasonable Costs and Charges of the Officers, as well in making the Discovery, as in the Prosecution of the same, being always allowed over and above such Mitigation, and so as such Mitigation do not reduce the Fine to less than one fourth Part thereof, over and besides the said Costs and Charges; any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Justices may mitigate the Penalty.

XXVII. And whereas by one Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, a Duty of Four-pence was imposed upon every Gallon of Strong Waters perfectly made, imported from beyond the Seas, to be paid for ever; and by one other Act, made in the second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, and the late Queen of blessed Memory, the like Duty of Four-pence per Gallon thereupon, is payable during his Majesty’s Life; and by another Act, made in the fourth Year of their said Majesties Reign, there is a Duty of Six-pence imposed upon every Gallon of Single Brandy imported, and a Duty of Twelve-pence on every Gallon of Double Brandy imported, for the Term of ninety-nine Years, commencing on the twenty-fifth Day of July one thousand six hundred ninety-two; and by one other Act made in the fifth Year of their said Majesties Reign, there is a Duty of two Shillings imposed upon every Gallon of Single Brandy, and four Shillings upon every Gallon of Double Brandy imported, for the Term of sixteen Years, commencing the seventeenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-seven; and by one other Act made in the same Year, there is a Duty of Six-pence upon all Single Brandy, and one Shilling on all Double Brandy imported, granted in Perpetuity; all which Duties upon Single Brandy do amount to three Shillings and Eight-pence for every Gallon, and upon Double Brandy to six Shillings and Eight-pence for every Gallon for the Excise thereof, over and above other Duties which are payable for the Customs of the same: And it is nevertheless doubted, that by the general Words of an Act of Parliament, made in the eighth Year of his Majesty’s Reign, intituled, An Act for making good the Deficiencies of several Funds therein mentioned, and for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, and for raising the Publick Credit, a further Duty of two Shillings for every Gallon of Single Brandy, and of four Shillings for every Gallon of Double Brandy imported (which had been granted in the fourth Year of the Reign of his Majesty and the said late Queen) were and are (in strictness) imposed or chargeable from the last Day of February one thousand six hundred ninety-six, until the first Day of August, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and six, which (if required or insisted upon) would amount to a Prohibition of the said Commodities; Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Act, For making good the Deficiencies of several Funds therein mentioned, and for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, and for raising the Publick Credit, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend, or be construed to extend to charge Single Brandies imported with the last mentioned Duty of two Shillings for every Gallon, or Double Brandy imported with the last mentioned Duty of four Shillings for every Gallon, or any Part thereof, from the Commencement or during the Continuance of the Act last mentioned; any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

‘ XXIX. And whereas the Importation of Tobacco in Bulk hath given abundant Opportunity to ill disposed Persons to run the same on Shore, without paying his Majesty’s Customs due thereon, to the great impairing of the Revenue, and the no less Prejudice of the fair Trader:’ For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred, no Tobacco be brought or imported into this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in any Ship or Vessel from any of his Majesty’s Plantations on the Continent of America, nor shipped in any of the said Plantations in order to be so imported, otherwise than in Cask, Chest, or Case only, each Cask, Chest, or Case whereof, shall contain two hundred Weight of neat Tobacco at the least, and each hundred thereof shall contain one hundred and twelve Pounds, under the Penalties and Forfeitures following, that is to say, That all the Tobacco so imported, or shipped to be imported, contrary to this Act, shall be forfeited, and every Person or Persons offending, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning hereof, shall forfeit Sixpence for every Pound Weight thereof, two third Parts thereof to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other third Part thereof to such Person as shall seize and sue for the same: Provided nevertheless, That such small Quantities as shall be necessary for the Ships Companies smoaking in the said Voyage, shall not be deemed or construed any Breach of this Act; the said Forfeitures and Penalties to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Complaint or Information, in any of his Majesty’s Courts of Record at Westminster, in which no Essoin, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed, nor more than one Imparlance.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons whatsoever, from and after the said tenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, to import into England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, from Germany, Pearl Ashes, being the Product of Germany, paying his Majesty his Customs and Duties as Pot Ashes; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Whale Fin taken and caught by the People and Inhabitants of New England, New York, and Pennsylvania, or any other his Majesty’s Plantations and Colonies in America, and imported from thence, shall be chargeable with and pay to his Majesty (by Virtue of an Act of the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for taking away half the Duties imposed on Glass Wares, and the whole Duties lately laid on Stone and Earthen Wares, and Tobacco Pipes, for granting in lieu thereof, new Duties upon Whale Fins and Scotch Linen) the like Duties, as Whale Fin caught and imported in and by any Ships or Vessels whatsoever, of or belonging to the Company established for the Greenland Trade are chargeable withal, and no further or other Duty by Means or Virtue of the said Act only; any Thing in the said last mentioned Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

8 & 9 W. 3. c. 22.

‘ XXXII. And whereas the Duties granted to his Majesty by one Act of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty certain Duties upon Malt, Mum, Sweets, Cyder and Perry, as well towards carrying on the War against France, as for the necessary Expences of his Majesty’s Household, are likely to expire before they have fully answered and satisfied the Ends and Purposes for which they were granted: And whereas the Commons in Parliament assembled, have declared they will make good all such Deficiencies as shall happen upon the falling short of the said Duties: And whereas there is a small Interest of one Farthing a Day allowed by the last recited Act, upon several Bills or Tickets, commonly called Malt Lottery Tickets: Now for the advancing the Credit and Value of the said Bills or Tickets, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, upon every such Bill or Ticket carrying the said Interest of one Farthing a Day (other than such Bills or Tickets as shall be paid off and discharged by the Duty now chargeable with the same) an additional Interest of one farthing a Day shall be allowed and paid respectively upon every such Bill or Ticket, until such Bill or Ticket shall be fully paid off and discharged.

And whereas by an Act passed in the eighth Year of his Majesty’s Reign (wherein certain Duties were granted upon Malt and other Things) several Tickets were made forth for several Sums of Money, payable with Interest; several of which Tickets are since burnt, lost or otherwise destroyed; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where it shall appear by Affidavit, to be made before any of the Barons of the Exchequer, that any Ticket or Tickets, being in Course of Payment, out of the Monies arisen or to arise, on or before the tenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, into the Receipt of the Exchequer for the Duties aforesaid, is or are burnt, destroyed, or otherwise lost, it shall and may be lawful for the Officer or Officers, appointed to pay or discharge the said Annuities, on producing a Certificate from the said Baron, of such Affidavit made before him, which Affidavit the said Barons, or any of them, is and are hereby authorized to take, and which Certificate he or they are hereby required to grant without Fee or Reward; and on Security given to the said Officer to his good Liking, to indemnify him against all other Persons whatsoever, for or concerning the Monies contained or specified in such Ticket or Tickets, or which was due thereon, he the said Officer shall and is hereby required to pay and discharge the said Tickets, being such as came in Course within the Time aforesaid, as if the said Tickets had been produced, and shall be allowed such Payment in his Accounts; any Thing in this or any other Act contained to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.

‘ XXXIV. And whereas it is found by Experience, That notwithstanding any Law now in Force, many Common Brewers do use great Quantities of Melasses in the brewing Ale and Beer, whereby the Consumption of Malt is very much hindered, and his Majesty defrauded of a great Part of the Duties of such ‘such Ale and Beer so brewed as aforesaid;’ Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any common Brewer, or Retailer of Beer or Ale, shall, after the said tenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, make use of any Melasses, coarse Sugar, Honey, or Composition or extract of Sugar, in the brewing, making or working of any Ale or Beer, or if any common Brewer shall receive or take into his Custody or Possession any Quantity of Melasses, coarse Sugar, Honey, or Composition or extract of Sugar, exceeding ten Pounds, every such Brewer and Retailer shall forfeit and lose for every such Offence respectively the Sum of one hundred Pounds; and every Servant of such Brewer, and every other Person, who shall be aiding and assisting in the using any Melasses, coarse Sugar, Honey, or extract of Sugar, in the brewing or working of such Ale or Beer, or in carrying or conveying the same into the House, Brewhouse or other Place belonging to such Brewer, shall also forfeit and lose, for every such Offence, the Sum of twenty Pounds, and in Default of Payment thereof shall suffer three Months Imprisonment.

‘XXXV. And whereas by an Act of this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty the Sum of one Million four hundred eighty-four thousand and fifteen Pounds one Shilling eleven Pence three Farthings, for disbanding the Army, providing for the Navy, and for other necessary Occasions, it is amongst other Things enacted, That a Sum not exceeding the Sum of six hundred thousand Pounds, of the Monies to be paid into the Exchequer by Virtue of the said Act, should be and is thereby appropriated in the first Place to the paying and disbanding the Forces enacted to be disbanded, and the Residue of the said Sum of six hundred thousand Pounds, for and towards the Subsistence and Clearings of his Majesty’s Guards and Garrisons within the Kingdom of England, and the Dominions thereunto belonging (Ireland excepted) for the Year one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, and to other the Purposes in the said Act mentioned: And whereas it is or may be doubted, whether any Part of the said Money, so appropriated to the Subsistence and Clearings of his Majesty’s Guards and Garrisons, may or ought to be applied towards the paying the Arrear of Subsistence due to the said Garrisons before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, according to the Course of Payment, and true Intention of the said last mentioned Act;’ Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Money so appropriated and applicable to the Subsistence and Clearings of the Guards and Garrisons, for the Year one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, shall and may be applied as well to the Payment of the said Arrear of Subsistence, due to the said Garrisons at any Time before the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, as for and towards the Subsistence and Clearings of the said Guards and Garrisons for the Year one thousand six hundred ninety-nine; any Thing in the said last mentioned Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

C A P. XXII.

An Act for the more full and effectual charging of the Duties upon Rock Salt.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

‘WE your Majesty’s most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament assembled, taking Notice that by divers Acts of Parliament now in Force, several Duties, whereof some are for Terms of Years yet unexpired, and others in Perpetuity, are imposed upon all Salt and Rock Salt made within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or taken out of any Pit or Pits within the same, to be raised, disposed and applied to and for the several Uses and Purposes in the same, or by some other Act or Acts of Parliament in that Behalf, expressed and declared; and being sensible that Rock Salt, which in and by the said Acts, or some of them, is chargeable with the said Duties, after the Rate of one hundred and twenty Pounds Weight to the Bushel, may be and is used in Kind for curing Fish, Flesh and other Purposes, without being refined into white Salt, and all white Salt made from Brine, or otherwise, being chargeable with the said Duties, after the Rate of fifty-six Pounds Weight to the Bushel, and that one hundred and twenty Pounds Weight of Rock Salt, used in Kind, will serve the Use of almost two Bushels of White Salt, reckoned at fifty-six Pounds Weight as aforesaid, whereby the Makers of Salt from Brine have been and are extremely discouraged, and his Majesty’s Duties intended by the said Acts have been and are very much impaired,’ have therefore resolved to increase your Majesty’s Duties upon all Rock Salt and Salt Rock, by reducing the Bushel, according to which the Duties thereof shall be paid for the future in the Manner hereafter mentioned.

II. And be it enacted by the King’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That from and after the fifteenth Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, every seventy-five Pounds Weight of Rock Salt, or Salt Rock, taken out of any Pit or Pits within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall be deemed deemed and taken to be a Winchester Bushel, of eight Gallons Winchester Measure, and shall be entred, rated and taxed accordingly, to and for the several Duties upon Salt Rock and Rock Salt, by the said several Acts of Parliament charged or made payable, instead of the Bushel of one hundred and twenty Pounds Weight in the said Acts or any of them mentioned, and greater or lesser Quantities of the said Salt Rock, or Rock Salt, shall be reckoned proportionably; any Thing in the said former Acts, or any other Law or Statute whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding.

‘ III. And whereas by the said former Acts, or some of them, it is provided, That all Makers and Proprietors of Rock Salt should make true Entries with his Majesty’s Officers, of the Quantities of Salt by them taken out of any Pit or Pits, and should have a Warrant or Ticket from some one of the Officers, to carry away the same, before the said Salt made or taken out of any Pit or Pits, should be removed or carried from the respective Pits, and that such Warrant should be given gratis unto such Maker or Proprietor, upon paying or giving Security for Payment of his Majesty’s Duties within six Months after such Entry made; nevertheless the Owners or Proprietors of Rock Salt having by the said Acts, or some of them, Liberty to remove their Rock Salt into his or their own Warehouses, or other Places for securing thereof, for Conveniency of selling or shipping off the same, after due Entry made, and a Warrant or Ticket taken for the same from the Officer next to such Salt Pits, and to pay and secure the Duty when the said Rock Salt shall be sold and delivered, it is found by Experience, that there is not a sufficient Charge made and kept upon the said Owners or Proprietors, for all the Rock Salt or Salt Rock taken out of his or their Pit or Pits, but between the Pits and the said Storehouses (which are in many Places contrived so as to be remote from the Pits) or else before the Selling and Delivery of the said Rock Salt, great Quantities thereof are run and imbezilled, and never charged, to his Majesty’s great Damage, and the Injury of such Workers as justly pay his Majesty’s Dues:’ For Remedy whereof be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Owner or Proprietor of any such Rock Pit or Pits, who after the said fifteenth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, shall take any Rock Salt or Salt Rock out of any such Pit, shall, before the Removal thereof, cause the same to be weighed in the Presence of the Officer appointed for the Duties on Salt; which Officer is hereby authorized and required to attend at such Salt Pits, at all reasonable Hours in the Day-time, to see and take Account of all such Rock Salt and Salt Rock so weighed, and thereof to make Return or Report, in Writing under his Hand, to the Commissioners of Excise, or to such Person as they shall appoint to receive the same, leaving a true Copy of such Return, in Writing under his Hand, with such Proprietor, and such Report or Return shall be a Charge upon such Proprietor respectively; and if any such Proprietor shall refuse to weigh any such Rock Salt and Salt Rock, in the Presence of the Officer, when taken out of any Pit, as aforesaid, or shall remove or convey, or suffer to be conveyed from such Pit, any such Rock Salt and Salt Rock, before the same shall have been weighed as aforesaid, every such Proprietor shall forfeit and lose for every such Offence the Sum of twenty Pounds, and also double the Value of the Rock Salt and Salt Rock so removed as aforesaid.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Proprietor of such Rock Pits shall pay and clear off the Duties of all Rock Salt and Salt Rock so charged, as aforesaid, within two Days after such Charge was made, or shall within the said two Days give Security to pay the same within nine Months; and every such Proprietor, who shall not pay and clear off, nor give Security to pay, as aforesaid, shall forfeit double the Value of the said Duties.

V. Provided always, That if any Person or Persons shall within the said two Days after such Charges, as aforesaid, pay down the Duty charged by this Act, such Person or Persons shall be allowed after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the said Time of nine Months.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any such Rock Salt or Salt Rock, for which his Majesty’s Duties, after the Rate of seventy-five Pounds Weight to the Bushel, shall have been first duly charged and paid or secured, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall be melted and refined, the Person or Persons who shall refine the same into white Salt (which white Salt is charged by the said Acts with new Duties, after the Rate of fifty-six Pounds to the Bushel) shall have an Allowance or Abatement out of the Duties of the said white Salt, of so much as was charged on the said Rock so melted and refined, after the Rate of seventy-five Pounds to the Bushel, and not after the Rate of one hundred-twenty Pounds to the Bushel, as by the said former Acts was prescribed, so as the Rock so refined was before the melting thereof weighed in the Presence of the Officer, and so as Oath be first made before some Justice of Peace near adjoining to such Salt Works, of the particular Quantities of such Rock Salt or Salt Rock so by such Refiner employed in making the said white Salt, and that he or any other Person or Persons, by his Privy or Knowledge, did not increase the said Rock Salt or Salt Rock, by mixing or other undue Practice, and that no former Allowance or Abatement for the said Rock Salt or Salt Rock had been made or obtained to his Use or Benefit (which Oath the said Justice of the Peace is hereby empowered to administer) and so as due Proof be made upon Oath, or otherwise, that the Duties for the said Rock Salt or Salt Rock so refined were duly charged and paid, or secured to be paid, after the Rate of seventy-five Pounds to the Bushel, according to this Act, and not otherwise; any Thing in the said former Acts to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. And to the end that Rock Salt or Salt Rock in Kind, and Salt refined and made from Rock Salt or Salt Rock, may be exported, and the Duties charged thereon be repaid; be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for all such Rock Salt, Salt Rock, and refined Salt, made from Rock Salt or Salt Rock, as shall be exported from any Port or Place in this Kingdom, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, into Parts beyond the Seas, by any Person or Persons whatsoever, there shall be allowed and paid for every Bushel of such Rock Salt or Salt Rock, whereof the Duties shall have been charged and

An Act for the better apprehending, prosecuting and punishing of Felons that commit Burglary, House-breaking, or Robbery in Shops, Warehouses, Coach-houses or Stables, or that steal Horses.

WHEREAS the Crimes of Burglary and breaking open of Houses in a felonious Manner, and the Crime of stealing Goods privately out of Shops and Warehouses, commonly called Shoplifting, and the stealing of Horses, are of late Years much increased, to the great Detriment and unspeakable Loss of many of your Majesty's good Subjects, occasioned for want of due Prosecution and Punishment of Offenders therein, and for want of Encouragement to such as shall vigorously endeavour the apprehending of such Malefactors: For preventing whereof be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every Person and Persons, that shall at any Time or Times, by Night or in the Day-time, from and after the twentieth Day of May, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, in any Shop, Warehouse, Coach-house or Stable, privately and feloniously steal any Goods, Wares or Merchandizes, being of the Value of five Shillings or more (although such Shop, Warehouse, Coach-house or Stable be not actually broke open by such Offender or Offenders, and although the Owners of such Goods, or any other Person or Persons, be or be not in such Shop, Warehouse, Coach-house or Stable, to be put in Fear) or shall assist, hire or command any Person or Persons to commit such Offence, being thereof convicted or attainted by Verdict or Confession, or being indicted thereof shall stand mute, or will not directly answer to the indictment, or shall peremptorily challenge above the Number of three and twenty Persons returned to be of the Jury, shall by virtue of this Act be absolutely debarred and excluded of and from the Benefit of the Clergy.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twentieth Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-nine, all and every Person and Persons, who shall apprehend and take any Person guilty of any the Felonies before mentioned, and prosecute him, her or them so apprehended and taken, until he, she or they be convicted of any the aforesaid Felonies, such Apprehenders and Takers, for his, her or their Reward upon every such Conviction, without any Fee or Reward to be paid for the same, shall have forthwith after every such Conviction a Certificate, which shall be under the Hand or Hands of the Judge, Justice or Justices before whom every such Conviction shall be had, certifying such Conviction, and also within what Parish or Place the Felony was committed, whereof any such Person or Persons was or were convicted as aforesaid, and also that such Felon or Felons was or were discovered and taken, or discovered, or taken, by the Person or Persons so discovering or apprehending any the said Felon or Felons; and in case any Dispute shall happen to arise between any of the Persons so discovering or apprehending any the said Felon or Felons to convict as aforesaid, touching their Right or Title to the said Certificate, that then the said Judge, Justice or Justices, or the major Part of them, so respectively making such Certificate as aforesaid, shall in and by his or their Certificate, direct and appoint the said Certificate into so many Shares, to be divided amongst the Persons therein concerned, as to the said Judge, Justice or Justices, or the major Part of them shall seem just and reasonable, which Certificate shall and may be once assigned over, and no more, and the original Proprietor of such Certificate, or the Assignee of the same, whomsoever of them shall have the Interest therein, by virtue thereof and of this present Act, shall and may be discharged of and from all and all Manner of Parish and Ward Offices, within the Parish or Ward wherein such Felony or Felonies shall be committed, and such Party or Assignee is hereby declared to be discharged therefrom; which said Certificate shall be inrolled by the Clerk of the Peace of the County in which the same shall be granted; for which Inrollment the said Clerk of the Peace of the County or City, in which the same shall be granted, shall have for his Fee the Sum of one Shilling, and no more.

III. Provided nevertheless, That if any Person having such Certificate, shall at any time make use of the said Certificate to exempt him from any Parish or Ward Office, such Person so making use of the said Certificate, or any other Person or Persons claiming any Interest therein, shall not assign over the said Certificate to any Person or Persons whatsoever.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons shall happen to be slain by any such House-breakers, Horse-stealers, or other Felon aforesaid, by endeavouring to apprehend, or in making Pursuit after him, her or them, or any of them, that then the Executors or Administrators of such Person or Persons so slain, to whom the Right of Administration of the personal Estate of every Person so slain shall belong, shall have the said Certificate in Manner as aforesaid, without Fee or Reward as aforesaid.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, from and after the said twentieth Day of May in the said Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety and nine, shall commit any Burglary, House-breaking, or Felony in stealing of any Horse or Horses, or any Money, Wares or Goods, from whom the Benefit of the Clergy is by this Act taken away, and being out of Prison, shall discover

And whereas the great Fees that are often demanded and received by Clerks of Assize, of Persons that appear as Witnesses against Felons, tend very much to the discouraging their Conviction, to the great Damage of his Majesty's good Subjects: To remedy the same for the future be it enacted, That no Clerk of Assize, Clerk of the Peace, or other Person whatsoever, shall demand, take or receive any Fee or Reward of any Person whatsoever that shall be bound by any Justice of the Peace to appear to give Evidence against any Traitor or Felon, for the Discharge of any Recognizance for such Appearance, nor shall demand or receive more than two Shillings for the drawing any Bill of Indictment against any such Felon, upon the Pain of forfeiting to the Person aggrieved, for every such Offence, the Sum of five Pounds, with full Costs of Suit.

'VIII. And whereas it often happens that Clerks of Assize, Clerks of the Crown, Clerks of the Peace, Clerks of the Indictments, or other proper Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, do draw Bills defective; be it enacted, That if any Clerk of Assize, Clerk of the Crown, Clerk of the Peace, Clerk of the Indictments, or other proper Officer, or their Clerks or Deputies, shall draw any Bill defective, they shall draw new Bills without demanding any Fee or Reward whatsoever, or forfeit the Sum of five Pounds, with full Costs of Suit, and that all the Forfeitures aforesaid shall be recovered by him, her or them that will sue for the same, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record, wherein no Effoin, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

C A P. VII.

An Act for the more effectual Suppression of Piracy.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth, it is enacted, That Treasons, Felonies, Robberies, Murders, and Confederacies committed on the Sea, shall be enquired of, tried, and determined according to the common Course of the Laws of this Land used for such Offences upon the Land within this Realm; whereupon the Trial of those Offenders before the Admiral, or his Lieutenant, or his Commissary, hath been altogether refused: And whereas, that since the making of the said Act, and especially of late Years, it hath been found by Experience, that Persons committing Piracies, Robberies, and Felonies on the Seas, in or near the East and West Indies, and in Places very remote, cannot be brought to condign Punishment without great Trouble and Charges in sending them into England to be tried within the Realm, as the said Statute directs, inasmuch that many idle and profligate Persons have been thereby encouraged to turn Pirates, and betake themselves to that sort of wicked Life, trusting that they shall not, or at least cannot easily, be questioned for such their Piracies and Robberies, by reason of the great Trouble and Expence that will necessarily fall upon such as shall attempt to apprehend and prosecute them for the same: And whereas the Numbers of them are of late very much increased, and their Insolencies so great, that unless some speedy Remedy be provided to suppress them, by a strict and more easy Way for putting the ancient Laws in that Behalf in Execution, the Trade and Navigation into remote Parts will very much suffer thereby; Be it therefore declared and enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Piracies, Felonies, and Robberies committed in or upon the Sea, or in any Haven, River, Creek, or Place, where the Admiral or Admirals have Power, Authority, or Jurisdiction, may be examined, inquired of, tried, heard and determined, and adjudged, according to the Directions of this Act, in any Place at Sea, or upon the Land, in any of his Majesty's Islands, Plantations, Colonies, Dominions, Forts, or Factories, to be appointed for that Purpose by the King's Commission or Commissions under the Great Seal of England, or the Seal of the Admiralty of England, directed to all or any of the Admirals, Vice-Admirals, Reer-Admirals, Judges of Vice-Admiralties, or Commanders of any of his Majesty's Ships of War, and also to all or any such Person or Persons, Officer or Officers, by Name, or for the Time being, as his Majesty shall think fit to appoint; which said Commissioners shall have full Power jointly or severally, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of them, or any one of them, to commit to safe Custody any Person or Persons, against whom Information of Piracy, Robbery, or Felony upon the Sea, shall be given upon Oath (which Oath they or any one of them shall have full Power, and are hereby required to administer) and to call and assemble a Court of Admiralty on Ship-board, or upon the Land, when and as often as Occasion shall require; which Court shall consist of seven Persons at the least.

Whereupon every such Prisoner shall immediately plead thereunto, Guilty, or Not guilty, or else it shall be taken as confessed, and he shall suffer such Pains of Death, Loss of Lands, Goods and Chattels, and in like Manner, as if he or they had been attainted or convicted upon the Oath of Witnesses, or his own Confession; but if any Prisoner shall plead Not guilty, Witnesses shall be produced by the Register, and duly sworn and examined openly, viva voce, in the Prisoner's Presence; and after a Witness hath answered all the Questions proposed by the President of the Court, and given his Evidence, it shall and may be lawful for the Prisoner to have the Witness cross-examined, by first declaring to the Court what Questions he would have asked, and thereupon the President of the Court shall interrogate the Witness accordingly; and every Prisoner shall have Liberty to bring Witnesses for his Defence, who shall be sworn, and examined upon Oath, as the Witnesses were that testified against him; and afterwards the Prisoner shall be fairly heard what he can say for himself; all which being done, the Prisoner shall be taken away and kept in safe Custody, and all other Persons, except the Register, shall withdraw from the said Court, and then the Court shall consider of the Evidence which hath been given, and debate the Matters and Circumstances of the Prisoner's Case, and the President of the Court shall collect all the Votes of the Persons who do sit and have Voices in the said Court, beginning at the Junior first, and ending with himself; and according to the Plurality of Voices, Sentence and Judgment shall be then given and pronounced publickly in the Presence of the Prisoner or Prisoners, being called in again; and according to such Sentence and Judgment the Person or Persons attainted shall be executed and put to Death, at such Time, in such Manner, and in such Place upon the Sea, or within the ebbing or flowing thereof, as the President or the Major Part of the Court, by Warrant directed to a Provost Marshal (which the President or said Major Part shall have Power to constitute) shall appoint.

An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject.

‘WHEREAS in the first Year of the Reign of your Majesty, and of our late most Gracious Sovereign Lady Queen MARY (of blessed Memory) an Act of Parliament was made, intituled, An Act for declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and for settling the Succession of the Crown, wherein it was (amongst other Things) enacted, established and declared, That the Crown and Regal Government of the Kingdoms of England, France and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, should be and continue to your Majesty and the said late Queen, during the Joint-Lives of your Majesty and the said Queen, and to the Survivor: And that after the Decease of your Majesty and of the said Queen, the said Crown and Regal Government should be and remain to the Heirs of the Body of the said late Queen: And for Default of such Issue, to her Royal Highness the Princess ANNE of Denmark, and the Heirs of her Body: And for Default of such Issue, to the Heirs of the Body of your Majesty. After the making of which Statute, and the Settlement therein contained, your Majesty’s good Subjects, who were restored to the full and free Possession and Enjoyment of their Religion, Rights, and Liberties, by the Providence of God giving Success to your Majesty’s just Undertakings and unwearied Endeavours for that Purpose, had no greater temporal Felicity to hope or wish for, than to see a Royal Progeny descending from your Majesty, to whom (under God) they owe their Tranquillity, and whose Ancestors have for many Years been principal Assertors of the reformed Religion and the Liberties of Europe, and from our said most Gracious Sovereign Lady, whose Memory will always be precious to the Subjects of these Realms: And

B.* do truly and sincerely acknowledge, profess, testify and declare, in my Conscience before God and the World, That our Sovereign Lord King WILLIAM is lawful and rightful King of this Realm, and of all other his Majesty’s Dominions and Countries thereunto belonging. And I do solemnly and sincerely declare, That I do believe in my Conscience, that the Person pretended to be Prince of Wales, during the Life of the late King JAMES, and since his Decease pretending to be and taking upon himself the Stile and Title of King of England, by the Name of JAMES the Third, hath not any Right or Title whatsoever to the Crown of this Realm, or any other the Dominions thereto belonging: And I do renounce, refuse, and abjure any Allegiance or Obedience to him. And I do swear, That I will bear Faith and true Allegiance to his Majesty King WILLIAM, and him will defend to the utmost of my Power, against all traitorous Conspiracies and Attempts whatsoever, which shall be made against his Person, Crown, or Dignity. And I will do my best Endeavour to disclose and make known to his Majesty and his Successors all Treasons and traitorous Conspiracies, which I shall know to be against him or any of them. And I do faithfully promise, to the utmost of my Power, to support, maintain and Defend the Limitation and Succession of the Crown, against him the said JAMES, and all other Persons whatsoever, as the same is and stands limited (by an Act intituled, An Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and settling the Succession of the Crown) to his Majesty during his Majesty’s Life, and after his Majesty’s Decease, to the Princess ANNE of Denmark, and the Heirs of her Body, being Protestants; and for Default of such Issue, to the Heirs of the Body of his Majesty, being Protestants: And as the same by one other Act intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, is and stands limited after the Decease of his Majesty, and the Princess ANNE of Denmark, and for Default of Issue of the said Princess, and of his Majesty respectively, to the Princess SOPHIA, Electress and Duchess Dowager of Hanover, and the Heirs of her Body, being Protestants. And I do make this Recognition, Acknowledgment, Abjuration, Renunciation and Promise, heartily, willingly and truly, upon the true Faith of a Christian.’

cept of the Exchequer, by such several and respective weekly Payments, and in such Manner and Form, as in the said Act are particularly mentioned, for the Purposes by the said Act directed: And it is thereby further enacted, That all the Rest and Residue of the said particular Branches of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, which should from Time to Time remain after the said weekly Payments should be made out of the same, and the Revenue arising in the General Letter Office or Post Office, or the Office of Post Master General, and by the said further Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and by the small Branches of his Majesty's Revenues herein after particularly expressed, that is to say, The first Fruits and Tenths of the Clergy, the Fines for Writs of Covenant and Writs of Entry, payable in the Alienation Office, the Post Fines, the Revenue of Wine Licences, the Monies arising by Sheriffs Profers and Compositions in the Exchequer, and by Seizures of uncustomed and prohibited Goods, the Revenue of the Duchy of Cornwall, and any other Revenue arising by the Rents of Land in England and Wales, and for Fines of Leases of the same, or any of them, and the Duty of four and an half per Centum in Specie arising in Barbadoes and the Leeward Islands in America, and all other the Branches and Revenues therein mentioned, which were before chargeable with the yearly Sum of seven hundred thousand Pounds therein expressed, should from Time to Time, during the Life of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM, be for the Use and Service of his said late Majesty's Household and Family, and for other his necessary Expences and Occasions: And it is thereby further enacted, That in Lieu and Discharge of certain perpetual annual Payments, and of all Arrears thereof, granted by his late Majesty King CHARLES the second, by Letters Patent, out of the said Hereditary Revenue of Excise, in Satisfaction of certain Principal Sums mentioned in the said Letters Patent, to be then due from his said late Majesty King CHARLES the second, to the respective Patentees therein named, the said Hereditary Revenue of Excise should, from and after the twenty-sixth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and five, be and stand charged and chargeable for ever with the Payment of the annual Sums, after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the Principal Sums mentioned in the said respective Letters Patent, to be issued and paid out of the said Revenue by quarterly Payments out of the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, by the Officers of the same, unto the respective Owners and Proprietors of such annual Sums, and to their Heirs and Assigns for ever, in the Manner in the same Act mentioned; the said annual Payments, after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum, to be subject nevertheless to be redeemed upon Payment of the Moiety of the Principal Monies mentioned in the said respective Letters Patent; as by the several Acts aforesaid recited (Relation being thereunto respectively had) may more fully appear: Now we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament assembled, well knowing that the Security, Peace, and Prosperity of your Majesty's Realms and Dominions are concerned in supporting the Honour of the Crown of England, by settling a Revenue suitable to the necessary Expences of the same; and with due Gratitude to Almighty God (by whose Goodness your Majesty happily succeeds to the Royal Dignity of these Realms after a King that constantly maintained the true Religion, Laws and Liberties therein established) reflecting upon your Majesty's most Excellent Disposition to preserve and continue your People in the full and free Enjoyment of the same Religion, Laws and Liberties, and of all other Blessings which good Subjects can hope for in the most auspicious Reign, whereby our Hearts are inflamed with a dutiful Affection to your Majesty; II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said further Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Duties upon Wines, Goods and Merchandizes, granted by the said Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM, shall, from and after the said ninth Day of March during her Majesty's Life, be raised, levied, collected, paid and satisfied unto her Majesty, by the same Ways, Means and Methods, and by the same Rules and Directions, and with the same Allowances, as are mentioned in the same Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM; and the same Act, and every Article, Rule and Clause therein contained, or thereby referred to, so far as the same relates to the raising, levying, collecting and making Allowances out of the said Subsidies and other Duties, shall be of full Force and Effect to all Intents and Purposes, during her Majesty's Life, as if the same were particularly and at large repeated and set down in the Body of this Act.

III. And it is hereby enacted and declared, That the said Hereditary Rates and Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, and the said Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, hereby granted to her Majesty for the Term of her Life (subject nevertheless to the Incumbrances herein after mentioned) and the said Revenue of the General Letter Office or Post Office, or the Office of Post Master General, and the said small Branches of her Majesty's Revenue (that is to say) The First Fruits and Tenths of the Clergy, the Fines for Writs of Covenant and Writs of Entry, payable in the Alienation Office, the Post Fines, the Revenue of the Wine Licences, the Monies arising by Sheriffs Profers and Compositions in the Exchequer, and by the Seizures of uncustomed and prohibited Goods, the Revenue of the Duchy of Cornwall, and any other Revenue arising by the Rents of Lands in England and Wales, or for Fines for Leases of the same, or any of them, and the Monies arising by the said further Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, and other Duties hereby granted, and all other the Branches and Revenues which were chargeable with the said yearly Sum of seven hundred thousand Pounds (the said Duty of Four and an Half per Centum in Specie arising in Barbadoes and the Leeward Islands in America, always excepted and foreprized) shall be for the Support of her Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown; yet nevertheless the said Hereditary Rates and Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, and the said Rates and Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, hereby granted to her Majesty, during her Life, and every of them, shall be liable and subject to the said weekly Payment of three thousand seven hundred Pounds, according to the Tenure and Effect of the said Act of Parliament, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM, in the same Manner as the said Hereditary Rates and Duties of Excise, and the said Rates and Duties of Excise which were granted in the second Year of the Reign of their said late Majesties, and every of them, jointly or severally, would have been liable to the same weekly Payment, if his said Majesty had continued in this Life, during the said Term of five Years; any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

IV. Provided also, and it is hereby enacted and declared, That from and after the Expiration of the said Term of five Years, so much Money as together with the said Payments, after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, then to commence and to be applied for Satisfaction of the said Patentees, and those claiming under them as aforesaid, shall make up the Sum of three thousand seven hundred Pounds for every Week, during her Majesty's Life, shall and may be taken out of the said Hereditary Rates and Duties of Excise, and out of the Rates and Duties of Excise hereby granted to her Majesty for her Life, and either or any of them; and the said Payments after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, being deducted out of the Hereditary Part thereof, the Residue of the said three thousand seven hundred Pounds per Week, be applied and disposed of to and for the Publick Use and Service; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. And whereas the necessary Expences of supporting the Crown, or the greatest Part of them, were formerly defrayed by a Land Revenue, which hath from Time to Time been impaired and diminished by the Grants of former Kings and Queens of this Realm, so that her Majesty's Land Revenues at present can afford very little towards the Support of her Government; nevertheless from Time to Time, upon the Determination of the particular Estates, whereupon many Reversions and Remainders in the Crown do now depend or expect, and by such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments as may hereafter descend, escheat, or otherwise accrue or come to her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, the Land Revenues of the Crown, in Fines, Rents, and other Profits thereof, may hereafter be increased, and consequently the Burthen upon the Estates of the Subjects of this Realm may be eased and lessened in all future Provisions to be made for the Expences of the Civil Government: To the End therefore that the Land Revenues of the Crown may be preserved, improved and increased for the best Advantage thereof, be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Grant, Lease, or other Assurance, which from and after the five and twentieth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and two, shall be made or granted by her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, Kings or Queens of this Realm, under the Great Seal of England, Exchequer Seal, Seals of the Duchy and County Palatine of Lancaster, or any of them, or by Copy of Court Roll or otherwise howsoever, of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tithes, Woods, or other Hereditaments (Advowsons of Churches and Vicarages only excepted) within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or any of them, or any Part thereof, now belonging or hereafter to belong to her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, or to any other Person or Persons in Trust for her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, in Possession, Reversion, Remainder, Use or Expectancy, whether the same be or shall be in Right of the Crown of England, or as Part of the Principality of Wales, or of the Duchy or County Palatine of Lancaster, or otherwise howsoever, to any Person or Persons, Body Politick or Corporate whatsoever, soever, whereby any Estate or Interest whatsoever, in Law or Equity, shall or may pass from her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, shall be utterly void and of none Effect, unless such Grant, Lease, or Assurance be made for some Term or Estate not exceeding one and thirty Years, or three Lives, or for some Term of Years determinable upon one, two, or three Lives; and unless such Grant, Lease or Assurance respectively, be made to commence from the Date or making thereof; and if such Grant, Lease or Assurance, be made to take Effect in Reversion or Expectancy, that then the same, together with the Estate or Estates in Possession of and in the Premises therein contained, do not exceed three Lives, or the Term of one and thirty Years in the whole; and unless such Grant, Lease or Assurance respectively be so made, that the Tenant be liable to Punishment for Waste; and unless there be reserved upon every such Grant, Lease or Assurance respectively, the ancient or most usual Rent, or more, or such Rent as hath been reserved, yielded, and paid for such of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tithes, or other Hereditaments, as shall be therein contained, for the greater Part of twenty Years before the making thereof; and where no such Rent shall have been reserved or payable, that then upon every such Grant, Lease, or Assurance, there be reserved a reasonable Rent, not being under the third Part of the clear yearly Value of such of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Tithes, or other Hereditaments, as shall be contained in such Lease or Grant; and unless such respective Rents be made payable to her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, who shall make such Lease or Grant, and to her or their Heirs or Successors, during the whole Term or Time of the Continuance thereof respectively.

Tenant punishable for Waste.
Ancient Rent reserved, &c.

and payable to the Queen, &c.

VI. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That from Time to Time, where the greatest Part of the yearly Value of any Tenements or Hereditaments belonging, or hereafter to belong, to her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, doth or shall, at the Time of making any Lease or Grant thereof, consist of the Building or Buildings thereupon, which may want to be repaired or re-edified, in all and every such Case and Cases, to encourage the Rebuilding or Reparation thereof, it shall and may be lawful to and for her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, at any Time after the said five and twentieth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and two, to demise or grant such Tenements or Hereditaments to any Person or Persons for any Term or Estate, so as such Term or Estate do not exceed fifty Years, or three Lives, and so as such Lease or Grant be made to commence from the Date or making thereof; or if such Grant or Lease be made to take Effect in Reversion or Expectancy, that then the same, together with the Estate or Estates in Possession, of and in the same Tenements or Hereditaments, do not exceed fifty Years, or three Lives, from the Date or making as aforesaid, and so as the same be not made dispensable of Waste, and so as there be reserved and payable upon every such Lease or Grant, during such Term, not exceeding fifty Years, or three Lives, as much Rent as is by this Act required to be reserved for the same Tenements or Hereditaments respectively, in case of a Lease, not exceeding one and thirty Years, or three Lives as aforesaid, and not otherwise; any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Tenements, &c. belonging to the Crown, and wanting Reparation, or to be re-edified, &c.

Queen may grant such Tenements for 50 Years or three Lives, &c.

not dispensable of Waste;

and Rent reserved to be paid.

VII. And to the Intent the Inheritance, which her Majesty hath of and in the said Hereditary Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, and of and in the said Revenue arising in the said general Letter Office or Post Office, and in the small Branches of her Majesty's Revenue herein after mentioned (that is to say) The First Fruits and Tenths of the Clergy, the Fines for Writs of Covenant and Writs of Entry, payable in the Alienation Office, the Post Fines, the Revenue of the Wine Licences, and the Revenue arising by Sheriffs Profers, and Compositions in the Exchequer, and by Seizures of uncustomed and prohibited Goods, may be preserved in the Crown, for the future Benefit thereof; Be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Hereditary Duties of Excise, and the said Revenue arising in the said general Letter Office or Post Office, and the said small Branches of her Majesty's Revenue last mentioned, or any of them, or any Part thereof, shall not hereafter be alienable or grantable by her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, for any Estate or Term whatsoever, to endure longer than the Life of her Majesty, or of such King or Queen as shall make such Alienation or Grant respectively; and that all Gifts, Grants, Alienations, Leases, and Assurances whatsoever, to be had or made of any the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tithes, or other Hereditaments, or of any the said Revenues or Branches, or any Part thereof, contrary to the Provisions of this Act, or any of them, shall be null and void, without any Inquisition, Scire facias, or other Proceeding, to determine or make void the same.

Duties, &c. hereby granted not alienable by the Crown, &c.

Grants, &c. made contrary to this Act void.

VIII. Provided always, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend to disable her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, to make such Leases, Copies, or Grants, as she or they may make by virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM, for making Leases or Copies of Offices, Lands, or Hereditaments, Parcel of the Duchy of Cornwall, or annexed to the same, or to alter or prejudice any the Powers, Matters, or Things therein contained, or to be done in pursuance thereof, or to disable her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, to make any Grant or Restitution of any Estate or Estates hereafter to be forfeited for any Treason or Felony whatsoever, or to disable her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, to grant, demise, or assign any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, which shall be seized or taken into her or their Hands upon any Outlawry, at the Suit of her or their Subjects, as hath been usual, or any Estate whatsoever, which is or shall be seized, extended, or taken in Execution for any Debt owing or to be due to the Crown, as she or they shall think fit, or to make any Grants or Admittances, which of Right or Custom ought to be made, of any Copyhold Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, Parcel of any Manor or Manors of her Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, or to disable the Trustees for Sale of Fee Farm and other Rents, to execute any the Trusts, Powers, or other Matters or Things by them to be executed, done, or performed, in pursuance

An Act for making good Deficiencies, and for preserving the Publick Credit.

WHEREAS several Bills of Credit, commonly called Exchequer Bills, were made forth and issued by divers Acts of Parliament, which were made and passed in the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third (of blessed Memory) and many of the said Bills have been already discharged out of several Aids or Supplies, which were provided by several Acts of Parliament, for or towards the discharging and cancelling the same; but over and above the Monies already applied towards the discharging and cancelling of the said Bills, and over and above the Monies which are yet to arise from the said Aids or Supplies formerly provided for that Purpose, it is computed, that there is and will be wanting the Sum of five hundred and fifteen thousand one hundred sixty-five Pounds four Shillings and seven Pence Farthing, to discharge all the principal Monies contained in such of the said Bills as are now standing out and unsatisfied, and so much more as will be sufficient to discharge all the Interest due, and to grow due thereupon: And whereas it appears that the Pound Rate or Land Tax of three Shillings in the Pound, granted to his said late Majesty, by an Act of Parliament in the eighth Year of his Reign, 8 W. 3. c. 6. hath hath not been sufficient to satisfy all the Loans which were made upon the Credit of the same Pound Rate or Land Tax; and that over and above all Arrears of the said Pound Rate, not yet recovered, there is and will be deficient, and wanting, to discharge all the principal Money so lent, the Sum of four hundred and fifteen thousand ninety-nine Pounds, and so much more as will be sufficient to discharge the Interest after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, due and to grow due thereupon: And whereas the Duties upon Paper, Pastebord, Vellum, and Parchment, which were granted to his late Majesty for two Years, from the first Day of March one thousand six hundred ninety-six, by an Act passed in the eighth Year of his Reign, did prove insufficient to satisfy all the Monies which were borrowed upon Credit of that Act, so that there is deficient and wanting the Sum of fifteen thousand four hundred Pounds to discharge all the principal Monies so borrowed, and so much more as will satisfy the Interest, due and to grow due for the same, after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum: And whereas several Tickets were made forth and issued by virtue of an Act made and passed in the eighth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, whereby certain Duties were laid upon Malt and other Things therein mentioned, and many of the said Tickets have already been discharged out of the same Duties, or otherwise; but it is computed, that there is deficient and wanting to discharge all the principal Monies contained in such of the said Tickets as are now standing-out and unsatisfied, the Sum of five hundred seventy-nine thousand and sixty Pounds, besides what will be necessary to discharge the Interest due, and to grow due, upon the said unsatisfied Tickets, or such of them as do bear Interest after the Rate of an Halfpenny per Diem, for each ten Pounds thereof: And whereas it is evident, that the Duties upon Leather, which were granted to his said late Majesty by an Act passed in the eighth Year of his Reign, for three Years, from the twentieth Day of April one thousand six hundred and ninety-seven, and which were thereby appropriated to and for the Payment of so much as then remained unpaid of the Sum of five hundred sixty-four thousand seven hundred Pounds, formerly lent upon certain Duties upon Coals and other Things therein mentioned, and the Interest thereof, have not been sufficient for that Purpose, so that there is wanting, to discharge the principal Money still remaining unpaid of the Sum last mentioned, the Sum of five hundred and four thousand four hundred thirty-eight Pounds, besides the Interest thereof, due and to grow due, after the Rate of seven Pounds per Centum per Annum: And that the Monies granted to his said late Majesty, by the Act passed in the ninth Year of his Reign, for an Aid by a quarterly Poll for one Year, including therein such Arrears of the said Poll as are still recoverable, do not extend to satisfy all the principal Monies which were borrowed upon the same Act, by the Sum of two hundred and twelve thousand seven hundred and seventy Pounds, seventeen Shillings, which with the Interest thereof, due and to grow due, after the Rate of eight Pounds per Centum per Annum, are and will be likewise deficient: And that the Monies granted to his said late Majesty by the Act passed in the tenth Year of his Reign, for granting the Sum of one Million four hundred eighty-four thousand and fifteen Pounds one Shilling and eleven Pence three Farthings, for disbanding the Army, providing for the Navy, and for other necessary Occasions, whereupon a Credit was given for any Sum not exceeding one Million four hundred thousand Pounds, to be repaid with Interest after the Rate of seven Pounds per Centum per Annum, have not extended to pay off all the Monies borrowed upon the same Act, and the Interest thereof; but that there is a deficiency of twenty-five thousand eight hundred twenty-three Pounds two Shillings and nine Pence, which, together with all Arrears of the Aid last mentioned, not yet recovered, are wanting to clear off the Remainder of the principal Monies so borrowed, besides what shall be necessary to discharge the Interest of the same: And whereas at Michaelmas, one thousand seven hundred and one, the Sum of seventy thousand eight hundred seventy-two Pounds eleven Shillings and one Penny Halfpenny, was wanting to compleat the Payments then due and incurred, for and upon the yearly Sum of one hundred and sixty thousand Pounds, which by an Act passed in the ninth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, was intended to be paid out of certain Duties upon Salt, and upon stampd Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, for the Purposes therein mentioned, and ought to have been made good in pursuance of the same Act; all which said Sums of Money so reckoned to be deficient or wanting, to pay off the principal Money borrowed as aforesaid, or contained in the said Exchequer Bills and Malt Tickets, do amount in the whole to the Sum of two Millions three hundred thirty-eight thousand six hundred twenty-eight Pounds, fifteen Shillings, and five Pence three Farthings, besides the Interest due and to grow due as aforesaid. And whereas by the said Act of the eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM, intituled, An Act for making good the Deficiencies of several Funds, therein mentioned, and for enlarging the Capital Stock of the Bank of England, and for raising the publick Credit, it was enacted, That all the Monies which

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament in the two and twentieth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth, intituled, An Act concerning repairing and amending of Bridges in the Highways, it is amongst other Things therein enacted, That in every Case where it cannot be known and proved what Persons, Lands, Tenements, and Bodies Politick ought to make and repair such Bridges, that for speedy Reformation and Amending of such Bridges, the Justices of the Peace within their several Counties, Shires, Ridings and Divisions, Cities and Towns Corporate, or any four of them, whereof one to be of the Quorum, shall within the Limits of their several Commissions call before them the Constables of every Town and Parish, or else two of the most honest Inhabitants of every Town and Parish, and with the Assent of the said Constables or Inhabitants, shall tax and set every Inhabitant in such City, Town, and Parish, to such reasonable Aid, and Sums of Money, as they shall think by their Discretions convenient for the repairing of such Bridges, and after such Taxation made, shall cause the Names and Sums of every particular Person so by them taxed, to be written in a Roll indented, one Part whereof is to be delivered under the Hands and Seals of the said Justices, to two Collectors appointed by the said Justices for every Hundred, who are thereby impowered to collect the same; which Method and Manner of taxing and collecting the said Money for Repair of decayed Bridges, and the Highways thereunto adjoining, having by long Experience been found very troublesome, burthensome, and chargeable to the several Counties, Cities, Towns Corporate, Ridings and Divisions: And whereas in many Places within this Kingdom, more Money than is necessary for the Repair of such Bridges hath been taxed and collected, or the Money which hath been so taxed and collected hath been misemployed, and not laid out in the Repair of such Bridges as was intended: For Remedy of all which Mischiefs and Inconveniences for the future, may it please your most Excellent Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every the Clauses, Matters and Things in the said Act of the two and twentieth Year of the Reign of the said King HENRY the Eighth, not hereby altered, shall be and continue in full Force and Virtue, to all Intents, Construtions and Purposes whatsoever, relating to the repairing of decayed Bridges, and the Highways thereunto adjoining.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the more easy taxing and collecting of the Money for the Repair of decayed Bridges, and that the same may be duly applied to the Purposes for which it is intended, the Justices of the Peace, within the several Limits of their Commissions, shall, at their General or Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, from and after the first Day of May, which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and two, have full Power and Authority, upon due Presentment to them made, that any Bridge within their respective Commissions or Authorities is out of Repair, and which by them hath usually, or ought to have been repaired and maintained, to assess upon every Town, Parish or Place within their respective Commissions, in Proportions upon each respective Town and Parish, as they usually have been assessed towards the Repair of Bridges; which Money so assessed as aforesaid, shall be levied and collected by the respective Constables of each Parish, Township, Hamlet or Vill, or by such other Person and Persons, and in such Manner, as the said Justices by their Order at such Sessions, shall in that Behalf direct and appoint, and the Money thereby raised shall (by such Constables or other Persons, so as aforesaid by them collected) be paid over by them to the High Constables of every Hundred, in any such County, City, Riding, or Division, in six Days after they shall have received the same, and the High Constables shall and are hereby required, in ten Days after their Receipt, to pay the same into the Hands of such Person and Persons as the said Justices, by their Order, at such Sessions shall direct and appoint to be Treasurers and Receivers of the same, and the Money thereby raised shall be employed and accounted for according to the Orders and Directions of the said Justices, for and towards the Amending of such decayed Bridges, and the Highways at the End of the said Bridges, from Time to Time, as Need shall require; and the said Assessments shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of every Person so assessed, not paying the same within ten Days after Demand, rendring the Overplus of the Value of the Goods so distrained to the Owner and Owners thereof, the necessary Charges of making and selling such Distress being first deducted.

23 Eliz. c. 11. repealed.

X. And whereas great Inconveniencies have been occasioned by the uncertain Meaning of an Act made in the twenty third of Queen ELIZABETH, intituled, An Act for the re-edifying of Cardiffe Bridge in the County of Glamorgan; Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, That the Act aforesaid be from henceforth repealed, and the same is hereby declared to be repealed, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Cardiffe Bridge deemed a common Bridge: How it shall be repaired.

XI. And whereas the Town of Cardiffe in the said County was, before the said Act of Queen ELIZABETH, obliged to pay and discharge the whole Expence for the Repair of the said Bridge, but in regard of the Poverty of the said Town, five Parts of the said Expence was by the said Act directed to be raised on the County, and the sixth Part only on the said Town of Cardiffe: And whereas the Poverty of the said Town is since much increased, by reason of the great Decay of Trade in the said Town; Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, for a more effectual Provision for the Time to come, That the Bridge aforesaid, commonly called Cardiffe Bridge, shall from henceforth be reputed and adjudged to be a common and a publick Bridge, to be repaired from Time to Time by the County of Glamorgan; and that the Justices of the Peace for the Time being for the County of Glamorgan shall have full Power and Authority, from Time to Time, as Occasion shall require, at their General Quarter-Sessions, to make Orders, and execute the same, as well within the Town of Cardiffe, as elsewhere within the County of Glamorgan, touching the rebuilding and repairing of the Bridge aforesaid, and Wears thereto adjoining or belonging, in the same Manner as any the Justices of any other County have, or may have, concerning other common and publick Bridges, by this or any other Law whatsoever.

Orders heretofore made not to be annulled.

XII. Provided nevertheless, That nothing herein contained shall be construed or extend to make void or annul any Order heretofore made touching the Repair of the Bridge and Wears aforesaid.

XIII. And whereas many private Persons, or Bodies Politick or Corporate, are of Right obliged to repair such decayed Bridges, and the Highways thereunto adjoining, but because the Inhabitants of the County, Riding, or Division, in which such decayed Bridge or Highways lie, have not been allowed, upon Informations or Indictments brought against such Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, for

‘ for not repairing such decayed Bridges, and the Highways thereunto adjoining, by the Judges before whom such Information or Indictment is to be tried, to be legal Witnesses;’ Be it enacted and declared, That in all Informations or Indictments to be brought and tried in any of her Majesty’s Courts of Record at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, the Evidence of the Inhabitants, being credible Persons, or any of them, of the Town, Corporation, County, Riding, or Division, in which such decayed Bridge or Highway lies, shall be taken and admitted in all such Cases, in the Courts aforesaid; any Custom, Rule, Order, or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

Evidence of Inhabitants to be taken in Informations.

XIV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the eighteenth Year of the Reign of Queen ELIZABETH, of blessed Memory, intituled, An Act for the perpetual Maintenance of Rochester Bridge, it is amongst other Things enacted and appointed, That the Election of the Wardens and Assistants of the said Bridge should be made on the Morrow after the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace holden for the County of Kent, next after the Feast of Easter: And whereas the said Time of the Election, appointed by the said Act, hath been found to be very inconvenient, in respect of the Uncertainty of the ending of the said Sessions, whereby the Inhabitants of the Parishes, and others that are to attend the said Election, have been put to great Expence and Trouble;’ Be it therefore enacted, That all and every the future and succeeding Wardens and Assistants of the said Bridge shall be yearly chosen, at the usual Place of such Election, at or upon one certain Day yearly (that is to say) Friday in the Week next following the Week of Easter yearly: And that all and every the Wardens and Assistants respectively, so to be elected upon Friday in the Week next following the Week of Easter, shall successively have, use, exercise, and enjoy the same Power, Authority, Capacity, and Privileges respectively, as any former or other Wardens or Assistants of the said Bridge respectively have had, used, exercised and enjoyed; and that all other due Requisites, Matters, Circumstances, and Things hereafter used and observed, in and about the Election of the said Wardens and Assistants respectively, shall be used, performed and observed; and that all and every the Inhabitants and Householders of any Parish or Parishes, and all and every other Person and Persons, who by reason of any Law, Statute, Usage or Custom, have used, or ought to be present, and give their Attendance at the Elections of the Wardens and Assistants of the said Bridge, shall be present, and give the like Attendance, and do and perform all other Things in and about the Election of all and every future Wardens and Assistants of the said Bridge, upon every Friday in the Week next following the Week of Easter yearly, as they have heretofore used, done and performed, upon the Morrow after the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace next after the Feast of Easter.

An Act for preventing Frauds in the Duties upon Salt, and for the better Payment of Debentures at the Custom-house.

FOR Prevention of evil Practices frequently made use of in defrauding her Majesty of her Duties upon Salt, be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every Person and Persons, being a Maker of Salt, or a Refiner of Rock Salt, or being a Proprietor of any Salt Works or Salt Pits, shall, on or before the four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and two, make a true and particular Entry in Writing under his and their respective Hands, at the next Salt Office to their respective Pits, Works, or Places of Habitation, of the Number and Situation of his and their respective Salt Pits and Salt Works, and of the Number of Pans in each Salt Work, and of the Number and Situation of every Storehouse, Warehouse, and other Place, by him or them made use of, for the making, refining, or keeping of Salt or Rock Salt, on Pain of forfeiting the Sum of forty Pounds; and all every Maker of Salt, Refiner of Rock Salt, and Proprietor of any Salt Works or Salt Pits, who, after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and two, shall erect, set up, or make use of any Salt Work, Salt Pit, Salt Pan, Storehouse, Warehouse, or other Place, for the making, laying, refining, or keeping of Salt or Rock Salt, without giving Notice thereof at the next Salt Office, shall forfeit and lose for every such Offence, without such Notice as aforesaid, the Sum of forty Pounds.

5 W. & M. c. 7. Makers, &c. of Salt shall enter the Number, &c. of their Salt Pits and Pans, &c.

Penalty.

Penalty on erecting Salt Works, &c. without Notice given.

Officer may enter into Salt Work, &c.

Penalty on Refusal.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the several Officers for the said Duties, to enter into all and every the Works, Warehouses, Storehouses, and other Places made use of by any Maker, Refiner, or Importer of Salt, or Proprietor of Rock Salt, for the better looking after the said Duties, and preventing Frauds therein; and if any Salt Maker, Importer of Salt, or any Refiner or Proprietor of Rock Salt, after the said four and twentieth Day of June, shall, upon due Request or Demand made by the Officers for the said Duties, in the Day-time, or in the Night in the Presence of a Constable or other lawful Officer of the Peace, refuse to permit such Officer to enter and come into his or their Works, Warehouses, Storehouses, or other Place by him or them made use of for making, laying, refining, or keeping of Salt, such Maker and Importer of Salt, and the Refiner or Proprietor of Rock Salt, respectively, shall forfeit and lose for every such Offence the Sum of forty Pounds.

Penalty on Salt found, and not entred, or Duty paid.

III. And whereas great Quantities of Salt are frequently found in the Custody or Possession of several Persons who live near the Salt Works or Sea Coasts, which Salt is not duly entred, nor any Duties paid for the same, and if discovered by the Officers for the said Duties, the Persons in whose Custody or Possession the same is found, pretend that the same doth not belong to them, so that the Penalties by Law imposed on the Persons that landed such Salt, or removed the same from the Salt Work, without Entry or Payment of Duties, cannot be inflicted on such Offenders: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Person in whose Custody or Possession any Salt shall be so found, which hath not been duly entred, and the Duties thereof paid, or secured to be paid, shall, in case the same be foreign Salt, be liable to the same Penalties and Forfeitures, as if such Person had landed the same without Entry or Payment of Duties, or giving Security for the same; or in case the same shall be English Salt, then to be liable to such Penalties and Forfeitures, as if such Person had removed such Salt from the Salt Works, without Entry, or paying or securing the Duties thereof, and without any Ticket or Licence obtained for removing the same, unless the Person or Persons, in whose Custody or Possession such Salt shall be found, shall make it appear, upon the Trial or Hearing of the Information for such Offence, that he bought such foreign or English Salt of a Maker, Retailer, or Importer of Salt, and of whom he so bought the same.

Salt Carriers removing Salt before Entry, &c. Officer may seize the same, &c.

on Nonpayment of the Penalties, &c. to be imprisoned.

Penalty on Person hindring or abusing Officer.

IV. And whereas several Persons, especially Salt Carriers, do frequently carry Salt from the Salt Works and Storehouses of the Makers of Salt, without Entry or Payment of Duties, or giving Security for the same; and when they find themselves pursued by the Officers for the said Duties, with Force obstruct and hinder the Officers from making Seizures thereof, and frequently beat and abuse them, whereby they are very much discouraged in Performance of their Duties; and sometimes the said Persons scatter the said Salt on the Ground, or cast the same into Water, to prevent the Seizure thereof; and the said Offenders being for the most part very poor, are not able to pay the Penalties by Law imposed on them for such Offences, and sometimes before such Penalties can be adjudged against them, make their Escapes to remote Parts, and cannot be found: For Remedy thereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Salt Carrier, or other Person or Persons whatsoever, shall, from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June, remove or convey any Salt from any Salt Works, or Place thereunto belonging, without due Entry of the same, and Payment of the Duties thereof, or giving Security for such Duties, or without Warrant, Ticket, or Licence for carrying or removing the same, that then and in every such Case, it shall be lawful for the Officers for the said Duties, not only to seize the Salt so removed, but also to apprehend the said Offender or Offenders, and carry him, her and them before one of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County or Place where the Offence shall be committed: And in case the said Offence shall be proved before the said Justice of the Peace, and the Offender or Offenders shall not forthwith pay down the Penalties by the Laws relating to the said Duties imposed on such Offender or Offenders, for the Offence so proved on such Offender or Offenders, and no sufficient Distress can be found whereupon to levy the same, it shall be lawful for the said Justice of the Peace to commit such Offender or Offenders to the House of Correction, there to be whipt and kept to hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding one Month: And if any Person or Persons shall obstruct or hinder any Officer or Officers for the said Duties in the Execution of his or their Offices, or the Powers given them by this Act, or any other Law relating to the said Duties, or shall beat or abuse the said Officers, or any of them, in the Execution of his or their Offices, such Person and Persons shall for every such Offence forfeit and lose the Sum of twenty Pounds; and for Nonpayment thereof, and in Default of Distress whereby to levy the same, it shall and may be lawful for any of her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, upon due Proof of such Offence, to commit such Offender or Offenders to the House of Correction, there to be whipt and kept to hard Labour, for any Time not exceeding one Month.

V. And

‘ V. And whereas several Persons do make use of Brine taken out of Brine Pits or Brine Pans, for curing or pickling of Flesh and Fish, or for preserving of other Provisions, without boiling the same into Salt, and also of Rock Salt or Salt Rock, without refining the same into White Salt, whereby her Majesty’s Duties on Salt are much prejudiced:’ For Prevention thereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and two, no Person or Persons whatsoever shall make use of any such Brine before the same is boiled into Salt, or of any Rock Salt or Salt Rock, before the same is refined into White Salt, for the pickling or curing of Flesh or Fish, or for the preserving of any Provisions; upon Pain of forfeiting the Sum of forty Shillings for every Gallon of such Brine or Pound of Rock Salt or Salt Rock so made use of, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity.

‘ V. And whereas her Majesty is very much defrauded of her Duties upon foreign Salt, by the difference and uncertain measuring of the same, upon the Importation and Exportation thereof:’ For Remedy thereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June eighty-four Pounds Weight of foreign Salt shall be deemed and taken to be a Bushel of foreign Salt, both upon the Importation and Exportation thereof; any thing herein, or in any former Law to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

‘ VII. And whereas the Importers of foreign Salt do bring the same in Vessels on the several Coasts of this Kingdom, and Dominion of Wales, and lie hovering off the said Coasts, and will not bring the same in Port, or land the said Salt, until they can get an Opportunity of running such Salt without Entry or Payment of Duties; and in many Cases where they do bring the same into Port, yet continue such Salt in Port on board their Vessels, and refuse to enter or land the same, and in the Night-time, or Absence of the Officers from on board such Vessels, privately run the said Salt on Shore, without Entry or Payment of Duties, or giving Security for the same:’ For Prevention thereof, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June, where any Ship or Vessel laden with Salt shall be found hovering on the Coasts of England or Wales, not directly proceeding on her Voyage to some Port, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Officers of the Customs, or the Officers for the said Duty on Salt, to go on board such Vessels, and compel the same to come into Port, and to continue on board such Ships or Vessels until the Salt shall be unladen, or the said Ship or Vessel shall depart from the said Port, on her intended Voyage, to some other Place; and if the Persons on board such Ship or Vessel, or any other Ship or Vessel importing Salt, shall neglect or refuse to enter or unlade such Salt, for the Space of twenty Days after the same is come into Port, or within that Time to depart and proceed regularly on their Voyage to some other Place, unless permitted by the Chief Officer of the Customs for that Port to make a longer Stay, then and in such Case, all the Salt on board such Ship or Vessel shall be forfeited, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Master of such Ship or Vessel, or the Person commanding the same in that Voyage.

‘ VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June no foreign Salt shall be imported from Parts beyond the Seas, in any Ship or Vessel of less Burthen than twenty Tuns, and in Bulk only (except for the necessary Provisions of the Ships) upon Pain of forfeiting the said Salt, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Person importing the same.

‘ IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June, sixty-five Pounds Weight of Rock Salt shall be deemed and taken to be a Bushel of Rock Salt; any Thing in the said former Acts contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

‘ X. And it is hereby also enacted, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June, no Rock Salt whatsoever shall be refined or made into White Salt in any Place or Places whatsoever, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed (except such Places as are or shall be within ten Miles Distance of the respective Pit or Pits from whence such Rock Salt shall be taken, or at such Places as upon or before the tenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and two shall have been used for the refining of Rock Salt) under the Pain of forty Shillings for every Bushel of Rock Salt that shall be melted or refined in any House, Place or Places, not by this Act allowed for that Purpose, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity.

‘ XI. And whereas by the several Acts for laying Duties upon Salt, any Person exporting Salt to Parts beyond the Seas, is intitled to a Drawback of the whole Duty of the Salt so exported; and it is found by Experience, that many Exporters of Salt and Rock Salt, after they have obtained the said Drawback, or a Debenture for the same, do privately reland such Salt or Rock Salt in England or Wales, without paying the Duties thereof upon such Relanding:’ For Prevention thereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June no Debenture shall be made or granted, or Drawback allowed to be paid, for or upon Account of the Exportation of any Salt or Rock Salt for Ireland, until the Exporter of the said Salt or Rock Salt shall produce, to the Officer appointed to make such Debenture, a Certificate under the Hand of the Collector of the Customs of the Port in Ireland, where such Salt or Rock Salt shall be landed, or the Person executing his Office, of the particular Quantity of Salt or Rock Salt actually landed, to be computed after the Rate of fifty-six Pounds Weight to the Bushel, in case the same shall be English White Salt, and after the Rate of sixty-five Pounds to the Bushel, in case the same shall be English Rock Salt, and after the Rate of eighty-four Pounds to the Bushel, in case the same shall be foreign Salt; which Salt and Rock Salt is hereby directed

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Ship or Vessel laden with Salt exported, to be carried to Parts beyond the Seas, shall, from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June, by Stress of Weather or otherwise, be drove or come into any Port, Creek, Harbour or other Place within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Officer of Excise on Salt for such Place, appointed or to be appointed for that Purpose by the Commissioners of Excise, to enter or come on board such Ship or Vessel, and there to continue and be, till the said Ship or Vessel shall unlade her Cargo, or return to Sea to go her intended Voyage, under the Penalty of twenty Pounds, to be recovered of the Master of such Ship or Vessel, who shall refuse such Officer so to come and continue on board as aforesaid. And if the said Master, or any other Person, shall unlade or put on Shore any Part of the said Salt, before due Entry or Repayment of the Duty, as by the Statutes in that Behalf made is provided, that then, and in every such Case, not only the said Salt so unladen, but also the whole Cargo of Salt in such Ship or Vessel remaining, shall be forfeited and lost.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Salt, as well foreign as English, shall be laid on board any Ship or Vessel, either to be transported to Parts beyond the Seas, or carried Coastwise, to be relanded in England, Wales, or Berwick, the Officer of the Customs of the Port where the said Salt shall be laden on board any such Ship or Vessel, shall in the Cocquets made out and delivered for such Ship or Vessel (which Cocquet shall be also signed by the Officer in the said Port appointed by the Commissioners of Excise for the Duty on Salt, and given without Fee or Delay) express the particular Quantity of Salt so laden on board: And in case such Ship or Vessel shall come into any Port, Creek, Harbour or Place in England, Wales, or Berwick, it shall be lawful for the Officers of the Customs, or other Officers for the said Duties, to go on board any such Ship or Vessel, and demand a Sight of such Cocquet, and in case he or they shall have just Cause to suspect that there is not so much Salt on board as the Quantity expressed in such Cocquet, and shall make Affidavit thereof before the Collector or Customer of the said Port, or Person executing their or either of their Offices, to weigh all the Salt remaining on board; and in case, upon such weighing, there shall appear not to be so much Salt on board as the Quantity expressed in such Cocquet, making reasonable Allowance for the Waste of the said Salt since its Exportation, and making also Allowance (for Salt going Coastwise) of Salt delivered at another Port, and indorset in the Salt Permit, going with the said Vessel, as delivered at such Port, then and in such Case the said Salt so remaining on board shall be forfeited and lost.

XIV. And for Prevention of Frauds frequently practised in curing Fish at Sea with Salt, which hath not, or shall not have been entred, nor the Duties thereof paid, or secured to be paid, according to the Directions of the former Laws, or with Salt exported from England or Wales, the Duties whereof shall have been repaid upon such Exportation, or Debentures obtained, in order to the drawing back of the same; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and two, no Fish, for which Allowances are by Law given upon Exportation, shall be imported, brought in, or landed within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, unless the Owner or Proprietor of such Fish, or the Master of the Vessel, shall make Oath before the Officer for the said Duties, in the Port or Place where such Fish shall be imported, brought in, or landed, (who shall administer the same without Fee or Charge) That all the Salt wherewith the said Fish was cured, was laden or put on board from some Port of England, Wales, or Berwick, and that no Drawback or Allowance, or Debenture for the same, hath to his Knowledge or Belief been had or obtained, or is intended to be had or obtained, upon the Exportation or carrying out of the said Salt, or any Part thereof; upon Pain of forfeiting such Fish that shall be imported, brought in or landed, contrary to the Intent or Meaning hereof, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof.

XV. And whereas the Officers appointed by the Commissioners of Excise to take Care of the Duties on imported Salt, and to prevent Frauds in the undue obtaining Debentures for Drawbacks, and Allowances out of the said Duties, are not, by any of the Laws relating to the said Duties, sufficiently empowered to go on board Ships and Vessels for that Purpose, although the Duties on Salt are under the Management of the said Commissioners and their Officers; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from henceforth it shall and may be lawful to and for the Officers appointed by the Commissioners of Excise for the said Duties on Salt, from Time to Time, to go on board all Ships importing or exporting any Salt or Fish, and to continue on board such Ships, to take an Account of such Salt and Fish, and see the same weighed, landed or exported; and if any Person or Persons shall obstruct or hinder any of the said Officers in Performance of their Duties aforesaid, then, and in every such Case, the Person offending therein shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds.

XVI. And whereas her Majesty's Duties on Salt are much lessened by the Exportation of great Quantities of Fish, in Regard the Exporters thereof, after the same are carried out of Port, and Allowances, or Debentures for Allowances out of the Duties on Salt, had or obtained on such Exportation, do frequently bring back such Fish into Port, and re-export the same, and obtain a second or more Allowances for the very same Fish: For Remedy thereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and two, it shall and may be lawful for the Officers for the said Duties on Salt, in the several and respective Ports of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, upon the Exportation of any Codfish, Ling, or Hake, and before the same shall be laid on board for Exportation, to cut off Part of the Tail of every such Codfish, Ling, or Hake, before the same shall be so exported, to the Intent it may be known that such Codfish, Ling, or Hake hath been so exported, and Allowances obtained on Exportation thereof, in case the same shall be reloaded or re-imported; and also, that it shall be lawful upon the Exportation of any Pilchards, Scads, White Herrings, Red Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red Sprats, and before the same shall be laid on board for Exportation, to mark any Cask, Barrel, or other Vessel, wherein any such Pilchards, Scads, White Herrings, Red Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red Sprats, shall be exported, to the Intent it may be known that such Pilchards, Scads, White Herrings, Red Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red Sprats, have been exported, and Allowances obtained on Exportation of the same, in case the same, or any of them, shall be reloaded or re-imported.

On Exportation of Codfish, Ling &c. Officer may cut off Part of the Tail, &c.

and mark Casks of Pilchards, Scads, &c.

XVII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Codfish, Ling, or Hake, or any Pilchards, Scads, White Herrings, Red Herrings, Salmon, or dried Red Sprats, shall after the same shall be exported, be fraudulently reloaded in England, or Wales, the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or re-imported, all the said Fish, so reloaded or re-imported, shall be forfeited and lost, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof.

Codfish &c. exported and fraudulently reloaded, forfeited, &c.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Salt-maker, or Dealer in Salt, shall act as a Justice of the Peace in any Matter or Thing relating to the Duties on Salt, or any Offence committed against the Laws relating to the same; and in case there shall not be a sufficient Number of Justices of the Peace in any Corporation (that are not Makers or Dealers in Salt) sufficient to hear and determine the Offences relating to the said Duties, then and in such Case, the Justices of the Peace of the County next adjoining to such Corporation shall have hereby Power and Authority, from Time to Time, to hear and determine all Offences, Matters, and Things, relating to the said Duties on Salt, in the same Manner as if they were Justices of the Peace for such Corporation respectively; any Law, Statute, or Provision to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Salt Maker not to act as Justice of Peace in Cases relating to the Duties on Salt, &c.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Penalties and Forfeitures, hereby given and imposed, shall be recovered and levied by the same Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Penalties and Forfeitures can or may be recovered and levied by any of the Laws of the Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed, nor any more than one Imparlance: And that the said Penalties and Forfeitures shall be distributed in Manner following (viz.) One Moiety thereof to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that will sue or inform for the same.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered, and distributed.

XX. And whereas the Allowances given by the several Acts relating to the Duties on Salt, upon the Exportation of Codfish, Ling, and Hake, therein mentioned, do much exceed the Duty of the Salt usually employed in the curing the same, so that many Persons for the Sake of the said Allowances only, do export such Fish not duly cured, and Fish of very small Size, not having a due Quantity of Salt made use of in curing the same, which is not only a Prejudice to her Majesty in her said Duties on Salt, but also a great Disparagement to the Trade of English Fish in foreign Markets; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in lieu of the several Allowances given out of the said Duties on Salt, by the Acts relating to the same, upon the Exportation of any Codfish, Ling, or Hake, there shall be allowed and paid the several and respective Sums herein after mentioned, for the several and respective Sorts of Codfish, Ling, or Hake, herein after mentioned, which shall be exported from any Port or Place in England, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June; that is to say, Allowances on Exportation of Codfish, Ling, &c.

XXI. For every hundred of Codfish, Ling, and Hake (other than and except dried Cod, Ling, or Hake, commonly called Haberdines) which shall contain in Length four and twenty Inches and upwards, from the Bone in the Fin to the third Joint in the Tail of such Fish, the Sum of fifty Shillings, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity.

For Codfish, &c. 24 Inches long, 50 s. per hundred;

XXII. For every hundred of Codfish, Ling, or Hake (other than and except dried Cod, Ling, or Hake, commonly called Haberdines) which shall be of the Length of eighteen Inches, or more, and under the Size of four and twenty Inches, from the Bone of the Fin to the third Joint in the Tail of such Fish, the Sum of five and twenty Shillings, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity.

of 18 Inches, 25 s. per hundred.

XXIII. For every hundred of dried Codfish, Ling, or Hake, commonly called Haberdines, one Moiety of the Allowance given by this Act for other Codfish, Ling, and Hake, of the same Dimensions; upon Debentures, to be prepared according to the Directions of the several Acts relating to the said Duties, and doing and performing such other Matters and Things, as by the said former Acts, and this present Act, are required and prescribed, in order to the obtaining such Allowances.

For Haberdines, one Moiety, &c.

XXIV. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any of the said Duties upon Salt shall cease, determine, or be redeemed by Parliament, then, and in any of the said Cases, the said Allowances upon Exportation of Codfish, Ling, or Hake, hereby settled, shall be lessened in Proportion to the Duties on Salt that shall so cease determine, or be redeemed.

In case Salt Duties cease, Allowances to be lessened, &c.

XXV. And it is hereby declared and enacted, That no allowance shall be paid out of the said Duties on Salt, for or on Account of the Exportation of any Fish, that are or shall not be well cured, or shall be unmerchantable, nor for any Conger.

No Allowance to be made for Fish not well cured, &c. nor for Conger.

XXVI. And

Queen may appoint particular Commissioners for Salt.

XXVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for her Majesty (if she pleases) from Time to Time to constitute and appoint particular Commissioners, separate and apart from the Commissioners and Governors of the Receipt of Excise, for the Receipt, Management and Government of the said Duties on Salt, during her Majesty's Pleasure; and upon her Majesty's constituting and appointing such particular Commissioners for the said Duties on Salt, and during such Time only as her Majesty shall from Time to Time think fit to continue the same under the Receipt and Management of such particular Commissioners, all and every the Powers and Authorities given by this Act, and by the several Acts relating to the said Duties on Salt, or any of them, to the Commissioners and Governors of the Receipt of Excise, and the Collectors and other Officers for the said Duties under them, shall be and are hereby vested and transferred to such particular Commissioners as her Majesty shall from Time to Time constitute and appoint, for the Receipt, Government and Management of the said Duties on Salt; and the Collectors and Officers to be, from Time to Time, appointed by such particular Commissioners, or the major Part of them respectively, and all and every the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Methods, Clauses, Matters and Things, which in and by the said Acts, relating to the said Duties upon Salt, are directed to be exercised, practised, applied, used, and put in Execution by the said Commissioners and Governors of the Receipt of Excise, and their Officers under them respectively, with relation to the said Duties on Salt, or any Penalties, Forfeitures, Frauds or Offences against the said Acts, or any of them, relating to the same, shall, during such Time as her Majesty shall please to continue the said Duties on Salt under the Receipt and Management of such particular Commissioners, be exercised, practised, applied, used, and put in Execution by such particular Commissioners, and the Officers under them respectively for the time being.

Officers to take Security for Salt entered to be exported.

XXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Salt or Rock Salt shall be entred according to the former Laws relating to the said Duties on Salt, and the same shall be intended to be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, then and in such Case the Officers for the said Duties on Salt shall be and are hereby authorized and empowered to take sufficient Security from the Merchant or Merchants that intend to export such Salt or Rock Salt, for the due Payment of the Duties thereof, without insisting, that the original Proprietor of such Salt or Rock Salt be bound in such Security.

9 & 10 W. 3. c. 6.

No Person to buy Salt but by Weight. Penalty.

XXVIII. And whereas notwithstanding the Act of Parliament for obliging all Persons to sell Salt by Weight, the same is not observed, by reason the Persons that buy the same refuse to buy the same of the Proprietors otherwise than by Measure, to the great Prejudice of the said Proprietors: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June no Person shall buy any Salt otherwise than by Weight, and not by Measure, under the Penalty of ten Shillings for every Bushel of Salt which shall be bought contrary to the true Meaning hereof, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity, to be paid by the Person or Persons so buying the same, to be recovered and distributed, as any the Penalties by this Act inflicted are hereby directed to be recovered and distributed.

Persons paying Duty in 28 Days after Security given, to have a Discount, &c.

XXIX. And whereas the Salt Proprietors having a Liberty to pay the Duty in ready Money, or give Security to pay the same, in nine Months for the Rock, and in six Months for other Salt, tends only to the Benefit of the richer Sort of Proprietors, but is destructive to the Salt Trade in general, through the Difficulties attending such as have not ready Money, thereby causing several Bonds to be sued, when by a due Encouragement to such, as well as other Proprietors, it might in a great measure be prevented, and the Duty sooner paid; Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons who shall give such Security as aforesaid, shall have Liberty, at any Time within twenty-eight Days after giving the same, to pay the Duty thereby secured, and on Payment thereof shall have and receive a Discount after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the Remainder of the Time for which such Security shall be given.

Bonds given by Fishermen who used the North Sea Fishery, Anno 1700, &c. made void. Commissioners

XXX. And whereas several Fishermen who used the North Sea Fishery, did in the Year one thousand seven hundred ship several Quantities of Salt at North and South Shields near Newcastle upon Tyne, giving Bonds for the Duties thereof, and then exported the said Salt to the North Seas, where they spent it in curing and salting of Fish caught in those Seas, believing that upon Affidavit of shipping off the said Salt, and its not being relanded in England or Wales, they might be intitled to a Drawback of the Duties which some other Fishermen in the like Case had obtained, as if such Salt had been actually exported to Parts beyond the Seas; and upon bringing home their said Fish, sold the same to several Retailers at Home Markets, at a low Price accordingly: Now, forasmuch as such Fishermen might be ignorant that they were liable to pay the said Duties, notwithstanding such Salt was spent in curing of Fish, and they not being enabled by the Price thereof to pay the same, a Prosecution upon such their Bonds would ruin them and their Families: For Prevention whereof, upon due Proof to be made before the Commissioners for the Excise or Salt Duties, that such Salt so shipped off was by them spent in curing and salting of Fish caught in the North Seas, that the said Fish was afterwards sold to Retailers at Home Markets, at a low Price, and that no Drawback or Allowance has been already made or paid by the said Commissioners for the Excise or Salt Duties; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Bonds as were so given at North and South Shields near Newcastle, for the Duties of such Salt so expended as aforesaid, and for which no Drawback or Allowance has already been made upon Exportation thereof, shall be, and the same are hereby made and declared void, and of none Effect: And the Commissioners to cancel the same, and Prosecutions to cease. Farther Provisions concerning Salt. 2 & 3 Ann. c. 14. 4 Ann. c. 12. 5 Ann. c. 29. 6 Ann. c. 12. 9 Ann. c. 23. 12 Ann. st. 2. c. 2. 5 Geo. 1. c. 18. 8 Geo. 1. c. 4 & 16. 11 Geo. 1. c. 30. 3 Geo. 2. c. 20. 5 Geo. 2. c. 6. 8 Geo. 2. c. 12. 14 Geo. 2. c. 22. 26 Geo. 2. c. 3 & 32.

for the Excise or Salt Duties for the time being are hereby impowered and directed to cancel or deliver up the same to the respective Persons therein concerned, who shall desire such Bonds, or any of them; and that all Prosecutions at Law upon the said Bonds do cease and determine.

XXXI. And whereas divers Frauds have been committed in curing and packing of Pilchards, by which Means a great Disrepute is brought on the said Commodity beyond the Seas, which tends as well to the great Dishonour of the English Nation, as to the Destruction of their Trade: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of June, no Person or Persons do presume to cure or pack Pilchards for Sale, unless he or they be Owner or Owners, or Part Owners of some Seyn or Seyns, or of Drift-net or Drift-nets, or have the Consent of such Owners in Writing, and that on each Cask or Hog-head of Pilchards, the Word Seyn or Drift (according to the Manner of their being taken) shall be bunt with an Iron in some visible Part thereof, together with the Name and Surname of the Owner or Owners of the same, as also the Number of Pilchards contained in each Cask or Hog-head, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture of double the Value of the said Fish for every such Offence, to be recovered and disposed as other Penalties by this Act are to be recovered and disposed.

XXXII. And whereas by an Act made in the sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, several additional Duties upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate and Spices were granted to his said late Majesty, from the first Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-five to the second Day of May one thousand six hundred ninety-eight; and it was thereby enacted, That two Thirds of the said Duties of such of the said Goods as should be exported within the Times by the said Act limited, should be repaid to the Exporter thereof; which said Duties were afterwards continued to the first of May one thousand seven hundred and one, and afterwards further continued to the first of May one thousand seven hundred and six: And whereas by another Act made in the eleventh Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, an additional Duty of Fifteen per Centum was granted to his said late Majesty, upon all Wrought Silks, Bengals and Stuffs, made or mixed with Silk or Herba, of the Manufacture of Persia, China, or the East Indies, and upon all Callicoes painted, dyed, printed or stained there, as also upon all Muslins, from the five and twentieth of March one thousand seven hundred to the thirtieth of September one thousand seven hundred and one; and it was thereby further enacted, That the said Duty upon such of the said Goods, as should be exported within twelve Months after the Importation thereof, should be repaid, or that the Security given for the same should be vacated; which said Duty of Fifteen per Centum on Muslins is by another Act continued to the thirtieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and six: And whereas also by another Act made in the eighth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign, there was granted to his said late Majesty an additional Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Duties therein mentioned, upon certain Goods and Merchandizes, from the first of May one thousand six hundred ninety-seven to the first Day of February one thousand six hundred ninety-nine; and by the said Act it is further enacted, That the said Subsidy, and other Duties upon such of the said Goods, as should be again exported within the Time limited by the said Act, shall be repaid to the Exporter thereof; which said Subsidy and other Duties were afterwards continued, during his said late Majesty's Life, and are by an Act of this present Parliament granted to her present Majesty, during her Majesty's Life (which God long preserve). And whereas several of the said Commodities were imported, and the Duties thereof paid upon such of the said Acts as are expired, and the same Commodities have been since exported, and the Exporters thereof are become intitled to a Drawback of the said Duties, or some Part thereof, according to the Provisions made in the said respective Acts for that Purpose: But in regard the said Duties have been paid into the Exchequer, and from thence issued to the Purposes for which they were by the said respective Acts appropriated, there doth not remain sufficient of the said Duties for the Payment of the said Drawbacks; and there being no express Provision made in the several Acts, whereby the said Duties are respectively continued, some Doubt hath arisen, whether the Duties which have or shall accrue since the Continuation of the same, shall be liable to the Payment of the said Drawbacks of the said Duties upon the said expired Acts; and thereby the said Exporters are kept out of their Money, and the Trade in the said Commodities very much discouraged: For Remedy whereof be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the Debentures for the said Drawbacks of the Duties which were paid upon the said Acts expired as aforesaid, shall be satisfied out of the Monies arising by the said respective Acts now in Force for the Duties continued as aforesaid; that is to say, The Debentures which should have been paid out of the said additional Duties upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate and Spices, determined as aforesaid, shall be paid out of the said present Duties continued as aforesaid upon the same Commodities: And the said Debentures which ought to have been satisfied out of the said expired Duties of Fifteen per Centum, shall be paid out of the said present Duty of Fifteen per Centum upon Muslins; and such of the said Debentures as ought to have been satisfied out of the said additional Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage expired as aforesaid, shall be paid out of the said present Duty of Tunnage and Poundage now payable to her present Majesty.

C A P. XXII.

An Act to declare the Alterations in the Oath appointed to be taken by the Act, intituled, An Act for the further Security of his Majesty's Person, and the Succession of the Crown in the Protestant Line, and for extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Pretenders, and their open and secret Abettors, and for declaring the Association to be determined.

‘ WHEREAS by the Demise of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, and the Accession of her present Majesty Queen ANNE, to the Imperial Crown and Dignity of these Realms, the Form of an Oath contained in an Act made in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty, intituled, An Act for the further Security of his Majesty's Person, and the Succession of the Crown in the Protestant Line, and for the extinguishing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Pretenders, and their open and secret Abettors, is now become necessary to be altered;’ Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twentieth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and two, the Oath in the said recited Act mentioned, be administered in such Manner and Form as is herein after set down and prescribed (that is to say)

‘ I A. B. do truly and sincerely acknowledge, profess, testify and declare, in my Conscience before God and the World, That our Sovereign Lady Queen ANNE, is lawful and rightful Queen of this Realm, and of all other her Majesty's Dominions and Countries thereunto belonging. And I do solemnly and sincerely declare, That I do believe in my Conscience, that the Person pretended to be Prince of Wales, during the Life of the late King JAMES, and since his Decease pretending to be and taking upon himself the Style and Title of King of England, by the Name of JAMES the Third, hath not any Right or Title whatsoever to the Crown of this Realm, or any other the Dominions thereto belonging: And I do renounce, refuse, and abjure any Allegiance or Obedience to him. And I do swear, That I will bear Faith and true Allegiance to her Majesty Queen ANNE, and her will defend to the utmost of my Power, against all traiterous Conspiracies and Attempts whatsoever, which shall be made against her Person, Crown, or Dignity. And I will do my best Endeavour to disclose and make known to her Majesty and her Successors all Treasons and traiterous Conspiracies, which I shall know to be against her or any of them. And I do faithfully promise, to the utmost of my Power, to support, maintain and defend the Limitation and Succession of the Crown, against him the said JAMES, and all other Persons whatsoever, as the same is and stands limited (by an Act intituled, An Act declaring the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, and settling the Succession of the Crown) to her present Majesty and the Heirs of her Body, being Protestants: And as the same by one other Act intituled, An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown, and better securing the Rights and Liberties of the Subject, is and stands limited after the Decease of her Majesty, and for Default of Issue of her Majesty, to the Princess SOPHIA, Electress and Duchess Dowager of Hannover, and the Heirs of her Body, being Protestants. And all these Things I do plainly and sincerely acknowledge and swear, according to these express Words by me spoken, and according to the plain and common Sense and Understanding of the same Words, without any Equivocation, mental Evasion, or secret Reservation whatsoever. And I do make this Recognition, Acknowledgment, Abjuration, Renunciation and Promise, heartily, willingly and truly, upon the true Faith of a Christian.’

So help me God.

Oath to be taken in the Form prescribed. II. And that all and every Person and Persons, who are enjoined or required to administer, take or subscribe the Oath in the said recited Act mentioned, shall administer, take and subscribe the same, according to the Form herein set down and prescribed; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

7 W. 3. c. 27. ‘ III. And whereas by an Act made in the seventh Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for the better Security of his Majesty's Royal Person and Government, it is recited, That for the better Preservation of his said Majesty's Royal Person and Government, great Numbers of his Majesty's good Subjects had entered into and subscribed an Association in the Words contained in the said Act, which Association is by the same Act required to be subscribed in such Manner, and by such Officers and Persons, and under such Forfeitures, Penalties, Incapacities, and Disabilities, for the Neglect or Refusal to subscribe the same, as in the said Act is mentioned and contained: And whereas since the Death of the late King JAMES, and by the Demise of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, the subscribing the said Association is not necessary to be any longer continued, such Part thereof as relates to the Support and Defence of the Succession to the Crown therein mentioned, being more fully provided for by the said recited Oath;’ Be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said recited Act of the seventh Year of his said late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, as relates to the said Association therein contained, or the requiring any Officers or other Persons in the said Act mentioned, to subscribe the same, or for the enacting any Forfeitures, Penalties, Incapacities, or Disabilities, upon any Person for the Neglect or Refusal to subscribe the same, or that requires any Court or Courts to tender the said Association, or to register the

An Act for Explanation of a Clause in one Act made in the seventh Year of his late Majesty's Reign relating to Borelaps, and to take off the additional Subsidy upon Irish Linen.

WHEREAS in and by an Act of Parliament made in the seventh Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, of blessed Memory, intituled, An Act for continuing several ^{A Clause in} Duties granted by former Acts upon Wine and Vinegar, and upon Tobacco, and East India Goods, and other ^{7 W. 3. c. 10.} Merchandizes imported, for carrying on the War against France, it is therein recited, That whereas several Merchants trading with the United Provinces in several Sorts of coarse Linen, commonly called Borelaps, had then of late been compelled to pay Custom for the same as Hollands, which came to above thirty-five Pounds per Centum; whereby the said Trade, so useful to the poorer Sort of People, was not only likely to be lost, but the Customs thereby much abated: It was therefore enacted, That all such Linen Cloth, known or commonly called by the Name of Borelaps, not exceeding twenty-eight Inches and a Half in Breadth, nor twelve Pence an English Ell in Value, should be entred ad valorem during the Continuance of that Act, and pay all other Duties accordingly: And whereas some Doubt hath been made, whether the said Clause concerning Borelaps be yet in Force, and is to continue for such Time and Term of Years, as other Clauses in the said recited Act are by subsequent Acts now in Force continued; Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Clause concerning Borelaps, and the Duties and Customs payable for the same ad Valorem, is and shall be in full Force and Effect to all Intents, Constructions and Purposes whatsoever, until the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ten. ^{concerning Borelaps, and the Duties, &c. to be in Force till 1710.} E X P.

If principal Offender be convicted of Felony, &c. it shall be lawful to proceed against Accessory; who on Conviction shall suffer the same Punishment, &c. 3 & 4 W. & M. c. 9. § 4.
Further Provisions concerning Accessories, 5 Ann c. 31.

‘FORASMUCH as the Counsellors and Contrivers of Theft and other Felonies, and the Receivers of Goods that have been stolen, are the principal Cause of the Commission of such Felonies; and as the Law now is, no Accessory can be convicted or suffer any Punishment where the Principal is not attainted, or hath the Benefit of his Clergy;’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the twelfth Day of February which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and two, if any principal Offender shall be convicted of any Felony, or shall stand mute, or peremptorily challenge above the Number of twenty Persons returned to serve of the Jury, it shall and may be lawful to proceed against any Accessory, either before or after the Fact, in the same Manner, as if such principal Felon had been attainted thereof, notwithstanding any such principal Felon shall be admitted to the Benefit of his Clergy, pardoned, or otherwise delivered before Attainder; and every such Accessory shall suffer the same Punishment, if he or she be convicted, or shall stand mute, or peremptorily challenge above the Number of twenty Persons returned to serve of the Jury, as he or she should have suffered if the Principal had been attainted.

Receivers of stolen Goods may be punished, where the principal Felon is not convicted. See farther 4 Geo. 1. c. 11.

Witnesses for Prisoner on trial for Treason or Felony, shall depose on Oath, in such Manner as the Queen’s Witnesses.

Penalties if convicted of Perjury. Captain, Master, &c. wilfully casting away or burning, &c. any Ship, shall suffer Death.

Such Offence committed on the High Seas may be tried in any Shire in England, as by 28 H. 8. c. 15. Person convicted thereof to suffer Death without Benefit of Clergy.

‘II. And forasmuch as Buyers and Receivers of stolen Goods do oftentimes convey away and conceal the principal Felons, so that they cannot be convicted of such principal Felony, and thereby such Buyers and Receivers have escaped all Manner of Punishment, which hath greatly encouraged the buying and receiving of such stolen Goods:’ For Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twelfth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and two, it shall and may be lawful to prosecute and punish every such Person and Persons buying or receiving any stolen Goods, knowing the same to be stolen, as for a Misdemeanor, to be punished by Fine and Imprisonment, although the principal Felon be not before convicted of the said Felony, which shall exempt the Offender from being punished as Accessory, if the Principal shall be afterwards convicted.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twelfth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and two, all and every Person and Persons, who shall be produced or appear as a Witness or Witnesses on the Behalf of the Prisoner, upon any Trial for Treason or Felony, before he or she be admitted to depose, or give any Manner of Evidence, shall first take an Oath to depose the Truth, the whole Truth, and nothing but the Truth, in such Manner, as the Witnesses for the Queen are by Law obliged to do; and if convicted of any wilful Perjury in such Evidence, shall suffer all the Punishments, Penalties, Forfeitures and Disabilities, which by any of the Laws and Statutes of this Realm are and may be inflicted upon Persons convicted of wilful Perjury.

IV. And for the effectual preventing the wilful casting away, burning, or otherwise destroying, by Masters and Mariners, of Ships under their Charge; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Captain, Master, Mariner, or other Officer belonging to any Ship, shall, after the said twelfth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and two, wilfully cast away, burn, or otherwise destroy the Ship unto which he belongeth, or procure the same to be done, to the Prejudice of the Owner or Owners thereof, or of any Merchant or Merchants that shall load Goods thereon, he shall suffer Death as a Felon.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the said Offence and Offences committed on the High Seas, or where the Admiralty hath Jurisdiction, shall be inquired, tried, heard, determined, and judged, in such Shires and Places in the Realm, as shall be limited by the Queen’s Commission under the Great Seal of England, in such Manner and Form, as in and by an Act made in the twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of the late King HENRY the Eighth is directed and appointed for the trial of Pirates; and that all and every Person and Persons, who, from and after the said twelfth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and two, shall be convicted of any of the said Offence or Offences last mentioned, or shall stand mute, or peremptorily challenge above the Number of twenty Persons returned to serve of the Jury, shall suffer Death without Benefit of Clergy.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That at such Time as the said Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Bishop of London, and Lord Mayor of London, for the Time being, or any two of them, shall think fit, the said Church Yard shall be inclosed or separated from the High Street, and that no House or Building whatsoever shall hereafter be erected in or upon any Part of the said Church Yard, except a Place for the meeting of the Chapter of the said Cathedral Church, and for keeping the Stores for the necessary Repairs of the said Church, which may be built by and with Part of the Money to be raised by virtue of this Act. And if any House or Building shall hereafter be erected in or upon any Part thereof, except as before excepted, the same shall be taken and esteemed a common Nuisance, and be prosecuted and punished as such.

V. And whereas some of the Houses and Grounds, which may be purchased and made use of for securing the said Cathedral from Accidents of Fire, and for regulating the Church Yard, as aforesaid, do or may belong to the See of London, Dean and Chapter, or Petty Canons, of the said Cathedral, in Right of the said See, Chapter, and Church; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Sale made by the Lord Bishop of London, Dean and Chapter, or Petty Canons, of any such Houses and Grounds for the Purposes aforesaid, shall be good and valid in the Law, and shall bind them and their Successors, any Statute of Restraint to the contrary notwithstanding: And that the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Bishop of London, and Lord Mayor of London, for the Time being, or any two of them, shall apply and lay out the Monies which shall be paid for the Purchase of the Estate and Interest of the said Lord Bishop of London, Dean and Chapter, or Petty Canons, in the said Houses and Grounds belonging to the said See of London, the said Dean and Chapter and Petty Canons, or any of them, for the purchasing of Lands and Tenements in Fee Simple, to be settled upon them respectively, and upon their respective Successors, in Right of the said Church; which said Purchase and Settlements shall be valid in Law to all Intents and Purposes, the Statute of Mortmain, or any other Statute, Law, or Custom notwithstanding.

VI. And forasmuch as it is the Intention of this Act, that the Rebuilding of the said Cathedral Church of Saint Paul's be speedily compleated, which will save much Charge and Expence, that would be unavoidable, in case of a slow and dilatory Progress; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Bishop of London, and Lord Mayor of London, for the Time being, or any two of them, shall and are hereby empowered, by Indenture under their Hands and Seals, to engage the Profits arising out of the respective Impositions by this Act, or any Part or Parts thereof, as a Security for the Repayment of any Sum or Sums of Money by them to be borrowed for the Ends and Purposes of this Act, with Interest for Forbearance of the same (the Interest whereof to grow due before the Commencement of the Duty hereby imposed, shall and may be paid out of the Monies arising by the Duties given by an Act made in the eighth Year of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for compleating the Building and adorning the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul's, London, and for repairing the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter, Westminster; so as such Payments do not prejudice any Persons who have already advanced any Sums on the Credit of the said last mentioned Duties) to any Person or Persons that shall or will advance or lend any Sum or Sums of Money upon such Security: All which Money so to be borrowed, shall be employed for and towards rebuilding, finishing, adorning, and securing the said Cathedral Church, and for contracting for, purchasing, and demolishing the adjacent Houses and Buildings aforesaid; as also for inclosing and regulating the Church Yard of the said Cathedral Church, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

An Act for granting an Aid to her Majesty, for carrying on the War, and other her Majesty's Occasions, by selling Annuities at several Rates, and for such respective Terms or Estates as are therein mentioned.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lord King WILLIAM the Third, of blessed Memory, intituled, An Act for appropriating three thousand seven hundred Pounds weekly, out of certain Branches of Excise, for publick Uses, and for making a Provision for the Service of his Majesty's Household and Family, and other his necessary Occasions, it was (amongst other Things) enacted, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred, for and during the Term of five Years from thence next ensuing, the full, clear, and entire weekly Sum of three thousand seven hundred Pounds, of lawful English Money, out of all the Monies arising by the Hereditary Rates and Duties of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, which were granted to the Crown in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, and by the Duties of Excise payable during the said late King WILLIAM's Life, and by every or any of them, if all those Duties of Excise should so long continue; and if the said Duties of Excise, payable during his said late Majesty's Life, should happen to determine before the End of the said Term of five Years, then out of the Monies arising entirely by the said Hereditary Duties of Excise, for and during all the Residue which should be then to come and unexpired of the said Term of five Years, should be brought and paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer by weekly Payments, and in such Manner and Form as in the said Act are particularly mentioned, for the Purposes in the said Act expressed: And it is thereby further enacted, That in Lieu and Discharge of certain perpetual annual Payments, and of all Arrears thereof granted by his late Majesty King CHARLES the Second to the respective Patentees therein named, the said Hereditary Revenue of Excise should, from and after the twenty-sixth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and five, be and stand charged for ever with the Payment of annual Sums after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be paid as by the said Act is directed, and subject to such Power of Redemption as in the said Act is expressed:

II. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Support of her Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, it is (amongst other Things) enacted, That the Duties of Excise which had been granted to his said late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, during his Life, and afterwards to King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, during their Lives, and the Life of the Survivor of them (except as therein is excepted) and a certain Duty upon Vinegar, shall be levied and paid to your Majesty, during your Life (which God preserve) and the same, together with the said Hereditary Duties of Excise, are thereby subjected to the said weekly Payment of three thousand seven hundred Pounds, in the Manner therein mentioned, during the said Term of five Years; and it was thereby further declared, That from and after the Expiration of the said Term of five Years, so much Money as, together with the said Payments after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, should make up the Sum of three thousand seven hundred Pounds for every Year, during your Majesty's Life, should and might be taken out of the said Hereditary Duties of Excise, and out of the said Duties of Excise granted for your Majesty's Life, and either or any of them, and the said Payments, after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, being deducted out of the Hereditary Part thereof, the Residue of the said three thousand seven hundred Pounds a Week should be applied and disposed of, to and for the publick Use and Service, as by the said several Acts (Relation being thereunto respectively had) may more fully appear:

III. Now we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of England in Parliament assembled, being desirous by the most easy Means that are possible to raise the Money which is necessary for carrying on the present War, and supplying your Majesty's important Occasions, do cheerfully and unanimously grant unto your Majesty a further Aid to arise by Contributions for Annuities to be purchased in the Manner and Form herein after mentioned; and do humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the five and twentieth Day of December in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and five, the said full, clear, and entire weekly Sum of three thousand seven hundred Pounds, out of all the Monies arising by the said Hereditary Duties of Excise, and by the said Duties of Excise payable during her Majesty's Life, and by every and any of them, according to the Tenor and Direction of the Act of Parliament above recited in that Behalf, and from and after her Majesty's Decease, then the like full, clear, and entire weekly Sum of three thousand seven hundred Pounds of lawful English Money, out of all the Monies to arise by the said Hereditary Duties of Excise, and every or any of them, from Time to Time for ever, shall be brought and paid by the Commissioners, Farmers, Receiver and Receivers General for the Time being of the said several Duties of Excise (who Monies arising by the said Branches of Excise to be kept apart, and paid weekly into the Exchequer.

Penalty on Non-payment.

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of Excise for the Time being, at their Head Office in London, shall from Time to Time separate and keep apart all the Monies arising by the said particular Branches of Excise herein before mentioned, as the same shall from Time to Time arise or be paid into the said Office of Excise by the Receivers or Collectors of the same, or by any other Person or Persons whatsoever, and shall out of the Monies so arising make the said weekly Payments into the Exchequer, for the Uses in this Act mentioned.

V. And be it further enacted, That if the said Commissioners of Excise for the Time being shall refuse or neglect to pay or cause to be paid into the Exchequer the said weekly Sums hereby appointed, or shall divert or misapply any Part of the Monies which should make good the same, then they and every of them so offending shall forfeit their several Offices and Places, and be incapable to serve the Queen, her Heirs or Successors, in any Office or Place of Trust or Profit, and shall be liable for every such Offence to pay double the Value of the Money so diverted or misapplied, to any Person or Persons who will inform or sue for the same, by Action of Debt, or of the Case, Bill, Suit or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance shall be granted or allowed.

Comptroller of Excise to keep a distinct Account of the Monies.
Penalty.

VI. And be it enacted, That the Comptroller of the Excise for the Time being, shall keep a perfect and distinct Account, in a Book or Books fairly written, of all the Monies which shall arise by the said particular Branches of Excise, out of which the said weekly Payments are to be made as aforesaid, as the same shall from Time to Time arise or be raised (to which Books all Persons concerned shall at all reasonable Times have free Access, without Fee or Charge); and such Comptroller in Default thereof shall forfeit his Office or Place, and be rendered incapable as aforesaid, and shall also forfeit and lose the Sum of two hundred Pounds for every such Default, to any Person or Persons who will inform or sue for the same as is before mentioned.

Monies to be entred apart.

VII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of the Exchequer one Book, in which all the Monies which ought to be paid in weekly as aforesaid, for or upon Account of the said weekly Sums out of the said particular Branches of Excise, and which shall be brought to the said Receipt, shall be entred apart and distinct from all other Monies paid into the said Receipt on any other Account whatsoever.

the Values, according to which such Duties shall be paid for the future, it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said eighth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and three, upon the Importation of any such unrated Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of the East Indies, China, or other the Parts within the Limits aforesaid, now liable to pay Duties ad valorem, as aforesaid, by any Act or Acts of Parliament already made in that Behalf, during the Continuance of the same Act and Acts of Parliament, or any of them, an Entry or Entries thereof shall be made in the Custom-house, where such Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes shall be imported, and before the landing thereof, the Importer or Importers of the same shall give Security by Bond, with two or more sufficient Sureties (which the Commissioners or proper Officers of the Customs are hereby impowered to take) for Payment of the said Duties, according to the real Values of the said Goods, to be ascertained according to this Act (except Coffee, the Duties whereof are to be regulated according to the former Acts concerning the same) as soon as the said Goods shall be sold; and also for exposing the Goods, so imported to Sale, openly and fairly by way of Auction, or by Inch of Candle, within the City of London, within the Time of twelve Months after the Importation thereof.

VII. And it is hereby enacted and declared, that the Value of such Goods, according to which the said Duties are to be paid (except Coffee, as aforesaid) shall be reckoned according to the gross Price at which such Goods shall be sold, making such Allowances only out of the same as are herein after-mentioned; that is to say, it is hereby enacted, That out of the Values of the said Goods so to be ascertained by the Price at the Candle, as aforesaid, there shall be a Deduction and Allowance made of so much as the Net Duties, payable to her Majesty for the same Goods respectively, do amount unto (except the Duty of five Pounds per Centum, payable to the Queen for the Use of the said Companies) and so much as the respective Companies, or Traders aforesaid, shall bona fide allow for prompt Payment to the Persons who at such Sales shall buy the said Goods at Time: And also upon the whole Values of the said Goods so to be ascertained by the Price at the Candle, there shall be deducted and allowed six Pounds for every hundred Pounds to the said Companies and Traders respectively, for their Charges in keeping the said Goods, from the Time such Goods are imported till the Sale by the Candle, and in that Proportion for a greater or lesser Value.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any such unrated Goods of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of the East Indies, China, or other the Parts within the limits aforesaid, shall be landed or put on shore out of any Ship or Vessel, before due Entry thereof be made at the Custom-house in the Port or Place where the same shall be imported, and the said Duties shall be secured, as aforesaid, or without a Warrant for the landing or delivering the same, first signed by the Commissioners, Collectors, or other proper Officer or Officers of the Customs respectively, that all such imported Goods as shall be so landed and put on shore, or taken out of any Ship or Vessel, contrary to the true Meaning hereof, or the Value of the same, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized or recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof (to wit) two Thirds of the same to the Use of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors (the or they bearing the Charge of the Prosecution) and the other third Part to the Use of such Person or Persons as will seize, inform, or sue for the same, or the Value thereof, by Action, Bill, Suit, or Information, wherein no Effoin, Protection, or Wager of Law shall be allowed: nevertheless the said Duties so to be paid upon the Values so ascertained of the said unrated Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes (except the necessary Charges of raising, collecting, and answering the same) shall be applied and disposed to the same Uses and Purposes to which the respective Duties upon the same Goods, payable in any other Manner by any former Act or Acts, were appropriated or applicable.

IX. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That in all Cases where by the said former Acts concerning the said Duties of unrated Goods or any of them, any Drawbacks or Allowances were to be made of all or any Part of the Duties, upon the Exportation thereof within the respective Time or Times thereby limited, there shall be the like Drawbacks or Allowances made of or out of the Duties of the same Goods, to be ascertained by this Act.

X. Provided also, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend to charge any Goods, or Merchandize, chargeable by this Act, imported into any Port of this Kingdom before the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and three.

XI. Provided also, and be it enacted, That all Persons importing any Tobacco, hereby charged with any the Duties aforesaid, shall have nine Months Time, from the Entry of the Tobacco inwards, for Payment of the Duty hereby imposed upon the same, giving Bond, with sufficient Sureties, to her Majesty for Payment thereof at the End of the said nine Months, as in like Cases is usual; and in case of prompt Payment the Importer shall have a Discount after the Rate of six Pounds per Centum per Annum.

XII. And for the Encouragement of the Iron Manufacture of this Kingdom; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid; That from and after the eighth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and three, there shall not be allowed any Drawback, or Repayment of Customs, or Duties, charged in this or any former Act, upon any Wares made of wrought Iron or Steel in foreign Parts, which shall be imported into this Kingdom, and afterwards exported to any of her Majesty's Plantations in America; any Clause in this or any former Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

XIII. And whereas the Time for Exportation of Tobacco, Sugar, Ginger, Pepper, Bugles alias Beads, Cast and Bar Iron, Dying Wood, all Dying Wares, and all Drugs, by English Merchants, in order to draw back, is limited to twelve Months, which by Experience is found to be too short, and very 'very inconvenient to Trade;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all English Merchants shall, from the said eighth Day of March, have eighteen Months Time from the Entry inwards of all Tobacco, Sugar, Ginger, Pepper, Bugles alias Beads, Cast and Bar Iron, all Dying Wood, Dying Wares, and all Drugs, to export the same: And shall have the like Benefit and Drawback by such Exportation, as if the same had been exported within twelve Months, according to the second Rule in the Book of Rates; the said Rule or any other Law or Custom now in Force relating thereunto notwithstanding: Provided Certificates be taken forth, and Oath made, and all other Requisites performed according to the Laws now in being.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where the Oath of Merchants, importing and exporting, is by Law required to obtain any Drawback or Allowance upon the Exportation of any foreign Goods, the making of such Oath by the Agent or Husband of any Corporation, or Company trading by a joint Stock, affirming the Truth of the Officers Certificate of the Entry and due Payment of the Duties of such foreign Goods by any such Company or Corporation; and the making of such Oath by the known Servant of any Merchant usually employed in the making his Entries, and paying his Customs, for any Goods of a Merchant so to be exported, shall be of the like Effect as if the said Oaths were made by any particular Merchant or Merchants themselves.

XV. And for ascertaining the Values of any unrated Goods imported before the said eighth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and three, from the East Indies and China, or any other Parts within the Limits aforesaid, by the two Companies impowered to trade thither, or either of them; it is hereby further enacted, That the Oath of two Directors or Members of the Committee of the said Companies shall be admitted to affirm the Value of such Goods so already imported, according to which the Duties ad valorem for the same are to be paid; any former Act or Acts of Parliament or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all the Monies arising by the additional Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage hereby granted, and by the said additional Duty, after the Rate of fifteen Pounds per Tun upon all French Wines to be condemned as lawful Prize as aforesaid, (except the necessary Charges of raising and answering the said Subsidy and additional Duty respectively) shall from Time to Time be brought and paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person and Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to lend to her Majesty at the said Receipt, upon Credit of the said Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage, and the said additional Duty on French Wines condemned as Prize, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of three hundred thousand Pounds; and upon another Act of this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to her Majesty by continuing the Duties upon Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, for one Year, any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole six hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, including all Loans made thereupon; and that all Persons who shall have lent upon the said Credits, or either of them, shall have Interest for the Forbearance of their respective Loans by them made, or to be made, after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum per Annum, to be paid every three Months from the making of such Loans, until Satisfaction of the principal Sums respectively; and that no Monies, so lent or to be lent, shall be rated or assessed to any Tax or Assessment whatsoever; and that every such Lender shall immediately have a Talley of Loan struck for the Money by him, her, or them lent, and an Order of the same Date for Re-payment thereof, with such Interest as aforesaid; and that all such Orders shall be registred in course, according to their Dates (to wit) the Orders for Loans on the said Duties on Malt, Mum, Cyder, and Perry, on a Register to be kept for that Act, and the Orders for Loans on the said Subsidy, and additional Duty, by this Act granted, on a distinct Register, for such Loans; and all Persons on the said respective Registers shall be paid in course, as their Orders shall stand registred; so as the Person, Native or Foreigner, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, whose Order shall be first registred, shall be accounted the Person to be first paid out of the Monies to come in by the said respective Duties whereupon the said Loans shall be made respectively; and he or they who shall have his or their Order or Orders next entred, shall be taken to be the second Person to be paid, and so successively and in course; and that the said Monies to come in by the said respective Duties, whereupon the said Loans shall be made respectively, shall be in the same Order liable to the Satisfaction of the said respective Persons, their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns successively, without undue Preference of one before another, and not otherwise, and shall not be diverted or divertible to any other Use, Intent, or Purpose whatsoever; and that no Fee, Reward, or Gratuity, directly or indirectly, be demanded or taken of any her Majesty's Subjects, for providing or making of any such Books or Registers, or any Entries, Views, or Search, in or for Payment of Money lent, or the Interest thereof as aforesaid, by any of her Majesty's Officer or Officers, their Clerks or Deputies, on Pain of Payment of Treble Damages to the Party aggrieved, by the Party offending, with full Costs of Suit; or if the Officer himself take or demand any such Fee or Reward, then to lose his Place also; and if any undue Preference of one before another shall be made, either in point of Registry or Payment, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, by any such Officer or Officers, then the Party offending shall be liable by Action of Debt, or on the Case, to pay the Value of the Debt, with Damages and Costs, to the Party grieved, and shall be forejudged of his Place or Office: And if such Preference be unduly made by any his Deputy or Clerk, without Directions or Privy of his Master, then such Deputy or Clerk only shall be liable to such Action, Debt, Damages, and Costs, and shall be for ever after incapable of his Place or Office; and in case the Auditor of the Receipt shall not direct, or the Clerk of the Pells record, or the Teller make Payment, according to each Person's due Place and Order, as afore directed, then he or they shall be adjudged to forfeit, and the respective Deputies and Clerks herein offending to be liable to such Action, Debt, Damages, and Costs, in such Manner as aforesaid: All which said Penalties, Forfeitures, Damages, and Costs, to be incurred by any of the Officers of the Exchequer, or any their Deputies or Clerks, shall and may be recovered by

An Act for the making more effectual her Majesty’s gracious Intentions for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy, by enabling her Majesty to grant in Perpetuity the Revenues of the First Fruits and Tenths; and also for enabling any other Persons to make Grants for the same Purpose.

‘ WHEREAS at a Parliament holden in the six and twentieth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth, the First Fruits, Revenues and Profits for one Year, upon every Nomination or Appointment to any Dignity, Benefice, Office or Promotion Spiritual, within this Realm, or elsewhere within the said King’s Dominions, and also a perpetual yearly Rent or Pension, amounting to the Value of the tenth Part of all the Revenues and Profits belonging to any Dignity, Benefice, or Promotion Spiritual whatsoever, within any Diocese of this Realm, or in Wales, were granted to the said King HENRY the Eighth, his Heirs and Successors; and divers other Statutes have since been made touching the First Fruits and annual Tenths of the Clergy, and the ordering thereof: And whereas a sufficient settled Provision for the Clergy, in many Parts of this Realm, hath never yet been made, by reason whereof divers mean and stipendiary Preachers are in many Places entertained to serve the Cures, and officiate there; who depending for their necessary Maintenance upon the Good-will and Liking of their Hearers, have been, and are thereby under Temptation of too much complying and suiting their Doctrines and Teaching to the Humours rather than the Good of their Hearers, which hath been a great Occasion of Faction and Schism, and Contempt of the Ministry: And forasmuch as your Majesty, taking into your princely and serious Consideration the mean and insufficient Maintenance belonging to the Clergy in divers Parts of this your Kingdom, has been most graciously pleased, out of your most religious and tender Concern for the Church of England (whereof your Majesty is the only supreme Head on Earth) and for the poor Clergy thereof, not only to remit the Arrears of your Tenths due from your poor Clergy, but also to declare unto your most dutiful and loyal Commons your royal Pleasure and pious Desire, that the whole Revenue arising from the First Fruits and Tenths of the Clergy might be settled for a perpetual Augmentation of the Maintenance of the said Clergy, in Places where the same is not already sufficiently provided for:’ We your Majesty’s most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of England, in Parliament assembled, to the End that your Majesty’s most gracious Intentions may be made effectual, and that the Church may receive so great and lasting an Advantage from your Majesty’s parting with so great a Branch of your Revenue, towards the better Provision vision for the Clergy not sufficiently provided for; and to the Intent your Majesty's singular Zeal for the Support of the Clergy, and the Honour, Interest, and future Security of the Church, as by Law established, may be perpetuated to all Ages, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by her Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, to incorporate such Persons as her Majesty shall therein nominate or appoint, to be one Body Politick and Corporate, to have a common Seal, and perpetual Succession; and also at her Majesty's Will and Pleasure, by the same, or any other Letters Patents, to grant, limit, or settle, to or upon the said Corporation, and their Successors for ever, all the Revenue of First Fruits, and yearly perpetual Tenths of all Dignities, Offices, Benefices, and Promotions Spiritual whatsoever, to be applied and disposed of, to and for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of such Parsons, Vicars, Curates, and Ministers, officiating in any Church or Chapel within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, where the Liturgy and Rites of the Church of England, as now by Law established, are or shall be used and observed, with such lawful Powers, Authorities, Directions, Limitations and Appointments, and under such Rules and Restrictions, and in such Manner and Form, as shall be therein expressed; the Statute made in the first Year of her said Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Support of her Majesty's Household, and of the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, or any other Law to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That all and every the Statutes and Provisions, touching or concerning the ordering, levying, and true answering and Payment, or Qualification of the said First Fruits and Tenths, or touching the Charge, Discharge, or Alteration of them, or any of them, or any Matter or Thing relating thereunto, which were in Force at the Time of making this Act, shall be, remain and continue in their full Force and Effect, and be observed and put in due Execution according to the Tenors and Purports of the same, and every of them, for such Intents and Purposes nevertheless, as shall be contained or directed in or by the said Letters Patents.

III. Provided also, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, shall not extend to avoid, or any way to impeach or affect any Grant, Exchange, Alienation, or Incumbrance, at any Time heretofore made, of or upon the said Revenues of First Fruits and Tenths, or any Part thereof; but that the same shall, during the Continuance of such Grant, Exchange, Alienation, or Incumbrance respectively, be and remain of and in such Force and Virtue, and no other, to all Intents and Purposes, as if this Act had not been made.

IV. And for the Encouragement of such well-disposed Persons as shall, by her Majesty's Royal Example, be moved to contribute to so pious and charitable a Purpose, and that such their Charity may be rightly applied; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons, having in his or their own Right any Estate or Interest in Possession, Reversion, or Contingency, of or in any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or any Property of or in any Goods or Chattels, shall have full Power, Licence and Authority, at his, her and their Will and Pleasure, by Deed inrolled, in such Manner, and within such Time, as is directed by the Statute made in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth, for Inrolment of Bargains and Sales, or by his, her, or their last Will or Testament in writing, duly executed according to Law, to give and grant to, and vest in the said Corporation, and their Successors, all such his, her or their Estate, Interest or Property in such Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, Goods and Chattels, or any Part or Parts thereof, for and towards the Augmentation of the Maintenance of such Ministers as aforesaid, officiating in such Church or Chapel, where the Liturgy and Rites of the said Church are or shall be so used or observed as aforesaid, and having no settled competent Provision belonging to the same, and to be for that Purpose applied according to the Will of the said Benefactor, in and by such Deed inrolled, or by such Will or Testament executed as aforesaid, expressed: And in Default of such Direction, Limitation or Appointment, in such Manner as by her Majesty's Letters Patents shall be directed or appointed as aforesaid. And such Corporation, and their Successors, shall have full Capacity and Ability to purchase, receive, take, hold and enjoy, for the Purposes aforesaid, as well from such Persons as shall be so charitably disposed to give the same, as from all other Persons as shall be willing to sell or aliene to the said Corporation any Manors, Lands, Tenements, Goods or Chattels, without any Licence or Writ of Ad quod Damnum; the Statute of Mortmain, or any other Statute or Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. VI. And whereas four Bonds for four half yearly Payments of the First Fruits, as the same are rated, and also a fifth-Bond for a further Value or Payment, in respect of the same First Fruits, have been required and taken from the Clergy, to their great and unnecessary Burden and Grievance: For Remedy thereof be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and four, one Bond only shall in such Case be given or required for the four Payments of the said First Fruits: Which said First Fruits, as well as the Tenths payable by the Clergy, shall hereafter be answered and paid by them according to such Rates and Proportions only as the same have heretofore been usually rated and paid: And no such fifth Bond already given shall, from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of March in the Year one thousand seven hundred and four, be sued or recovered.

WHEREAS great Sums of Money are paid out of her Majesty's Duties upon Salt, on account of Debentures for Salt shipped to be exported to foreign Parts; and it is found by Experience, that great Part of the Salt, for which such Debentures have been paid, hath been fraudulently landed on the Coast of England and Wales, and not exported to any foreign Parts, or having been actually landed in Ireland, or other Places out of England and Wales, have been shipped off again from thence, and fraudulently brought into England or Wales; by which evil Practices her Majesty's said Duties are very much lessened in the Produce thereof, and the Salt Makers, who pay their full Duties, are very much prejudiced and discouraged in their Trade, by reason they cannot sell their Salt in Places which are supplied with Salt run as aforesaid: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That no Salt whatsoever, being of the Produce or Manufacture of England, Wales, Berwick upon Tweed, Scotland, or Ireland, nor any other Salt coming from Ireland, Scotland, or the Isle of Man, shall, after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and four, be imported or brought into any Port or Place within England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, nor be taken out of any Ship or Vessel, nor put on shore within any of the said Ports or Places, upon Pain that all the Salt so imported or brought in, taken out of any Ship or Vessel, or landed or put on shore, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall be forfeited and lost; and that the Ship or Vessel in which any such Salt shall be so imported or brought in, or out of which any such Salt shall be taken or put on shore, together with all her Tackle and Apparel, shall also be forfeited and lost; and every Person that shall take any such Salt out of any such Ship or Vessel, or carry the same on shore, or convey the same from the shore when landed, or be aiding or assisting therein, shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds for every such Offence, or suffer six Months Imprisonment.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the fifth Year of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties certain Rates and Duties upon Salt, and upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for securing certain Recompences and Advantages, in the said Act mentioned, to such Persons as shall voluntarily advance the Sum of ten hundred thousand Pounds, towards carrying on the War against France; it is amongst other Things enacted, That no Salt shall be delivered from any Salt Works or Pits, without Notice first given to the Officer appointed for that Purpose, upon Pain of Forfeiture of the Salt so delivered, and upon Pain of twenty Pounds to be forfeited by the Owner or Owners of the Salt Works or Pits, where such Salt shall be delivered: And whereas several Salt Makers have been, and others may be, subjected to the said Penalties of twenty Pounds, by the evil Practices of Salt Carriers, and others, who convey Salt from the Salt Works without a Warrant or Permit for conveying the same; For preventing whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and four, as well the Carrier, or Person who shall carry or convey any Salt without a Warrant or Permit for carrying the same, as the Proprietor of the Salt Works, who shall deliver Salt without Notice first given, shall forfeit the said Sum of twenty Pounds.

IX. And whereas in and by the said Act of Parliament made in the fifth Year of the Reign of the late King WILLIAM and Queen MARY, and by several other Acts relating to the said Duties upon Salt; it is amongst other Things provided, That any Person, who shall export beyond the Seas any Salt, as well foreign as English, or any Rock Salt, shall, upon a Debenture made out according to the Direction of the said Acts, be repaid the Duties of such Salt so exported: And whereas some Doubts and Controversies have been made, whether Salt shipped and exported to Scotland, the Isle of Man, or the Islands of Jersey and Guernsey, be an Exportation of Salt within the Intent and Meaning of the said Acts, so as to intitle the Exporter to a Drawback of the Duties of the Salt so exported: For preventing of all such Controversies and Disputes, be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That it was and is the Intent and Meaning of the said Acts, that any Person exporting any Salt to Scotland, the Isle of Man, or the Islands of Jersey and Guernsey, according to the Directions of the said Acts, is and shall be intitled to a Drawback of the Duties of the Salt so exported, and shall be repaid the same, in such Manner, and under such Conditions, as are directed and required by the said Acts, in case of the Exportation of Salt to any other foreign Parts; any thing in the said Acts or any other Law or Statute to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Provided always, and it is further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Salt or Rock Salt (the Duties whereof shall have been paid or secured to be paid, according to the Direction of the former Laws, relating to the said Duties on Salt) shall from and after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and four, be shipped or laid on board any Ship or Vessel, in any Port, River, or Place within this Kingdom of England, or the Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in order to be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, or be carried Coastwise; and the said Salt or Rock Salt, so shipped or laid on board, shall happen to perish by the sinking of the Ship or Vessel, on which the same shall be shipped or laid on board, before the said Ship or Vessel shall go out of such Port or Place, and before the Exporter of such Salt shall be intitled to a Drawback or Allowance of the Duties thereof; then and in such Case the Exporter or Proprietor of the said Salt or Rock Salt, so perished, shall, upon Proof made before the Justices of the Peace, at the next General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, to be held for the County, City, Riding, Division, or Place next to the Place where the said Salt or Rock Salt shall so perish, of the Loss of the Salt or Rock Salt so shipped, receive from the said Sessions a Certificate, that such Proof was made before them, and upon producing the said Certificate to any of her Majesty's Collectors or Officers appointed to collect the said Duties on Salt, the said Collectors and Officers are hereby required to let the said Exporter or Proprietor buy the like Quantity of Salt or Rock Salt, as is expressed in the said Certificate to be so perished, without paying to her Majesty any Duty of Excise for the same, in the same Manner as if such Salt or Rock Salt had so perished going Coastwise from one Port of England to another.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time be sued or prosecuted for any thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, he or they shall or may plead the General Issue, and give this Act in Evidence for his Defence; and if upon a Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs be nonsuit, discontinued, or forbear prosecuting the said Actions, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have double Costs to him.

him or them awarded against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, for which Costs he shall have such Remedy, as in other Cases where Costs are by Law given to Defendants.

XII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the several Penalties and Forfeitures, hereby given and imposed, shall be recovered and levied by the same Ways, Means and Methods, as any Penalties and Forfeitures can or may be recovered and levied by any of the Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, nor any more than one Imparllance shall be allowed; and that the said Penalties and Forfeitures shall be distributed in manner following (to wit) one Moiety thereof to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that will sue or inform for the same.

Penalties and Forfeitures how to be recovered.

XIII. And whereas it is found by Experience, that great Quantities of Fish, which have been cured at Sea, or in Ireland, or other Parts not within England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, with Salt, for which the Duties have not been answered and paid, have been imported or brought into England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, by which Practice her Majesty, and the English Fishery, are very much prejudiced: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and four, no Herrings, Pilchards, Scads, Codfish, Ling, Hake, Salmon, or dried red Sprats whatsoever, or by whomsoever caught or cured, shall be imported, brought in, or landed within England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, unless the Owner or Proprietor of such Fish, or the Master of the Vessel, shall make Oath before the Officer for the said Duties on Salt, in the Port or Place where such Fish shall be imported, brought in, or landed (who shall administer the same without Fee or Charge) that all the Salt wherewith the said Fish was cured, was laden or put on board from some Part of England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, and when and where the same was so put on board, and that no Drawback or Allowance, or Debenture for the same, hath to his Knowledge or Belief been had or obtained upon the Exportation or carrying out of the said Salt, or any Part thereof, or is intended to be had or obtained on account of such Exportation; upon Pain of forfeiting such Fish that shall be imported, brought in, or landed contrary to the Intent and Meaning hereof, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof.

No Herrings, Pilchards, Scads, Codfish, Ling, Hake, Salmon, &c. shall be imported or landed, unless Oath be made, that the Salt wherewith such Fish was cured, was laden from England, &c. and no Drawback allowed on Exportation, &c. Penalty.

XIV. Provided, That nothing in this Act shall extend to prohibit the importing and landing any Codfish, Ling, or Hake, which have been caught and cured at Newfoundland or Island, so as Oath be first made before the landing thereof by the Owner or Proprietor of such Fish, or the Master of the Vessel, before the Officer for the said Duties, in the Port or Place where such Fish shall be imported, brought in, or landed (who shall administer the same without Fee or Charge) that all the Fish so imported came from Newfoundland or Island, and were caught and cured there, and so as the said Fish be at the landing thereof, and before the same be removed from the Shore, tendered to the Officer of the Port for the said Duties, to have Part of the Tail of every such Codfish, Ling, or Hake cut off, that no Allowance for such Fish be obtained upon Exportation; and the said Officer is hereby empowered and required to cut off Part of the Tail of all such Fish on the Importation thereof: And in case any such Fish shall be landed before the same shall be tendered to the Officer, to have Part of the Tail cut as aforesaid, all the Fish, so imported and landed, shall be forfeited, and double the Value thereof, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof; to wit, one Moiety thereof to the Queen, the other Moiety thereof to him or them who shall prosecute or sue for the same.

Newfoundland or Island Fish, excepted.

Part of the Tail of such Fish to be cut off. Penalty on landing the same before Tender thereof made.

Provision is made by 4 Anne, c. 12. §. 12. for Codfish, &c. imported from the North Sea.

XV. And whereas the Proprietors who have given Securities at their Works or Pits for the Duty of Salt or Rock Salt bought of them, do often suffer Damage by Frauds committed in the Exportation without their Privy: For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Salt or Rock Salt shall, after the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and four, be entred, and Security shall be given for the Duties, and certified to the Officer, according to the former Laws relating to the Duties on Salt, no such Salt or Rock Salt shall afterwards be entred for Exportation by any Person or Persons, not bound in the Security first given as aforesaid, until such Person or Persons, so exporting such Salt or Rock Salt, shall give or find sufficient Security for the Duties thereof (which the Officer for the said Duties at the Port where the same is so entred for Exportation is hereby required to take); and the same Officer shall deliver gratis, and without delay, a Certificate of such new Security taken, and upon producing such Certificate to the Officer of the Place where the Duty of the said Salt, was first secured to be paid, such first Security shall be discharged.

Where Salt is entred, and the Duties secured, no such Salt shall afterwards be entred for Exportation by any Person not bound in the first Security, till Security given for the Duties, &c.

XVI. And whereas by several Leases, Grants, or Contracts, made before the sixth Day of November one thousand six hundred ninety-three, certain Rents payable in Salt were reserved, granted, or agreed to be paid out of or for divers Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments; and it is evident that the imposing the present Duties on Salt, since the making the said Leases, Grants, or Contracts, doth in Effect increase the said Rents, and make them more burdensome to the Persons liable thereunto; it is therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That when the Owners, Proprietors, and Tenants of such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, so charged by any Leases, Grants, or Contracts, made before the Time aforesaid, do from and after the five and twentieth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and three, pay or deliver any such Rent in Salt, the Person or Persons, who shall receive the same, shall be obliged by this Act to pay to him or them, who shall make such Payments of Salt in kind, so much Money as the Duty and Duties paid or payable to her Majesty for the same Salt, by any Act or Acts of Parliament made since the said sixth Day of November one thousand six hundred ninety-three, do amount unto.

XII. And whereas by the Acts made in the twelfth and five and twentieth Years of the Reign of his late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, the former intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation, and the latter, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Greenland and East-land Trade, and for the better securing the Plantation Trade, certain Commodities therein enumerated, of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of any of the English Plantations in America, Asia, or Africa, are obliged to be imported into this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or to some other of the said Plantations, under the Securities and Penalties in the said Acts particularly mentioned, to the end this Kingdom might be made a Staple, not only of the Commodities of those Plantations, but also of the Commodities of other Countries, for supplying them; since the making of which Laws several Commodities, which are not in the said Acts particularly enumerated, such as Rice and Melasses, are produced and made in the said Plantations, and carried to divers foreign Markets in Europe, without being first brought into this Kingdom, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the aforesaid Laws, to the great Prejudice of the Trade of this Kingdom, and the lessening the Correspondence and Relation between this Kingdom and the aforesaid Plantations: For the Prevention whereof for the future, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and five, all Rice and Melasses shall be under the like Securities and Penalties restrained to be imported into this Kingdom, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick aforesaid, as by the fore-recited Acts, or either of them, is provided for the Goods therein particularly enumerated.

XIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, or any other Act of Parliament passed this Session, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to charge the Cargo, or any of the Goods or Merchandizes in the Ship called the Hern Frigate, William Morris Master thereof (which came from the West Indies, and was chased into Limerick in Ireland by a French Privateer, in the Month of July last, and was forced to lie there until lately, for want of a Convoy, so that she could not arrive at Plymouth until the sixth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and four) with any of the new Duties laid upon any of the said Goods and Merchandizes, to commence from the first Day of February one thousand seven hundred and four; any thing in this, or in any other Act of Parliament passed this Session, contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XIV. And whereas Raymond Roodey, late of the City of Chester, Merchant, became indebted to his late Majesty King William, of glorious Memory, in several Sums of Money, for Customs, Impositions, and other Duties upon Goods imported, and entred into several Bonds to his said Majesty, with Sureties, for Payment of the same; And whereas the said Raymond Roodey is since dead, and his Effects not visibie in England, ‘ England, and his Sureties have failed in their Credit, and are not able to pay the full Sums for which they so stand respectively engaged, but may by the Assistance of Friends, pay some Part of the said Debts to her Majesty, in case a Composition be made with them for the same;’ Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of her Majesty’s Treasury for the Time being, or any three or more of them, at any Time before the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and six, to make such Composition or Agreement, as to him or them shall seem reasonable, with the respective Sureties of the said Raymond Roodey, their Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, for such Debts as aforesaid; and, upon Payment of the Money so compounded for, to cause the said Sureties, their Heirs, Executors, and Administrators respectively, to be discharged of and from the said Bonds; but that the said Raymond Roodey, his Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, and every of them, shall stand charged, and be liable to the Payment of the Money due upon the said Bonds; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

C A P. VI.

An Act for the better enabling her Majesty to grant the Honor and Manor of Woodstock, with the Hundred of Wootton, to the Duke of Marlborough and his Heirs, in Consideration of the eminent Services by him performed to her Majesty and the Publick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

‘ W H E R E A S the eminent and unparalleled Services performed to your Majesty and the Crown of England, by the most noble John Duke of Marlborough, are well known, not only to your Majesty, and to all your Subjects, but to all Europe, who will always remember, That the Alliances which your Majesty’s Royal Brother King WILLIAM the Third, of glorious Memory, had, in a little Time before his Death, contracted by the Ministry of the said Duke of Marlborough, as his Majesty’s Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the States General of the United Provinces, for preserving the Liberties of Europe, against the Ambition of France, were immediately after your Majesty’s happy Accession to the Throne, by the said Duke, then employed by your Majesty in the same Character, confirmed and improved, and others were contracted, whereby the Confederacy, which had been dissolved at the End of the last War, was re-united in a stricter and firmer League: And that in the first Year of your Majesty’s Reign, the said Duke of Marlborough did so well execute the Commission and Orders which he received from your Majesty, as Captain General and Commander in Chief of your Majesty’s Forces, that he not only secured and extended the Frontier of Holland, by taking the Towns and Fortresses of Venlo, Ruremond, Stevensweart, and Liege, but soon obliged the Enemy (who had been at the Gates of Nemighen) to seek Shelter behind their Lines; and the next Campaign, by taking Bon, Huy, and Limbourg, added all the Country between the Rhine and the Maes to the Conquest of the preceding Year: And that in the memorable Year one thousand seven hundred and four, when your Majesty was generously pleased to take the Resolution of rescuing the Empire from that immediate Ruin, to which, by the Defection of the Elector of Bavaria, it was exposed, the Measures, which by your Majesty’s Wisdom and Goodness had been devised and concerted, were pursued by the said Duke with the utmost Diligence, Secrecy, and good Conduct, in leading the Forces of your Majesty, and your Allies, by a long and difficult March, to the Banks of the Danube, where the said Duke did immediately upon his Arrival, attack and force the Bavarians (assisted by the French) in their strong Intrenchments at Schellenberg, passed the Danube, distressed the Country of Bavaria, and a second Time fought the Enemies, who had been reinforced by a Royal Army of the French King’s best Troops, commanded by a Marshal of France; and on the second Day of August one thousand seven hundred and four, after a bloody Battle, at or near Blenheim (although the Enemies had the Advantages of Number and Situation) did gain as absolute and glorious a Victory, as is recorded in the History of any Age; by which Bavaria being entirely reduced, Ratisbon, Augsbourg, Ulm, Memmingen, and other Imperial Towns recovered, the Liberty of the Diet and the Peace of the Empire was restored, and Landau, Treves, and Traerbach, being taken, the War is carried into the Dominions of France: And forasmuch as the happy Achievements of the said Duke, having apparently tended not only to the Honour and Safety of your Majesty, and your Subjects, and of their Posterity, but also towards the future Tranquillity of Europe; your Majesty’s most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament assembled, thought themselves obliged, in an humble Address to your Majesty, not only to express their great Sense of the said glorious Victories, but also humbly to desire your Majesty, that you would be graciously pleased to consider of some proper Means to perpetuate the Memory of such signal Services: And your Majesty having been thereupon pleased to signify your Intention to grant the Interest of the Crown in the Honor and Manor of Woodstock and the Hundred of Wootton, to the said Duke and his Heirs; your Majesty’s said dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament assembled, duly considering the good and prudent Provision made by your Majesty, by an Act of Parliament in the first Year of our Reign, for preserving the Inheritance of several Revenues of the Crown, and believing that the Settlement of the said Honor, Manor, and Hundred, on the said Duke and his Heirs, can make no Precedent for Cases where there is or shall be less Merit, do most humbly, cheerfully, and unanimously beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the

VII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the said first Day of May, if any Person doth accept any such Bill of Exchange for and in Satisfaction of any former Debt, or Sum of Money formerly due unto him, the same shall be accounted and esteemed a full and compleat Payment of such Debt, if such Person, accepting of any such Bill for his Debt, doth not take his due Course to obtain Payment thereof, by endeavouring to get the same accepted and paid, and make his Protest as aforesaid, either for Non-acceptance, or Non-payment thereof.

VIII. Provided, That nothing herein contained shall extend to discharge any Remedy, that any Person may have against the Drawer, Acceptor or Indorser of such Bill.

‘ M A Y it please your most Excellent Majesty, Whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of your Majesty’s late Royal Brother King WILLIAM the Third, of glorious Memory, (intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty several Duties upon Low Wines, or Spirits of the first Extraction, and continuing several additional Duties upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Spices, and Pictures, and certain Impositions upon Hawkers, Pedlars, and Petty Chapmen, and the Duty of fifteen per Centum upon Muslins, and for improving the Duties upon japanned and lacquered Goods, and for continuing the Coinage Duty for the several Terms and Purposes therein mentioned) certain Duties upon Low Wines, or Spirits of the first Extraction, were granted for a Term to continue until the five and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and six; and by another Act made in the third Year of your Majesty’s Reign, (intituled, An Act for continuing Duties upon Low Wines, and upon Coffee, Tea, Chocolate, Spices, and Pictures, and upon Hawkers, Pedlars, and Petty Chapmen, and upon Muslins, and for granting new Duties upon several of the said Commodities, and also upon Callicoes, China Ware and Drugs) the said Duties upon Low Wines, or Spirits of the first Extraction, are continued from the twenty-fourth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and six, until the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ten, as by the said several Acts may appear:’ Now we your Majesty’s dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament assembled, have given and granted, and do by this Act give and grant to your Majesty the several Duties herein after mentioned, over and above all Duties already granted upon Low Wines or Spirits of the first Extraction; and do humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted: And be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all and every such or the like Duties for or upon all Low Wines 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 11.

Persons having

(other than in Fins only) found in their Custody after the 24 Day of March 1705, to forfeit 30l.

VI. And whereas, by an Act of Parliament made in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, (intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty a farther Subsidy of Tunnage and Poundage, towards raising the yearly Sum of seven hundred thousand Pounds for the Service of his Majesty's Household, and other Uses therein mentioned, during his Majesty's Life) it is enacted, That if any Person or Persons, Natives or Foreigners, Bodies Politick or Corporate, shall import or bring into this Kingdom, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, any cut Whalebone, (other than in Fins only) he, she, or they shall forfeit the Goods, and double the Value of the cut Whalebone so imported; one Moiety thereof to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and one other Moiety to him or them that shall seize or sue for the same, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record; yet it is found by Practice and Experience, that the said Penalty is not sufficient to deter ill-designing Persons from continuing fraudulently to import great Quantities of Foreign cut Whalebone in short Lengths and small Parcels, in Diminution of her Majesty's Revenue, and to the great Loss and Discouragement of the Manufactures employed in cutting of Fin Whalebone in this Kingdom; Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said four and twentieth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and five, any Per-Person or Persons whatsoever, trading or dealing in Whalebone, having in his, her, or their Custody, any such Foreign cut Whalebone, (other than in Fins regularly imported) shall forfeit the Sum of thirty Pounds, and also be subject to the like Penalties and forfeitures as the Importers thereof, by the aforesaid recited Act are liable unto; and also that the Masters of such Ships and Vessels, knowingly bringing or importing any foreign cut Whale-fins or Whalebone, as aforesaid, shall forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds; one Moiety of the aforesaid Penalties to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons as shall seize and sue for the same, in any of her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparance shall be allowed; and if any Dispute, Question, or Doubt shall arise, whether any cut Whalebone found, seized, or received, as aforesaid, were cut in Parts beyond the Seas, the Proof shall be incumbent only upon the Importer, Claimer, Owner, Proprietor, or such Person or Persons, in whose Hands or Custody such cut Whalebone shall be found respectively, and not upon the Seizer, Informer, or Prosecutor; any thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

VII. And whereas several Persons have, (since the double Duties upon stamp Vellum, Paper, and Parchment commenced) been admitted to their Freedoms in divers Corporations, and such their Admissions have merely by Mistake or Misconstruction been entred upon Paper or Parchment stamp for a less Duty than ought to have been paid for the same: And whereas in other Cases several Persons Freedoms have been admitted, and their Admission entred upon Paper or Parchment without any Stamp at all, or any Thing paid or received for the same: And whereas divers other Persons, Clerks, Stewards, or Bailiffs, keeping or holding inferior Courts of Record, County Courts, Courts Baron, and Courts Leet, have through the like Mistake or Misconstruction of the Laws as aforesaid, omitted the issuing, entring, inrolling, or filing of divers Actions, Plaints, Bails, Appearances, and other Process and Proceedings upon double stamp Vellum, Paper, or Parchment; Wherefore for quieting the Minds of so many of her Majesty's good Subjects; be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every the said Free-men so admitted, and all and every the said Clerks, Stewards, and Bailiffs, and all other Person and Persons so concerned and forfeiting, as aforesaid, shall be, and they hereby are freed and discharged of and from all and every the Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures not already recovered, and by them respectively incurred, for or in Respect of the Premises before the first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and five; provided that such Person or Persons forfeiting, as aforesaid, pay or cause to be paid, the several Duties directed to be paid, by the several Acts for granting Duties upon stamp Vellum, Paper, and Parchment, to the Receiver General of the Stamp Duties, before the nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and six; and in Default thereof, such Persons respectively shall lose the Benefit of the Indemnity granted by this Act.

discharged from the Penalties, &c. on paying Duties before the 29 of Sept. 1706.

VIII. Provided also, That the Admissions of all such Freemen, as were admitted into any Corporation or Company, before the said first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and five, and all the said other Proceedings before that Time had, shall be good and valid in Law, notwithstanding any Neglect or Omission before that Time, with Relation to the said Stamp Duties; and that all Penalties and Forfeitures for any Offence committed, as aforesaid, which shall not be discharged by paying such Duties before the said nine and twentieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and six, shall and may be sued for, prosecuted and recovered, so as the Prosecution be commenced at any Time within one Year after the said nine and twentieth Day of September.

IX. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That the Duties made payable by the said Acts, relating to stamp Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, for or in Respect of Appearances, and other the Matters in the said Acts, or any of them contained, relating thereto, shall be construed to extend to Appearances in such Actions wherein no Bail is filed, or put in, and not otherwise; any thing in the said Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

How Duties on Appearances shall be construed to extend.

X. And whereas by several Acts of Parliament, relating to the Duties on Marriages, Births, and Burials, all Parsons, Vicars, Curates, and other Ecclesiastical Persons, are required to take an exact and true Account, and keep a Register in Writing of all and every Person or Persons, married, buried, christened, or born, in his or their respective Parishes or Precincts; and likewise in the same Registers, together with the Name of every Person so married, buried, christened, or born, to set down and express in Writing the respective Degree, Condition, and Quality, according to which the Duty to the Crown ought to be paid: And in Case of Burials, the Heirs, Executors, Administrators, Fathers, Mothers, Guardians, Church-wardens, or others, who by the said Acts ought to pay for the same, and where they dwell respectively: And in Case of Births, the Names of the Fathers, Mothers, or those that take on them the Guardianship, or Care of such Children so born, and where they live respectively: And in case of Marriages, the Place of Abode of the several Husbands, under the Penalty of one hundred Pounds for some of the said Omissions, and other great Penalties for the rest: And whereas several Parsons, Vicars, and Curates, and other Ecclesiastical Persons, not being sufficiently apprized of the full Import of the said Acts of Parliament, have not exactly observed the Directions therein, as aforesaid, given, and thereby incurred the Penalties in the said Acts respectively mentioned, and they and their Families remain therefore exposed to Ruin, although the said Duties have been duly answered to her Majesty: Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons in Holy Orders, Parson, Vicar, and Curate, and his and their Substitute, having neglected to keep a Register in Writing, as aforesaid, of all and every, or any Person or Persons so married, buried, christened, or born, as aforesaid, or to set down and express, together with the Name of such Person so married, buried, christened, or born, the respective Degree, Condition, or Quality, according to which the said late King's, or her present Majesty's Duties ought to be paid, or the Name or Place of Abode of any

Sec. 1 Annæ,
Stat. 1. c. 21.

XI. And whereas by an Act made in the first Year of her present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds in the Duties upon Salt, and for the better Payment of Debentures at the Custom House, it is enacted, That no Debenture shall be made or granted, or Drawback allowed to be paid for or upon the Account of the Exportation of any Salt or Rock Salt for Ireland, unless the Exporter of the said Salt or Rock Salt shall produce to the Officer appointed to make such Debenture, a Certificate under the Hand of the Collector of the Customs of the Port in Ireland, where such Salt or Rock Salt shall be landed, or the Person executing his Office, of the particular Quantity of Salt or Rock Salt actually landed: And whereas 'tis equally reasonable, That for Salt and Rock Salt shipped in order for Exportation for Ireland, though the same perish by sinking of the Ship, or be taken by the Enemies, there should be made and allowed a Drawback as in the Case where Salt and Rock Salt is exported and landed;

Drawbacks &c.

Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Salt or Rock Salt hath been or shall be shipped in order for Exportation to Ireland, and the same hath perished or shall perish by sinking of the Ship or Vessel on which the same was or shall be shipped, and laid on board, or is or shall be taken by the Enemies, then and in such Case the Exporter or Proprietor of such Salt or Rock Salt so perishing or lost, shall upon Proof made before the Justices of the Peace, at the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace, to be held for the County, City, Riding, Division or Place from whence the same was so exported, of the loss of such Salt so shipped, or to be shipped, receive from the said Sessions a Certificate, that such Proof was made before them, and upon producing the said Certificate to the Officer of the Place where the Duty on such Salt shall have been paid or secured to be paid, such Security shall be discharged, and so much Money as was actually paid for the Duty of the said Salt, shall be repaid upon Demand by the said Officer, without Fee or Reward. Provided such Proof to be made, as aforesaid, as to all Salt lost or taken, before the twentieth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and five, shall be made by two credible Witnesses upon Oath, before the twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and six; and as to all Salt which shall be lost after the said twentieth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and five, the like Proof shall be made within six Months after such Loss or Taking, as aforesaid.

Proof to be made within 6 Months.

2 & 3 Annæ,
c. 14.

XII. And whereas in and by one Act of Parliament made in the second and third Year of the Reign of her present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the better securing and regulating the Duties upon Salt, it is amongst other Things provided, That nothing therein contained should extend to prohibit the importing and landing any Codfish, Ling, or Hake, which had been caught and cured at Newfoundland, or Island, upon making such Oath before the landing, of the catching and curing the same, and upon Tender thereof upon landing, and before the same be removed from the Shore, and under such Penalties for not tending the same, to have Part of the Tail cut off, as in and by the said Act is directed and appointed: And whereas North Sea Codfish, Ling, and Hake, are omitted in the said Act; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing therein contained shall extend to prohibit the importing and landing any Codfish, Ling, or Hake, which have been or shall be caught and cured at or in the North Sea, upon making the like Oath, and being subject to and under the same Restrictions and Penalties, as by the above recited Act is directed and appointed for Codfish, Ling, and Hake, caught and cured at Newfoundland or Island, and that no Allowance be granted, had or obtained upon Exportation thereof; any thing therein contained to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

8 Eliz. c. 13.

Edystone Rock.

WHEREAS in and by one Act of Parliament made in the eighth Year of the Reign of our late Sovereign Lady Queen ELIZABETH, intituled, An Act to enable the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of Trinity House at Deptford Strond, to erect Sea Marks, &c. They the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants are impowered to erect and set up Beacons, Marks, and Signs for the Sea, needful for avoiding the Dangers, and to renew, continue, and maintain the same, in such Manner as in the said Act is mentioned: And whereas there now is, and Time out of Mind hath been, a very dangerous Rock, called the Edystone, lying off of Plymouth in the County of Devon, upon which divers Ships and Vessels have been cast away, and the Lives and Goods of many Subjects of this Kingdom lost and destroyed: And whereas upon Application some Time since made to the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, by great Numbers of Masters and Owners of Shipping, to have a Light House erected upon the said Rock, offering and agreeing, in Consideration of the great Charge, Difficulty, and Hazard of such an Undertaking, to pay to the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, one Penny per Tun outwards, and the like inwards, for all Ships and Vessels which should pass by such Light House (Coasters excepted, who should pay twelve Pence only for each Voyage;) they the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, having a due Regard to the Safety and Preservation of the Shipping and Navigation of this Kingdom, did in the Year of our Lord one thousand six hundred ninety-six, cause a Light House to be begun to be erected on the said Rock, and in three Years Time a Light was placed therein; and the said Light House in the Term of five Years was, with much Hazard and Difficulty, and a very great Expence, fully built and compleated, to the great Satisfaction of the Flag Officers and Commanders of the Fleet and Ships of War, and of all others concerned in Trade and Navigation, the same being not only useful for avoiding that dangerous Rock upon which it was built, but also a Guide and Direction to Ships passing through the Channel from and to all Parts of the World: And whereas the said Light House was preserved and kept up for several Years, notwithstanding the great Force and Violence of the Wind and Sea, (to which it was exposed) until the late dreadful Storm in November one thousand seven hundred and three, when the same was blown down and destroyed: And whereas it was found by Experience, That the said Light House (during the standing thereof) was of publick Use and Benefit to this Kingdom, a Means to preserve her Majesty's Ships of War, and the Shipping, Lives, and Estates of her Subjects, and was useful and beneficial to Navigation; and forasmuch as the speedy rebuilding of the said Light House is absolutely necessary for avoiding the Dangers attending the Navigation and Trade of this Kingdom, and in Regard the same is a Work of great Charge, Hazard, and Expence, and all due and proper Encouragement ought to be given thereunto; to the end therefore that the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, may be encouraged to new erect and build, or cause to be new erected and built, the said Light House, with all convenient Speed, and constantly to keep and maintain the same for the Benefit of the Navigation and Trade of this Kingdom; Be it enacted, &c.

C A P. IV.

An Act for settling upon John Duke of Marlborough and his Posterity, a Pension of five thousand Pounds per Annum, for the more honourable Support of their Dignities, in like Manner as his Honors and Dignities, and the Honor and Manor of Woodstock, and House of Bleinheim, are already limited and settled.

MOST gracious Sovereign, Whereas the most noble John Duke of Marlborough, was by several Letters Patents, created Baron Churchill of Sandridge, and Earl of Marlborough, to him and the Heirs Males of his Body: And by other Letters Patents, bearing Date the fourteenth Day of December in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign, in Consideration of his great and eminent Services to your Majesty and your Allies, as well by his prudent Negotiations as your Majesty's Plenipotentiary at the Hague, where to the mutual Advantage of your Majesty and the States General of the United Provinces, he settled an intire Confidence between your Majesty and the States General, as by his Valour and good Conduct in the Command of the Confederate Armies abroad, was created Marquis of Blandford, and Duke of Marlborough, to him and the Heirs Males of his Body: And whereas by other Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, bearing Date the two and twentieth Day of December in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign, your Majesty was graciously pleased, as a further Mark of your royal Favour and Satisfaction with his Services aforesaid, and for the better Support of his said Dignity, to give and grant unto the said John Duke of Marlborough, one Annuity or yearly Pension of five thousand Pounds of lawful English Money, to be issuing and payable out of the Rents, Issues, Profits, Incomes, Revenues, Sum and Sums of Money whatsoever, due and payable, or which should from time to time arise, grow due, or be payable out of, by, or in respect of your Majesty's General Letter Office, Post Office, or Office of Post Master General, or for or by reason of the Postage or Carriage of Letters, Packets, or other things within your Majesty's Kingdom of England, or elsewhere, to have, receive and enjoy the said Annuity or yearly Pension of five thousand Pounds, unto the said John Duke of Marlborough, and the Heirs Males of his Body, for and during your Majesty's natural Life, the same to be computed from the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel then last past, and to be paid quarterly at the four most usual Feasts or Terms in the Year (that is to say) the Feast of the Birth of our Lord Christ, the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary, the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist, and Saint Michael the Archangel, by even and equal Portions: And whereas an Act passed in the third Year of your Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better enabling her Majesty to grant the Honor and Manor of Woodstock, with the Hundred of Wootton, to the Duke of Marlborough and his Heirs, in Consideration of the eminent Services by him performed to her Majesty and the Publick, wherein 'tis mentioned and recited, That the eminent and unparalleled Services of the said Duke to your Majesty and the Crown of England, were well known, not only to your Majesty, and all your Subjects, but to all Europe; and that the Alliances which your Majesty's royal Brother King WILLIAM the Third, of glorious Memory, had, in a little Time before his Death, contracted, by the Ministry of the said Duke, as his Majesty's Ambassa or extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the States General of the United Provinces, for preserving the Liberties of Europe against the Ambition of France, were immediately after your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne, by the said Duke, then employed by your Majesty in the same Character, confirmed and improved, and that others were contracted, whereby the Confederacy, which had been dissolved at the End of the last War, was re-united in a stricter and firmer League; and that in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign, the said Duke of Marlborough had so well executed his Commission of Captain General and Commander in Chief of your Majesty's Forces, that he not only secured and extended the Frontier of Holland, by taking the Towns and Fortresses of Venlo, Ruremond, Steuwart and Liege, but soon obliged the Enemy, (who had been at the Gates of Nemeghen) to seek Shelter behind their Lines; and in the next Campaign, by taking Bon, Huy, and Limburg, added all the Country between the Rhine and the Maes to the Conquests of the preceding Year; and that in the memorable Year one thousand seven hundred and four, when your Majesty was generously pleased to take the Resolution of rescuing the Empire from that immediate Ruin, to which, by the Defection of the Elector of Bavaria, it was exposed, the Measures, which by your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness had been devised and concerted, were pursued by the said Duke with the utmost Diligence, Secrecy, and good Conduct, in leading the Forces of your Majesty and your Allies, by a long and difficult March, to the Banks of the Danube; where the said Duke immediately upon his Arrival did attack and force the Bavarians, (assisted by the French) in their strong Intrenchments at Schellenbergh, passed the Danube, distressed the Country of Bavaria, and a second Time fought the Enemy, who had been reinforced by a Royal Army of the French King's best Troops, commanded by a Marshal of France, and on the second Day of August one thousand seven hundred and four, after a bloody Battle at Bleinheim, (although the Enemy had the Advantage of Number and Situation) gain'd the most absolute and glorious Victory as had been recorded in the History of any Age, by which Bavaria being intirely reduced, and Ratisbon, Augsbourg, Ulm, Memmingen, and other Imperial Towns recovered, the Liberty of the Diet and the Peace of the Empire were restored, and Landau, Treves, and Traarbach being taken, the War was carried into the Dominions of France; all which happy Achievements of the said Duke apparently tended, not only to the Honour and Safety of your Majesty and your Subjects, and of their Posterity, but also towards the future Tranquillity of Europe; and that your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament assembled, thought themselves thereupon obliged in an humble Address to your Majesty, to express their Sense of the said glorious Victories, and humbly to desire your Majesty, That you would be graciously pleased to consider of some proper Means to perpetuate the Memory of such signal Services; and that your Majesty was thereupon pleased to signify your Intention to grant the Interest of the Crown in the Honour and Manor of Woodstock and Hundred of Wootton to the said Duke and his Heirs; whereupon at the humble Petition of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Commons, it was enacted, That it should and might be lawful to and for your Majesty by any Letters Patents, under the Great Seal of England, to give and grant unto the said John Duke of Marlborough, and his Heirs and Assigns for ever, all that the said Honour and Manor of Woodstock, and the Hundred of Wootton, and the Park of Woodstock in the County of Oxon, and divers other Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in the said recited Act particularly mentioned or described; to be held of your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, as of your Castle of Windsor, in free and common Soccage, by Fealty, rendring to your Majesty, your Heirs and Successors, on the second Day of August yearly for ever, at your said Castle of Windsor, one Standard or Colours with three Flower de Lucies painted thereupon, for all Manner of Rents, Services, Exactions, and Demands whatsoever: In pursuance of which said Act of Parliament, your Majesty by your Letters Patents, bearing Date the fifth Day of May in the fourth Year of your Majesty's Reign, was graciously pleased to grant all that the said Honour and Manor of Woodstock and Hundred of Wootton, and divers other Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in the said Letters Patents particularly mentioned, or described, to the said Duke of Marlborough, his Heirs and Assigns for ever: And whereas in the Beginning of the Year one thousand seven hundred and five, the said Duke of Marlborough led your Majesty's Forces, and those of the Allies, to the Moselle, where, by the Progress made in the preceding Year, a fair Prospect was afforded of removing the War from the Countries of your Allies, into the Enemy's own Territories, but that great Design, through unforeseen Accidents, was rendred impracticable; and the Enemy taking Advantage of the Remoteness of our said General, and the Troops under his Command, press'd the Armies of the States General, which were left for the Defence of their Frontiers, with a superior Force: On this extraordinary Occasion, the Duke shew'd all the Parts of a great Captain, and at the same Time the Zeal he had for your Majesty's Service, and true Regard to your Allies; by a speedy March he returned to the Maes, where a new Face of Affairs immediately appeared, and your Majesty's good Allies the States General were delivered from the Uneasiness they were under, Leige was relieved, Huy retaken, and the Enemies obliged to retire behind their Lines, which they thought impregnable: But the said Duke, with a surprizing Conduct and Bravery, on the seventh Day of July one thousand seven hundred and five, with an inconsiderable Loss, forced the same, defeated great Part of the Enemy's Forces, and obliged their whole Army to a precipitate Retreat; and although all the Advantages were not obtained which the Duke had propos'd to himself from that Success, yet it confirmed the Minds of your Majesty's Allies, and produced that happy Consequence of the Duke's being intrusted with such a Power, as gave him an Opportunity of performing those great Actions, which were executed in the last glorious Campaign; in which the Enemy confiding in the Superiority of their Army, compos'd of their choicest Troops, gave the Duke of Marlborough an Opportunity of attacking them, which he did at Ramellies, on the twelfth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and six, with such Resolution and Conduct, that in two Hours Time he obtained a most compleat and glorious Victory, and prosecuted his Advantage without any Intermision during the whole Campaign: The Battle of Ramellies was followed by the immediate Surrender of Louvain, Brussels, Malines, Liere, Gant, Oudenard, Antwerp, Dam, Bruges, and Courtray, and the taking of Ostend, Menin, Dendermond, and

and Aeth; most of which Places had heretofore employed the greatest Generals whole Campaigns in their Sieges: And thus almost the entire Spanish Netherlands, which had been contended for so many Ages, were conquered in one Summer: And whereas by an Act passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the settling of the Honours and Dignities of John Duke of Marlborough upon his Posterity, and annexing the Honour and Manor of Woodstock, and House of Bleinheim, to go along with the said Honours, it was for perpetuating the Memory of the several great Actions performed by the said Duke, and for settling and continuing the above mentioned several Titles and Honours, and the Right of Precedence, in his Posterity, amongst divers other Things therein contained, enacted, That in Default of Heirs Males of the Body of the said Duke of Marlborough issuing, the States, Degree, Stiles, Titles, Dignities, and Honours aforesaid, should continue, remain, be vested in, and should be held and enjoyed by the Lady Harriott, eldest Daughter of the said Duke of Marlborough, and Wife of Francis Godolphin Esquire, Son and Heir Apparent of Sidney Lord Godolphin, Lord High Treasurer of England, and the Heirs Males of her Body begotten; and for Default of such Issue, should continue, remain, be vested in, and held and enjoyed by Anne Countess of Sunderland, second Daughter of the said Duke of Marlborough, and Wife of Charles Earl of Sunderland, and the Heirs Males of her Body begotten; and for Default of such Issue, should continue, remain, be vested in, and held and enjoyed by Elizabeth Countess of Bridgewater, third Daughter of the said Duke of Marlborough, and Wife of Scroape Earl of Bridgewater, and the Heirs Males of her Body begotten; and for Default of such Issue, then to continue, remain, and be vested in, and held and enjoyed by all and every other the Daughter and Daughters of the said Duke of Marlborough to be begotten, severally and successively one after the other, as they shall be in Priority of Birth, and the Heirs Males of their respective Bodies issuing; the elder of such Daughters and the Heirs Males of her Body, to be preferred, and take before the younger of such Daughters, and the Heirs Males of her Body; and for Default of such Issue, then to continue, remain, be vested in, and held and enjoyed by the first Daughter of the Body of the said Lady Harriott Godolphin begotten, and the Heirs Males of the Body of such first Daughter begotten; and for Default of such Issue, then to continue, remain, be vested in, and held and enjoyed by all and every other the Daughter and Daughters of the Body of the said Lady Harriott Godolphin, severally and successively one after the other, as they shall be in Priority of Birth, and the Heirs Males of their respective Bodies issuing; the elder of such Daughters and the Heirs Males of her Body, to be preferred and take before the younger of such Daughters, and the Heirs Males of her Body; and for Default of such Issue, then to continue, remain, be vested in, and held and enjoyed by the first Daughter of the Body of the said Anne Countess of Sunderland begotten, and the Heirs Males of the Body of such first Daughter begotten; and for want of such Issue, then to continue, remain, be vested in, and held and enjoyed by all and every other the Daughter and Daughters of the Body of the said Anne Countess of Sunderland begotten, severally and successively one after the other, as they shall be in Priority of Birth, and the Heirs Males of their respective Bodies issuing; and for want of such Issue, then to continue, remain, be vested in, and held and enjoyed by all and every other the Daughter and Daughters of the Body of the said Elizabeth Countess of Bridgewater begotten, severally and successively one after the other, as they shall be in Priority of Birth, and the Heirs Males of their respective Bodies issuing; the elder of such Daughters, and the Heirs Males of her Body, to be preferred and take before the younger of such Daughters, and the Heirs Males of her Body; and for Default of such Issue, then to continue, remain, be vested in, and held and enjoyed by the first Daughter of the Body of the said Lady Mary Montagu begotten, and the Heirs Males of the Body of such first Daughter begotten; scendants of every elder Issue to be preferred before the younger of such Issue: And to the Intent that the said Honour, Manor, and Park of Woodstock, and the House erecting there, called Bleinheim, and the Hundred of Wootton, and all other the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, which in and by the said Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, bearing Date the said fifth Day of May in the fourth Year of your Majesty's Reign, were by your Majesty, pursuant to the said Act of Parliament passed in the third Year of your Majesty's Reign, granted to the said Duke of Marlborough, and his Heirs, and the Advowsons by the said Letters Patents also granted, might always go along, and be enjoyed with the Titles, Honours, and Dignities as aforesaid, as therein after is mentioned, it was thereby further enacted, That the said Duke of Marlborough should stand and be seized of all the said Honour, Manor, and Park of Woodstock, Manors, House, and Premises, granted by the said last mentioned Letters Patents, during his Life, without Impeachment of Waste; and from and after his Decease, that the same should be and remain unto, and be held and enjoyed by Sarah Dutcheſs of Marlborough, Wife of the said Duke, for and during the Term of her natural Life; and from and after her Decease, the same should be and remain unto, and be held and enjoyed by the Heirs Males of the Body of the said Duke of Marlborough begotten; and for Default of such Issue, that then the same should be and remain unto, and be held and enjoyed by all and every the Daughters of the said Duke of Marlborough, and the Heirs Male of their respective Bodies issuing, and all others severally and successively, in such Manner as the said Titles, Honours and Dignities aforesaid are therein before expressed and limited to go, and be enjoyed: And 'twas thereby provided and enacted, That neither the said Duke of Marlborough, or the Heirs Male of his Body, nor any of his Daughters, or the Heirs Males of their Bodies, or any other Person to whom the Premises should come or descend by Virtue of the Limitations aforesaid, should have any Power, by Fine or Recovery, or any other Act, Assurance, or Conveyance in the Law, to hinder, bar or disinherit any the Person or Persons to or upon whom the said Manors, House, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, or Premises, were thereby vested or limited, from holding or enjoying the same, according to the Limitations in the said Act mentioned (other than and except such Leases as the said Duke and Dutcheſs might make, by Virtue of the Powers therein before mentioned, and such other Leases as Tenants in Tail might and were enabled to make, by Virtue of the Statute made in the two and thirtieth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth, and Grants of Lands or Tenements held by Copy of Court-roll, according to the Customs of the respective Manors aforesaid) but that all such Fines, Recoveries, Act, Assurances, and Conveyances, other than such Leases and Grants by Copy, as aforesaid, should be, and were thereby declared and enacted to be void. And whereas we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Commons, taking into our Consideration the many eminent Services of the said Duke of Marlborough, whereby the Glory of your Majesty's Government, the Honour and Safety of your Kingdoms, and the Interest of the common Cause have been so highly advanced, did with all Submission address ourselves to your Majesty's most sacred Person, humbly to desire, That as your Majesty is, at your Expence, graciously pleased to erect the House of Bleinheim as a Monument of his glorious Actions, and the House of Peers, by your Majesty's Permission, have given Rise to the said Act passed in this present Session for continuing his Honours to his Posterity, we your Majesty's most obedient Commons might be permitted to express our Sense of so distinguishing a Merit, and our ready Disposition to enable your Majesty to make some Provision for the more honourable Support of his Dignities in his Posterity, in such Manner as should be most agreeable to your Majesty, whereby the Gratitude of this whole Kingdom might remain upon Record to After-Ages, and encourage others to follow his great Example; to which Address your Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer, That your Majesty, in Consideration of the great and eminent Services performed by the said Duke in the first Year of your Reign, as well by his prudent Negotiations as your Majesty's Plenipotentiary at the Hague, as by his Valour and good Conduct in the Command of the confederate Armies abroad, thought fit to grant to him and the Heirs Male of his Body, the Title of a Duke of this Realm; and as a further Mark of your Favour and Satisfaction with his Services, and for the better Support of his Dignity, your Majesty had granted to the said Duke and the Heirs Male of his Body, during your Majesty's Life, a Pension of five thousand Pounds per Annum out of the Revenue of the Post Office; and that an Act having passed this Session for settling the Honours and Dignities of the said Duke upon his Posterity, and annexing the Honour and Manor of Woodstock and House of Bleinheim to go along with the said Honours; it would be very agreeable to your Majesty, if the Pension of five thousand Pounds per Annum be continued and limited by Act of Parliament to his Posterity, for the more honourable Support of their Dignities, in like Manner, as his Honours and the Honour and Manor of Woodstock and House of Bleinheim are already limited and settled: We your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament assembled, duly considering your Majesty's most gracious Answer, and also the wise Provision made by your Majesty, through your Majesty's abundant Grace and Goodness to your People, by an Act passed in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign, for preserving the Inheritance of the several Revenues of the Crown, think ourselves obliged to transmit to all succeeding Times the Memory of so many glorious Actions, together with the just Sense of the Kingdom, after what Manner such transcendent Merit ought to be rewarded; And thereupon do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advise and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in lieu of the said Annuity or yearly Pension of five thousand Pounds by the said Letters Patents, bearing Date the two and twentieth Day of December in the first Year of your Majesty's Reign, granted to the said Duke of Marlborough, and the Heirs Males of his Body, during your Majesty's Life as aforesaid, which said Pension is from henceforth forth to cease and determine, one Annuity or yearly Pension of five thousand Pounds of lawful Money of England, shall be issuing and payable out of, and charged and chargeable upon all the Revenues and Monies arising, due and payable, or which shall arise, grow due, or be payable by virtue or in pursuance of an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of her Majesty's Royal Uncle King CHARLES the Second, of blessed Memory, intituled, An Act for erecting and Establishing a Post Office, or by virtue, or in pursuance of any other Act or Acts of Parliament whatsoever, for establishing, vesting, or settling the Revenue of the General Letter Office, or Post Office, or Office of Post Master General in the Crown, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the said Office or Revenue: And the same shall from time to time be paid quarterly, at the four most usual Feasts, or Days of Payment in the Year, (that is to say) the Annunciation of the blessed Virgin Mary, the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist, the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel, and the Feast of the Birth of our Lord Christ, in Manner and Form following, (that is to say) to the said Duke of Marlborough, for and during the Term of his natural Life, and from and after his Decease to Sarah Duchess of Marlborough, Wife of the said Duke, for and during the Term of her natural Life; and from and after her Decease, to the Heirs Male of the Body of the said Duke of Marlborough begotten; and for Default of such Issue, to all and every the Daughters of the said Duke of Marlborough, and the Heirs Male of their respective Bodies issuing, and to all others severally and successively, in such Manner as the said Titles, Honours, and Dignities aforesaid, are by the said Act made in this present Session of Parliament, expressed and limited to go and be enjoyed.

III. And be it hereby further enacted, That the Acquittance or Acquittances of the said Duke, and of every other Person to whom the said Annuity or yearly Pension of five thousand Pounds, after the Decease of the said Duke, shall come, descend, remain, or belong, by virtue of this Act, expressing the Receipt of any Sum or Sums of Money in pursuance of this Act, shall be a good and sufficient Voucher and discharge for the Payment thereof, and every such Payment shall be allowed upon the respective Account and Accounts of the aforesaid Officer and Officers, Person or Persons paying the same, without any further or other Warrant or Authority whatsoever to be had or obtained for that Purpose.

Duke's Acquittance a sufficient Discharge.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That neither the said Duke of Marlborough, or any other Person to whom the said Annuity or yearly Pension of five thousand Pounds hereby enacted to be paid, as aforesaid, shall come, descend, remain, or belong, by virtue of the Limitations aforesaid, shall have Power by any Act, Assurance or Conveyance in the Law whatsoever, to hinder, bar, or disinherit any the Person or Persons, to whom the said Annuity or yearly Pension is by virtue of this Act limited or appointed to come, descend or remain, from holding, enjoying receiving, or taking the same according to the Limitations thereof made by this Act, but that every such Act, Assurance, or Conveyance, shall be, and is hereby declared and enacted to be void.

And for establishing an Equality in Trade, that all Flesh exported from Scotland to England, and put on Board in Scotland to be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, and Provisions for Ships in Scotland, and for foreign Voyages, may be salted with Scots Salt, paying the same Duty for what Salt is so employed as the like Quantity of such Salt pays in England, and under the same Penalties, Forfeitures, and Provisions for preventing of Frauds as are mentioned in the Laws of England; and that from and after the Union, the Laws and Acts of Parliament in Scotland, for pining, curing, and packing of Herrings, white Fish and Salmon for Exportation with foreign Salt only, without any Mixture of British or Irish Salt, and for preventing of Frauds in curing and packing of Fish, be continued in Force in Scotland, subject to such Alterations as shall be made by the Parliament of Great Britain; and that all Fish exported from Scotland to Parts beyond the Seas, which shall be cured with foreign Salt only, and without Mixture of British or Irish Salt, shall have the same Eases, Premiums, and Drawbacks, as are or shall be allowed to such Persons as export the like Fish from England; and that for Encouragement of the Herring Fishing, there shall be allowed and paid to the Subjects, Inhabitants of Great Britain, during the present Allowances for other Fish, ten Shillings five Pence Sterling for every Barrel of White Herrings which shall be exported from Scotland; and that there shall be allowed five Shillings Sterling for every Barrel of Beef or Pork salted with foreign Salt, without Mixture of British or Irish Salt, and exported for Sale from Scotland to Parts beyond Sea, alterable by the Parliament of Great Britain; and if any Matters of Fraud relating to the said Duties on Salt shall hereafter appear, which are not sufficiently provided against by this Article, the same shall be subject to such further Provisions as shall be thought fit by the Parliament of Great Britain.

collected in the same Manner as the Cefs now is in Scotland; but subject to such Regulations in the Manner of collecting, as shall be made by the Parliament of Great Britain.

That during the Continuance of the Duties payable in England on Coals, Culm, and Cynders, which determine the thirtieth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ten, Scotland shall not be charged therewith for Coals, Culm, and Cynders consumed there; but shall be charged with the same Duties as in England for all Coals, Culm, and Cynders not consumed in Scotland.

That the Kingdom of Scotland be not charged with any other Duties laid on by the Parliament of England before the Union, except these consented to in this Treaty; in regard it is agreed, That all necessary Provision shall be made by the Parliament of Scotland for the publick Charge and Service of that Kingdom, for the Year one thousand seven hundred and seven. Provided nevertheless, That if the Parliament of England shall think fit to lay any further Impositions by way of Customs, or such Excises, with which by virtue of this Treaty, Scotland is to be charged equally with England, in such Case Scotland shall be liable to the same Customs and Excises, and have an Equivalent to be settled by the Parliament of Great Britain; with this further Provision, That any Malt to be made and consumed in that Part of the united Kingdom now called Scotland, shall not be charged with any Imposition on Malt, during this present War. ARTICLE XV.

Equivalent. 12 Ann. ft. 2. c. 13. and See 1 Geo. 1. stat. 2. c. 27. & 5 Geo. 1. c. 20. That whereas by the Terms of this Treaty, the Subjects of Scotland, for preserving an Equality of Trade throughout the united Kingdom, will be liable to several Customs and Excises now payable in England, which will be applicable towards Payment of the Debts of England, contracted before the Union; it is agreed, That Scotland shall have an Equivalent for what the Subjects thereof shall be so charged towards Payment of the said Debts of England, in all Particulars whatsoever, in Manner following, viz. That before the Union of the said Kingdoms, the Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand and eighty-five Pounds ten Shillings, be granted to her Majesty by the Parliament of England, for the Uses after mentioned, being the Equivalent to be answered to Scotland for such Parts of the said Customs and Excises upon all exciseable Liquors with which that Kingdom is to be charged upon the Union, as will be applicable to the Payment of the said Debts of England, according to the Proportions which the present Customs in Scotland, being thirty thousand Pounds per Annum, do bear to the Customs in England, computed at one million three hundred forty-one thousand five hundred and fifty-nine Pounds per Annum; and which the present Excises on exciseable Liquors in Scotland, being thirty-three thousand and five hundred Pounds per Annum, do bear to the Excises on exciseable Liquors in England, computed at nine hundred forty-seven thousand six hundred and two Pounds per Annum: Which Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand eighty-five Pounds ten Shillings, shall be due and payable from the Time of the Union. And in regard that after the Union Scotland becoming liable to the same Customs and Duties payable on Import and Export, and to the same Excises on all exciseable Liquors as in England, as well upon that Account, as upon the Account of the Increase of Trade and People, (which will be the happy Consequence of the Union) the said Revenues will much improve beyond the before-mentioned annual Values thereof, of which no present Estimate can be made; yet nevertheless, for the Reasons aforesaid, there ought to be a proportionable Equivalent answered to Scotland; it is agreed, That after the Union there shall be an Account kept of the said Duties arising in Scotland, to the End it may appear what ought to be answered to Scotland as an Equivalent for such Proportion of the said Increase as shall be applicable to the Payment of the Debts of England. And for the further and more effectual answering the several Ends hereafter mentioned, it is agreed, That from and after the Union, the whole Increase of the Revenues of Customs, and Duties on Import and Export, and Excises upon exciseable Liquors in Scotland, over and above the annual Produce of the said respective Duties, as above stated, shall go and be applied, for for the Term of seven Years, to the Uses hereafter mentioned; and that, upon the said Account there shall be answered to Scotland annually from the End of seven Years after the Union, an Equivalent in Proportion to such Part of the said Increase, as shall be applicable to the Debts of England; and generally, that an Equivalent shall be answered to Scotland for such Parts of the English Debts, as Scotland may hereafter become liable to pay by reason of the Union, other than such for which Appropriations have been made by Parliament in England, of the Customs, or other Duties on Export and Import, Excises on all exciseable Liquors, in respect of which Debts, Equivalents are herein before provided. And as for the Uses to which the said Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand eighty-five Pounds ten Shillings, to be granted as aforesaid, and all other Monies which are to be answered or allowed to Scotland as aforesaid, are to be applied, it is agreed, That in the first Place, out of the aforesaid Sum, what Consideration shall be found necessary to be had for any Losses, which private Persons may sustain by reducing the Coin of Scotland to the Standard and Value of the Coin of England, may be made good; in the next Place, that the Capital Stock, or Fund of the African and Indian Company of Scotland advanced, together with Interest for the said Capital Stock, after the Rate of five per Centum per Annum, from the respective Times of the Payment thereof, shall be paid: Upon Payment of which Capital Stock and Interest, it is agreed, the said Company be dissolved and cease, and also, that from the Time of passing the Act of Parliament in England, for raising the said Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand eighty-five Pounds ten Shillings, the said Company shall neither trade, nor grant Licence to trade; providing, that if the said Stock and Interest shall not be paid in twelve Months after the Commencement of the Union, that then the said Company may from thenceforward trade, or give licence to trade, until the said whole Capital Stock and Interest shall be paid. And as to the Overplus of the said Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand eighty-five Pounds ten Shillings, after Payment of what Consideration shall be had for Losses in repairing the Coin, and paying the said Capital Stock and Interest, and also the whole Increase of the said Revenues of Customs, Duties and Excises, above the present Value, which shall arise in Scotland during the said Term of seven Years, together with the Equivalent which shall become due upon the Improvement thereof in Scotland after the said Term; and also, as to all other Sums, which, according to the Agreements aforesaid, may become payable to Scotland by way of Equivalent, for what that Kingdom shall hereafter become liable towards Payment of the Debts of England; it is agreed, That the same be applied in the Manner following, viz. That all the publick Debts of the Kingdom of Scotland, as shall be adjusted by this present Parliament, shall be paid: And that two thousand Pounds per Annum for the Space of seven Years, shall be applied towards encouraging and promoting the Manufacture of coarse Wool within those Shires which produce the Wool; and that the first two thousand Pounds Sterling be paid at Martinmas next, and so yearly at Martinmas, during the Space aforesaid; and afterwards, the same shall be wholly applied towards the encouraging and promoting the Fisheries, and such other Manufactures and Improvements in Scotland, as may most conduce to the general Good of the united Kingdom. And it is agreed, That her Majesty be empowered to appoint Commissioners, who shall be accountable to the Parliament of Great Britain, for disposing the said Sum of three hundred ninety-eight thousand and eighty-five Pounds ten Shillings, and all other Monies which shall arise to Scotland, upon the Agreements aforesaid, to the Purposes before-mentioned: Which Commissioners shall be empowered to call for; receive, and dispose of the said Monies, in Manner aforesaid, and to inspect the Books of the several Collectors of the said Revenues, and of all other Duties, from whence an Equivalent may arise: And that the Collectors and Managers of the said Revenues and Duties be obliged to give to the said Commissioners subscribed authentick Abbreviates of the Produce of such Revenues and Duties arising in their respective Districts: And that the said Commissioners shall have their Office within the Limits of Scotland, and shall in such Office keep Books containing Accounts of the Amount of the Equivalents, and how the same shall have been disposed of from time to time, which may be inspected by any of the Subjects, who shall desire the same.

'I. WHEREAS pursuant to an Act of Parliament made in the second Year of her Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the making more effectual her Majesty's gracious Intentions for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy, by enabling her Majesty to grant in Perpetuity the Revenues of the First Fruits and Tenths, and also for enabling any other Persons to make Grants for the same Purpose; the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by Letters Patent, bearing Date the third Day of November in the third Year of her Majesty's Reign, did make, appoint, nominate, constitute and establish certain Persons and Officers therein named, to be one Body Politick and Corporate, by the Name of The Bounty of Queen Anne, for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the poor Clergy; and did thereby give and grant to the said Governors all the Revenues of First Fruits and yearly perpetual Tenths of all Dignities, Offices, Benefices, and Promotions spiritual whatsoever, payable to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, by virtue of an Act of Parliament made in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of King HENRY the Eighth, or by virtue of an Act of Parliament made in the first Year of the Reign of the late Queen ELIZABETH, for Restitution of First Fruits and Tenths to the Crown, or by virtue of any other Act or Acts of Parliament whatsoever, and all Arrears of the said First Fruits and Tenths then due and undischarged (except as therein is excepted) to be applied and disposed of to and for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of such Parsons, Vicars, Curates, and Ministers, officiating in any Church or Chapel within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, where the Liturgy and Rites of the Church of England, as now by Law established, shall be used and observed, under such Rules, Restrictions and Directions, and in such Manner and Form, as should be established pursuant to those Letters Patents: And whereas it is thought that the Payment of First Fruits and Tenths for small Livings with Cure of Souls, is a very heavy Burden upon the poorer Clergy, for whom her Majesty's unparalleled Bounty was designed; and that the immediate discharging of the said First Fruits and Tenths, and the Arrears thereof, of the said small Livings, will be a present proper Augmentation of the same (several whereof by reason of the said Charges are now held in Sequestration by temporary Curates, without being regularly filled with Institution and Induction) Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Ecclesiastical Benefices with Cure of Souls, not exceeding the clear yearly Value of fifty Pounds by the improved Valuations of the same (the Tenths whereof are by the said recited Charter vested in the said Corporation) and the Incumbents thereof for the time being, and every of them, their respective Heirs, Executors, Administrators, Successors, and Sureties, shall be free and clearly clearly discharged and acquitted for ever of and from the said First Fruits and Tenths, and of and from all Arrears of the same.

II. And for the ascertaining of the clear improved yearly Valuations of the said Ecclesiastical Benefices with Cure of Souls, intended by this Act to be discharged from Payment of First Fruits and Tenths; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the respective Bishops of every Diocese, or the Guardians of the Spiritualities sede Vacante, and the Ordinaries of Peculiars, and Places of exempt Jurisdictions, shall and are hereby impowered and required, as well by Oaths of two or more credible Witnesses (which they or others duly commissioned by them, under their Hands and Seals, are hereby impowered to administer) as by all other lawful Ways and Means, to inform themselves of the clear improved yearly Value of every Benefice with Cure of Souls within their respective Dioceses and Jurisdictions, the clear improved yearly Value whereof doth not exceed fifty Pounds; and on or before the five and twentieth Day of March which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eight, under their respective Hands and Seals, or Seals of their respective Offices, to certify into her Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, the clear improved yearly Value of every such Benefice with Cure of Souls, the clear improved yearly Value whereof doth not exceed fifty Pounds, and such Certificate being made, and filed in the said Court of Exchequer, shall ascertain the clear yearly Value of the Benefice with Cure of Souls, intended by this Act to be discharged from First Fruits and Tenths.

Bishops, &c. before 25 March. 1708, to certify into Exchequer the clear yearly Value of small Benefices with Cure of Souls within their Dioceses, &c.

III. Provided always, and it is hereby declared, That this Act, or any thing herein contained, shall not extend to discharge any Benefices with Cure of Souls, the Tenths whereof were granted away by any of her Majesty's Predecessors to any Person or Persons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, in Perpetuity, before the said third Day of November in the third Year of her Majesty's Reign.

Not to discharge Tenth of Benefices granted for ever.

IV. And whereas the said former Act was intended for the Augmentation of the Maintenance, not only of Parsons and Vicars, but also of Curates, and other Ministers officiating in Churches or Chapels, as is therein mentioned; now for the preventing all Doubts touching the Capacity of such Ministers to take any certain Estate to them and their Successors of or in any Part or Portion of the First Fruits and Tenths, as shall to them be allotted or applied; Be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That when any Part or Portion of the First Fruits or Tenths remaining to be applied or disposed of by virtue of the said former Act, shall be annually, or otherwise applied or disposed of, for or towards the Maintenance of any Minister officiating in any Church or Chapel as aforesaid, such Part or Portion shall from thenceforth for ever be in like Manner continued to the Minister from time to time so officiating in the same Church or Chapel; and every such Minister, whether Parson, Vicar, Curate, or other Minister for the time being, so officiating in such Church or Chapel, shall and may from time to time take and receive, and by virtue hereof is and shall be intitled to have and enjoy the same for ever.

Minister, &c. to receive the same.

V. And be it further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be taken and accepted in all Courts and Places whatsoever, as a publick Act.

Act to be a publick Act.

VI. Provided nevertheless, That this Act, or any thing herein contained, shall not extend or be construed to extend to avoid or diminish any annual Sum, Stipend, Pension, or Annuity now in Being, which hath heretofore been granted to any Person or Persons, Body Politick or Corporate, and charged upon the said Revenues of First Fruits and Tenths, or any Part thereof; but in case it shall so happen that by discharging such small Livings, or Benefices with Cure of Souls, as afore-mentioned, of the Payment of First Fruits and Tenths, and all Arrears thereof, the First Fruits and Tenths which hereafter shall be collected in any Diocese or Dioceses, shall not be sufficient to pay and satisfy such annual Sums as they now stand respectively charged with, then the whole Revenues arising from the First Fruits and Tenths, throughout the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, shall be liable to make good all such Deficiencies, and the said Deficiencies shall, out of the said Revenues (during the Continuance of such Grants, from time to time as any such annual Payments shall become due) be paid and satisfied to all such Person and Persons as shall in any wise be intitled to receive the same, in such Proportions as are limited and appointed in such respective Grants.

Not to diminish Pensions, &c. heretofore granted out of First Fruits.

Whole Revenues, &c. liable to Payment of such, &c. See further 3 Geo. 1. c. 10. which appoints a Collector of the perpetual yearly Tenths.

and Consent of the Bishop of each respective Diocese for the time being, should direct or appoint; and after the Expiration of the said Term of twenty Years, for the perpetual Augmentation of such small Rectories and Vicaridges within the said Kingdom of Ireland, as the said Lords Justices, or other chief charged with, or liable to any Debts, Charges or Incumbrances, jointly with any other Lands, Tene-

Hereditaments in the first Place should be liable to, and should answer and satisfy such Debts, Charges and Incumbrances; and the said Trustees, or any seven of them, were thereby authorized and required to make Sale of such other Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or of a competent Part thereof, for or towards the paying off, clearing and discharging such Debts, Charges and Incumbrances; and as soon as conveniently might be, from and after such Sale, and the clearing and discharging such Debts and Incumbrances, such Rectories impropriate, Tythes, Advowsons, and other Things so vested in the said Trustees, and directed to be conveyed in Trust as aforesaid, as were, together with such other Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, jointly charged or incumbered, should be conveyed, and the said Trustees, or any seven of them, were thereby authorized and required to convey the same to such Person and Persons, and in such Manner, and to such Uses, Intents and Purposes, as in the said first recited Act is directed and appointed, freed and discharged of and from all such Debts, Charges and Incumbrances, be the same by Matter of Record, Mortgage, or otherwise: And whereas the said Trustees, according to the Powers given to them, did convey the said Rectories impropriate, with the Tythes, Oblations, Obventions, Glebes, Advowsons, Vicaridges, and other things thereunto severally and respectively belonging or appertaining as aforesaid, to William Neave Esquire, one of her Majesty's Serjeants at Law in Ireland, Marmaduke Coghill and Morley Saunders, Doctors of Law, Samuel Dopping, John Usher and Stephen Ludlow Esquires, their Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, for the Purposes in the said first Act mentioned: And whereas by several subsequent Acts of Parliament passed since the making the said first recited Act, divers Parts of the said forfeited and other Estates and Interests by the said first Act vested in the said Trustees, have been given, granted, or restored to several Persons, and for several Uses, Intents and Purposes in such subsequent Acts mentioned, in the passing of all which subsequent Acts it was intended that no Person or Persons was or were, by any such subsequent Act of Parliament, in which any Clause or Provision was made or inserted for or in favour of the said Church of Ireland, to be restored, or to have, by any such Act of Parliament, any Right, Title or Interest into or out of any of the said Rectories impropriate, Tythes, Oblations, Obventions, Glebes, Advowsons, Vicaridges, or other things thereunto respectively belonging or appertaining, as aforesaid, but that they should remain, continue, and be in the said Trustees in the said first recited Act named, to and for the Uses and Purposes therein mentioned: And whereas it was likewise intended that sufficient Provision should be made in every such subsequent Act of Parliament for that Purpose, and several Clauses and Provisions were respectively inserted in every such subsequent Act and Acts; nevertheless several Doubts, Suits and Controversies relating thereunto have arisen, whereby the Church reaps little or no Benefit by the said first recited Acts; For Remedy whereof, and for making the said intended Gift of Parliament more effectual for the pious Ends and Purposes mentioned in the said first recited Act, be it declared and enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice

Uses, Intents and Purposes, as therein mentioned, as fully and amply as if the same had been reserved out of, or not given, granted, or restored by the said subsequent Act or Acts of Parliament, or as if such subsequent Act or Acts of Parliament, in which any Clause or Provision in favour of the Church of Ireland is inserted, and not otherwise, had never been made and enacted.

II. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Bonds taken in the Names of the Trustees in the first recited Act mentioned, or in the Name or Names of any other Person or Persons, for any Sum or Sums of Money due since the passing the said first recited Act, for Tythes or other Profits issuing out of any the said Rectories impropriate, Advowsons, and other Things so intended for the building and repairing of the said Churches, and not already paid and discharged, shall be and are hereby made recoverable in the Name or Names of the respective Obligees, and shall be paid and payable by the respective Obligees, their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, to the said William Neave, Marmaduke Coghill, Morley Saunders, Samuel Dopping, John Usher, and Stephen Ludlow, their Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, for repairing and building decayed and ruined Churches in the said Kingdom of Ireland; any Judgment, Decree, or other Thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

Where Tythes have been leased with Lands at a Rent in Gross, &c. the said William Neave, &c. to receive a tenth Part of the Rent, &c.
